

THE LAST ACT OF KINDNESS!

There comes a time when the Last Act must be performed for our Friends and Kindred, that of tenderly laying the body away in its last resting place.* This, all desire to do decently and in order.

We announce that we have purchased from Mr. O. C. Norment his stock of Burial Caskets, Coffins, Robes, &c., together with the good will of said business, and that we have purchased additional stock of these articles, and in addition thereto, we have purchased an Eight Hundred Dollar Hearses and other necessities, which we expect to receive in a few days, so we will be prepared to furnish proper conveniences for burials. We will carry all grades of Caskets, Robes, Etc., and this line will represent an investment of Three Thousand Dollars, which we have been influenced to make through our desire to be of greatest assistance to stricken homes of our Town and Country. We are now building a warehouse to be fitted with Cases to keep in good order a good stock of these supplies.

SPECIAL NOTICE---We shall sell these supplies on same terms that they have heretofore been sold by Mr. Norment, and on same terms that they are sold by all Dealers, STRICTLY FOR CASH.

Items of Interest Gathered For Tar Heel Readers.

Postmaster Caskill, of Fayetteville, was in Washington last week seeking re-appointment as postmaster. The candidacy of Judge Thomas Sutton is also a lively factor in the contest.

Rocky Mount is to have a Home Fire Insurance Co. A sufficient amount of capital has been guaranteed by a sufficient number of Rocky Mount, but those handling the movement are still soliciting stock, the idea being to divide the stock in the communities surrounding Rocky Mount. Business will begin some time in January. The people who are fathering the movement, will see to it that the company is so capably managed that it will be a success from the very beginning.

Deer in Henderson.

Henderson, Dec. 11.—It must be that our little town is growing rapidly for of late quail have been seen in town in large numbers, and today a large deer ran down and then across Main street, and through the town. This is the second that has been in town in the past ten days, and we can not account for it, except on the supposition that the town has grown around them and they pass through in an attempt to escape. The one killed in town today was a fine one.

Blown Up by Dynamite.

A negro employed on the construction force of the Southern Power Company working between the dam near Fort Mill, and Clover, S. C., sat down on a box of dynamite Friday morning, to thaw a stick of the same dangerous stuff and was blown high into the air by the explosion of the piece in his hand and that in the box. The stick went off first, and then the box. At last accounts the negro was still living, but in rather precarious condition.

Conundrums.

When does a woman sneeze three times? When she can't help it.

What notes compose [the most favorite tunes and how many do they compose? Bank notes, and they compose (four) for tunes.

What is the difference between love and war? One breaks heads, the other hearts.

Where should you feel for poor? In your pocket, to be sure.

What kind of wild animals are allowed on the lawns of public parks? Dandelions.

Japan wants $25,000,000 for feeding the Russian prisoners.—Japan must have got hold of one of those St. Louis hotel price cards that were used during the exposition.

Dr. Potat Made President.

Wake Forest, Dec. 11.—Thursday was a great day for the college. Prof. Potat was installed president with much ceremony succeeding Dr. Taylor.

The new president, W. L. Potat, has been trained by Dr. Taylor and begins the work under the most favorable circumstances. The fact that his selection is approved by the great Baptist hosts of the State, and an evidence of the large number of friends of the institution throughout, the commonwealth, is shown by the large crowd of people on attendance at his inauguration this afternoon. It is the largest assemblage of people that has ever gathered on the campus of the old college.

The presentation addresses were delivered, the first one being by Dr. W. C. Tyree, D. D., President of the board of trustees.

The feature of the occasion was the inaugural address of Dr. Potat on "The Christian College." It was a masterful effort; the exposition of a living subject by a man qualified in every respect to give a clear and comprehensive presentation of a topic near to the hearts of the people.

The occasion worked an important epoch in the history of this institution. Dr. Potat assumes the presidency under most auspicious circumstances. The institution's prospects for the future are bright.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of the Throat and Lungs. At all Druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Accepted Kiss As Fee.

Mr. David Guy Maxwell Dulin and Miss Margret Jane Dulin were united in marriage yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock the ceremony being performed by Squire David Guy Maxwell, at his office in the Wilkinson building. Col. Maxwell felt a personal interest in the young couple because the groom was named for him, his father having served in the company in the Confederate army which Col. Maxwell commanded at one time, and having become much attached to his officer.—The only fee the jovial magistrate charged for uniting the couple was a kiss from the bride who blushing and smilingly paid the fee Mr. and Mrs. Dulin will live at the home of the groom in Crab Orchard township—Charlotte Observer.

A Full Stop

A return traveler who spent half of his holiday in a tour of Ireland brought back a sample of the happy-go-lucky wit of the Irish "jarvey" or driver. In a break-neck race down a hill he suddenly realized that the spirited little Irish mare running away.

"Pull her up!" he shouted excitedly.

"Hold tight, your honor," returned the jarvey easily.

"Pull her up!" again commanded the traveler, making a grab for the reins.

"For your life don't touch the reins," the jarvey answered without tightening his grip. "Sure, they're as rotten as pear."

The traveler made ready to jump but the jarvey laid a soothing hand on his shoulder.

"Sit easy," he said reassuringly.

"I'll turn her into the river at the bridge below here. Sure, that'll stop her."

G. B. Barbans testifies after four years.

G. B. Barbans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."—Dr. McMillan's Drug Store.

The Newspaper and His Community.

Speaking of what a newspaper does for a community, United States Senator David Davis, of Illinois, made an address that remains ever green in the memories of newspaper men. He said: "Every year every local paper gives from 500 to 5,000 free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor in proportion to his means does more for his own town support, not because you happen to like him or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be crowded with great thought, but financial it is of more benefit than both preacher and teacher. To-day editors do more for less pay than any man on earth. Patronize your home paper, not as a charity, but as an investment."—Newspaperdom.

If I Had A Boy to Educate.

"If I had a boy to educate I would equip him with a scientific training rather than train him in the professions—law or medicine," remarked a man whose hobby is scientific studies. "There are too many doctors and lawyers and not enough scientific men. Take for instance the field that natural history offers. The supply of curators for museums is far below the demand and a young man who would educate himself with the idea of filling such a post would have unlimited opportunities for a successful career. Such a curatorship pays well and then it opens up a literary field to the holder. The man who can write entertainingly about animals will not find his stuff go begging, as the success of Ernest Thompson Seton demonstrates. Now Thompson Seton is not rated at a great naturalist, in fact scientific men regard him as considerably more of a romance than a student of animal life. Jack London is not given any standing as a naturalist but he was able to turn out of his most successful book, 'The Call of the Wild,' on his slight knowledge of natural history. The number of writers turning out this class of literature, which is widely popular, is very limited and a young man equipped with an education to turn natural history to some account would have practically a virgin field open to him."

KILLS LIKE LIGHTNING

How Deadly Rheumatism of the Heart Comes On.

Those pains you feel when you first arise in the morning—aching pains in the joints, shooting pains in the muscles—are signs of warning. They are danger signals, evidences of a deep-seated trouble that if not removed may affect the entire system and cause chronic disease, or if the cause is not removed, they may develop suddenly into the deadly Rheumatism of the heart, which kills like lightning.

Better get rid of the cause at once. Rheumatism and its kindred diseases are caused by the accumulation of poisonous acids in the blood. Rubbing with oil or liniments will not cure it; it is an internal disease, and can be conquered only by an internal remedy. There is just one complete cure.—RHEUMACIDE. RHEUMACIDE neutralizes the poisonous acids sweep all the dangerous germs out of the blood and makes you well all over; RHEUMACIDE CURES because it is the only remedy that 'gets at the joints from the inside.' Mr. W. R. Hughes, of Atkin, Va., writes:

"Four bottles of RHEUMACIDE have entirely cured me of a long standing case of Rheumatism, and greatly improved my general health. I was a total wreck, having had rheumatism for twenty years. I spent several weeks and much money trying specialists in New York, but RHEUMACIDE is the only cure I have found. When I began to use it I weighed 140 pounds. Now I weigh 180 pounds, my normal weight."—Sold by Dr. McMillan, McLean Reser and Co and Dr. H. T. Pope.

Chinese Servants.

In China it is a common thing for some people to bewail the lack of a cook, while their neighbors have numbers offering themselves directly the vacancy occurs. The reason of this is that each cook hands on to his successor his employer's "character." This he does by means of a saucpan left standing in the kitchen.

If the place be considered a good one a saucpan will be left on the ground with the lid put on properly. If the lid be put on wrong way uppermost it means that the place is a good one and that the cook has only left for a time and means to return as soon as he can. If the lid be put half in and half out of the saucpan it indicates that the place is a good one, but the master is stingy. If the lid be on properly and some rice be left in it it shows that the servant is quite satisfied with everything concerning the owners of the house, but that he is obliged to leave owing to debts or other causes which inconvenience him. If the employer be in the habit of making his servants pay for lost or broken articles a chalk mark will be found on the bottom of the saucpan, which will not easily be rubbed off.

The Chinese "boy" makes his mark behind the bedroom or pantry door and the waterman his on the bottom of tubs. These signs are said to have been originally adopted by the Chinese from the Tamils.—Ex.
