

THE ROBESONIAN.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

A. F. McALLISTER, EDITOR.

C. P. McALLISTER, BUSINESS MANAGER.

FRIDAY, September 8, 1905.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $1.50 PER YEAR.

It is true of nations, States and communities, as well as of individuals that their wealth is not measured by what has been produced, but by what has been saved and kept at home. Naturally, the South is the wealthiest section of this continent, and it has since the war, produced wealth enough to have enriched it fabulously. Its accumulation of wealth however, has been retarded by the severe drains upon it in sending out both its money and its product to other sections. One of the large channels through which much of its wealth has flowed which has enriched other sections is insurance, and until comparatively recent years, there has been but little effort made to restrict this drainage. Within recent years however, insurance companies have been organized in the South. Later they have come even into our own State and now within touch of our own immediate borders.

Early this week a life insurance company of $250,000 capital, $105,000 of which has been paid in, was organized in the city of Fayetteville, with Mr. E. H. Williamson as president and a board of thirty-one directors. A good deal of Robeson county capital is invested in the enterprise, which gives an interest in the success of the institution, which should urge every one about us to give it their cordial encouragement and substantial support. Insure in the Southern Life and keep your money at home, should be the motto of Robesonians. We copy the following Fayetteville special of the 5th to the Wilmington Messenger:

The Southern Life Insurance Company was organized here today, capital stock $100,000. It largely oversubscribed and is a representative gathering of the strongest men of the Cape Fear section. It is estimated that the men in attendance represent the wealth of over two million. R. D. Caldwell, of Lumberton, was made chairman, J. A. Oates, secretary of the meeting. Articles of incorporation were read and adopted. The following were unanimously elected officers: President, E. H. Williamson; Vice Presidents, W. J. Johnson, John Blue, A. L. James, R. D. Caldwell; General Manager and Treasurer, C. J. Cooper, Medical Director, Dr. J. V. McLaughlin; Executive Committee, W. A. Vanstony, A. L. Shaw, R. McMillan, A. E. Rankin, T. B. Upchurch, W. L. Holt, W. H. Sikes, T. L. Northrop, backed by a strong board of directors.

The meeting adjourned to meet here September 19th for adoption of by-laws and permanent organization. C. J. Cooper and his associates are warmly congratulated on the success of the organization.

Gaddysville Items.

Mr. J. M. Gaddy was here on business Tuesday.
Mr. S. E. McKinley, of Dillon, spent last week here with relatives.
Mr. Frank Williams, accompanied by Miss Blanche Ward, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. J. R. Burns.
Mr. Kinard Rogers, of Pages Mill, S. C., spent Monday in town.
Mr. J. W. Burns went to Mullins on business Tuesday.
Mrs. Maggie Rogers is erecting a nice little cottage.
Mr. F. F. Miller spent Tuesday here.
Mr. H. L. Curtis and family spent Sunday with relatives in S. C.
Mr. Troy Cobb and Miss Florence Bracy, of Rowland, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. J. M. Gaddy.
Mr. J. G. Regan received a very painful wound while bathing in Pee Dee river Saturday afternoon. He started to jump and his foot slipped, causing him to fall on a snag and cut a very ugly place in his side.

Port Arthur territory fell to her also. And a large sum of money comes to her both for taking care of Russian prisoners and the railway line in question. Russia's place in the orient for which she had expended so much money is all gone, save one ice bound port. Japan feels, and with good reason, that she got enough in the glory that fell to her in an uninterrupted series of great victories by land and by sea. May the peace be a lasting one. All the world joins in this hope.

Governor Glenn did the very thing he ought to have done in calling upon the solicitor of the district to go to Newberne and ferret out by legal processes the guilty fifty men who went to the jail there and took from it a negro who was incarcerated for assaulting the wife of a postmaster with an axe for purposes of robbery and hanging or shooting him to death. It was a brutal murder that was committed. The woman assailed by the negro was not killed and the purpose of the assault was not the nameless crime, but robbery. We see in this heartless crime committed so deliberately and unexcusably the tendency of mob law. The tendency must be arrested. If proper reverence, the only safeguard of the people, is to be maintained for law and the courts, such high handed and cold blooded murders must not be permitted in the commonwealth. Murderers must not be allowed to escape because twenty-five or fifty of them are conjoined in a given felony. Crime is crime if committed by one or by fifty. The governor stands as the chief executive of the law and is each bound to enforce it. All good and law abiding citizens will commend and uphold his hands as he does his duty faithfully and fearlessly.

Look Out For Me! The Yellow Sign!

I am now in the Northern Markets purchasing my Fall and Winter Stock of CLOTHING and DRY GOODS. I am buying them so as to SAVE YOU MONEY, and am paying Cash and getting the closest possible prices, so that I may be able to save you money on your purchases. Cotton will be a good price this fall, and in consequence I am buying largely, expecting BIG SALES. My store will be more crowded with Goods than ever before, and if GOOD GOODS at LOW PRICES are any inducement my store will be crowded with people as well as Goods. Keep your eye on this space, and I will have something to tell you when I return and open my stock.

Whenever even a single leaf on a tree covers its greenish coat with the hue of yellow, it is a sure sign that Fall is approaching. Add to this the preparation that is going on by the many species of emigratory birds to move to their Winter Quarters, and you are positive that Fall is staring you in the face. Yet we have a more reliable and surer sign than both the above mentioned, and that is when our Mr. S. Dunie goes to the NORTHERN MARKETS, and loads upon loads of the best

CLOTHING

HIGH-ART GENTS'

Clothing. Furnishings. Shoes, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Blankets, Comforts, DRY GOODS, ETC..

Are arriving daily, and such Bargains that only our Mr. S. Dunie being so acquainted with nearly all the Northern Manufacturers, and always buying for cash, is able to get it for such low prices, this is the best and most reliable sign that Fall is coming. The space is too valuable to mention articles and prices, but you only ought to see the big loads of goods coming in daily, and it will convince you that the prices must be away down. Come over to see us—it is a pleasure to look at such a stock, even when not buying. We will make a specialty of selling very low,

Over One Hundred Thousand

The Ashpole Market had on Sale for the Opening, over One Hundred Thousand Pounds Tobacco. The prices were generally satisfactory. In some cases where the strings had not been taken off, the burnt not taken out, and mixed stuff not separated from the good Tobacco, and in some few cases where it was offered too green, the prices were not altogether satisfactory.

Get the Strings Off, Pick out the Burnt, and do not try to Sell it Green.

KEEP THE SUOKERS OFF IT while in the field, if you want to make GOOD TOBACCO with BOTH, BODY and COLOR. Fix it up right, BRING IT TO ASHPOLE, and you shall have the worth of it.
