

ECZEMA A FLESH FIRE

Those afflicted with Eczema know more than can be told of the suffering imposed by this "flesh fire." It usually begins with a slight redness of the skin, which gradually spreads, followed by blisters and pustules discharging a thin, sticky fluid that dries and scales off, leaving an inflamed surface, and at times the itching and burning are almost unbearable. While any part of the body is liable to be attacked, the hands, feet, back, arms, face and legs are the parts most often afflicted. The cause of Eczema is a too acid condition of the blood. The circulation becomes loaded with fiery, acid poisons that are forced through the glands and pores of the skin which set the flesh aflame. Since the cause of the disease is in the blood it is a waste of time to try to cure it with local applications; the cause must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. has no equal as a remedy for Eczema; it enters the blood and forces out the poison through the natural channels, and builds up the entire system. The skin becomes smooth and soft again, and the Eczema is cured. Cases that have persistently refused to be cured under the ordinary treatment yield to its purifying, cooling effect on the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.

Eczema made its appearance on my left limb the size of my thumb in 1893, and spread until it was large as my hand, burning, itching and painful, and for which I could get no relief, until seeing the other cures advertised by you I wrote and secured the advice of your physicians, commenced S. S. S. and it cured me.
Mayetta, Kan. J. H. SPENCER.

Pushing the Old Folks Aside.

When the babies are cross and a man would like a quiet retreat there is none for him. But in a few years, when the children are grown and he is in the way, the daughters and mother put their heads together and originate a den. There is no den for the mother because she gracefully eliminates herself by sitting in the kitchen or running over to a neighbor's. It is her natural disposition to hide in a corner or remove herself entirely, and it is not the natural disposition of the father. Hence the den. It has a couch and some pipes and tobacco and the books which the neighbors haven't got around to borrowing as yet, though if father begins a story today the book will be found to be loaned out when he wants to finish it tomorrow. The den is a fashionable way of pushing the old man out. If there is one in your house, Mr. Man, don't be deceived.—Atchison Globe.

A Big Meeting Schedule for Charlotte.

Charlotte is to have in September the greatest religious revival in its history, if recently completed arrangements do not miscarry. Three of the best-known evangelists in the world will conduct the revival, which is to be known as a chatauqua, and one of the most noted musical organizations in America will furnish music on the occasion.

The preachers engaged for this religious chatauqua are Rev. William Spurgeon, the famous English divine of London; Rev. Sam P. Jones and Rev. George F. Stuart.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Attacked by a Mob and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonaha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at all drug stores.

Gen. Grosvenor is headed homeward, and those Republicans who have been trying to sidetrack him had better examine into the condition of their cyclone cellars.

Still, the adoption of the dual tariff scheme would make it necessary for the Republicans to think up something new in the way of a platform pledge.

Reign of Tlo.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 7.—The news from Baku, received up to the time of filing this dispatch, is of the gloomiest character. The Armenian and Tartar warring factions now appear to be entirely beyond control. The streets of Baku seem to be unsafe for the inhabitants and the force of troops to be inadequate to restrain the anarchical tendencies of the combatants in the surrounding region. According to reliable reports the troops have been forced to withdraw from the suburb of Balhakan where on Tuesday the rioters set fire to the oil works and that place is now in the hands of the Tartars, who have completed the work of destruction and who it is said, massacred the inhabitants who did not accompany the troops in their retirement. Telephonic and railroad communication between Baku and the suburban oil centers is cut and late last night it was reported that the wires into Baku were down.

The viceroy of the Caucasus has dispatched reinforcements of troops from Tiflis, but owing to the conditions throughout the whole of the Southwestern Caucasus it is thought that even with these reinforcements the troops will be inadequate to deal with the situation. In the suburban region the fight is desperate and the soldiers are using artillery.

Representatives of the oil industry here are utterly despondent and they declare that on the basis of the telegrams so far received more than half of the industry in the Babu region has been wiped out and that the fire is making rapid inroads into the remainder of the oil territory.

Numerous and Worthless.

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. O. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For blind, bleeding itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

I have prescribed it for a number of my patients with good success." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co.

Two men, one white and one colored, are dead, another colored man is bruised, a mule is dead and a buggy is smashed almost to kindling wood as a result of an accident at Whitaker's Crossing some two miles northeast of this city, where the Louisville road crosses the Seaboard Air Line railroad tracks, close to the junction with the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railway, yesterday morning about a quarter to ten o'clock. The white man is John Nipper, who lived near Lassiter's Saw Mill in Barton's Creek township, and the dead colored man is Jim Brooke, of Barton's Creek. The other negro is David Clay, also of Barton's Creek. As they heard the railroad crossing, they heard a locomotive blow, but could not see the train on account of some clay banks overgrown with high weeds and grass to the east of the road. The train was running in toward Raleigh. The mule took fright at the whistle and started to run, Clay being taken by surprise and unable to hold him. The locomotive and three log cars passed just in front of the affrighted mule, and then just as a flat car came by the frenzied animal reared up and tried to jump over the flat car or between the cars. The train was moving fast and the mule and buggy were dragged for a distance, and then hurled off with terrific force.—Raleigh Post, Sept. 5th.

The Sweetest of All.

Something of the poetry of the home appears in a little story told by the Philadelphia Times:

As soon as it was announced that Mr. Alexander Simpson had been elected to the position of president of the Philadelphia Bar Association, his lawyer friends went to his house and offered him their congratulations.

Mr. Simpson's small son was in the room, and for several minutes he watched the scene with round eyes. Then he made his way through the crowd until he reached his father's side.

A gentleman had just said, "I congratulate you, Mr. Simpson," when the newly-elected president felt a tug at his coat tail. Looking down, he saw his son.

"Well, what is it, my boy?" he asked.

"I love you, papa!" piped a tiny voice in reply.

Overcome with feeling, the father lifted up his son and kissed him, then set him down. As the little fellow trotted off the men nearest Mr. Simpson extended their hands in silence. Conventional congratulations somehow seemed out of place.—X.

A Laxative Cough Syrup.

"A cold or cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throats instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It meets and corrects the above conditions, by acting as a pleasant cathartic on the bowels—expels all colds from the system and cures all coughs, croup, whooping cough, LaGrippe, bronchitis, etc. Sold by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co.

"No, begging for it."

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." All druggists, sell and guarantee them, at 50c a bottle.

The lawless element in New York will become alarmed when Mr. Jerome begins trying his cases in the courts instead of in the newspapers.

Lieut. Gov. Sherman, of Illinois, is out after Senatorial honors. The announcement places Dick Yates in the also-ran class without further notice.

It is quite probable that the railroad companies will not object if the Congress spends all the next session discussing tariff problems.

"I reflect with sorrow how little justification there has been for the claim you make of having rendered me your constant support," says Lord Curzon to Premier Balfour. "You're a liar," was never expressed in more diplomatic language.

If a Cow gave Butter mankind would have to invent milk. Milk is Nature's emulsion—butter put in shape for digestion. Cod liver oil is extremely nourishing, but it has to be emulsified before we can digest it.

Scott's Emulsion

combines the best oil with the valuable hypophosphites so that it is easy to digest and does far more good than the oil alone could. That makes Scott's Emulsion the most strengthening, nourishing food—medicine in the world.
