A Chicago Alderman Owes Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Dr. H. T. Pope & Co. Dr. R. G. Rozier, and H. B. Ward.

G. B. Burhans testifies after four years

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe Kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of Kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from Kidney or bladder trouble." MCKELWAY AGAINST OBSERVER

Plaintiff Gets one Penny and Must Pay Half the Costs.

Charlotte, N. C., March 19.—The case of A. J. McKelway against The Observer Publishing Company, for $50,000 for libel, came to an abrupt close here this afternoon when after the jury had been selected, and the witnesses called, a second proposition to compromise, made on the part of the plaintiff was accepted by the defendant and plaintiff declined to introduce and evidence and plaintiff received a verdict of one penny and pay half the cost. This is the ending of one of the most exciting trials ever held in this city, and is considered as a complete victory for The Observer Publishing Company.

The suit grew out of an editorial published in The Observer last June in answer to an editorial in The Presbyterian Standard.

The witnesses on the part of The Observer comprised among its number many prominent men of the state. The people here are well satisfied with the result of the trial, as they feel that it was a matter that should never have gone to court. It is understood here that Mr. McKelway is to move to Atlanta shortly.
