Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Lumberton, N. C., under the Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1906.

Has anybody asked you the old question, "Is it hot enough for you?"

Since Ex-Congressman Romulus Zig-Zag Linney has named the place of holding the Republican State Convention, the executive committee need only to fix the day.

A Louisville woman laughed herself to death over a funny story. She must have gotten hold of a part of the congressional record containing speeches on the rate bill.

When Kuropatkin announced that he would write a history of the Russo-Japanese war, he was asked if it would be a "running story." Now he will not write the story at all.

The Washington Post fears that something will be left unsaid in connection with the rate bill discussion. Among other things, it says: "Wouldn't it be simply awful if after the rate bill is passed and signed, some senator should think of something he left unsaid."

The people of the State are wondering who will succeed Thomas S. Rollins as chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee. Some one said to Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., recently that the judge was the man for the place. To this Judge Bynum replied, "I would as soon be in h— without claws as to be mixed up in such a crowd." Next!

President Roosevelt's sudden change of attitude with reference to the rate bill has lowered him considerably in the estimation of the people generally. Senators Tillman and Bailey have attacked him in speeches that were bitter in their denunciation of him. The trouble is that President Roosevelt has talked with too many members of congress and allowed himself to be quoted on more occasion than was best for him and the supporters of the rate bill.

"I don't want you to speak to me again," is what Judge Pritchard said to Congressman Blackburn in Washington Wednesday. Several years ago Congressman Blackburn went to Raleigh and in a hard fought contest with Marion Butler stood side by side with Senator Pritchard. We had thought Senator Pritchard too much of a gentleman to refuse to shake hands with a man who had labored for him, but his action only goes to show how great is the ingratitude of some Republican politicians.

The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin in which it is stated that one woman out of sixteen works for her living. There are only eight trades in which women are not engaged. This is fine news, isn't it? It is very encouraging to the advocates of women suffrage, who will throw up their hats and shout for joy. But it does not seem "fine" to us. What is the matter with our girls? Are they extravagant and not willing to be makers of homes, rather than to be engaged in business? What is the matter with our boys? Are they not willing to provide for their sisters? These are burning questions that come trooping into our minds and press us for an answer. They are questions in which our future is involved.

Brown Captures Convention.

Wilmington, May, 15—Friends of J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, seem to have captured the county convention here to-day for the selection of delegates to the State and district conventions. G. J. Boney was elected chairman and to him was delegated the authority to appoint delegates to all the conventions after conference with an advisory committee to be appointed by him, one from each ward in the city and one member from the county townships at large. It was expected that Godwin, of Harnett, would lead in the congressional race in this county but, at the ward meetings last Tuesday night, a business man's ticket of delegates to the county convention appeared in the central wards and were elected without opposition.

The Congressional Vote.

According to the official vote for Governor in 1904 as given in the North Carolina Year Book, the vote of the several counties in the Sixth District in the Congressional Convention, later to be called, will be as follows:

New Hanover	26
Brunswick	13
Bladen	20
Columbus	32
Robeson	49
Cumberland	34
Harnett	24
Total	198

Johnson-McCormic.

The following invitation has been received: "Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. McCormic request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Lena Esten, to Dr. Livingston F. Johnson, Wednesday afternoon, May the thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six, at half after five o'clock, Methodist Church, Rowland, North Carolina."

Change of Schedule.

Effective May 27th, trains No. 39 and 40, now operated between Hamlet and Wilmington, will be extended through to Charlotte, as was in effect before the change of April 15th. These trains will take care of all local stops and eliminate the necessity of Nos. 28 and 41 stopping between Monroe and Hamlet. This will save the annoyance of a change of trains at Hamlet and Monroe by passengers going from here to Charlotte.

NAME CARVING.

Upon the sands I wrote my name
And hoped that it might stay,
But soon there came the sweeping tide
And washed my name away.
Again, I carved upon a tree
My name in letters plain,
But when I came in after years
I searched for it in vain.
A granite shaft I built so high
And on it placed my name;
The stone endured but for while
And then it downward came.
"If all these fail, what shall I do?"
I asked myself at last;
And then I thought of another plan,
A plan with joy forecast.
On hearts of men my name I'll write
In letters bright and fair
By deeds of good that I may do
While I am living here.
And then beyond the touch of time
My name will surely live,
For reason of good that I may do,
And joys to others give.—C. A. H.
Most men would save a lot of money by letting others do all the speculating.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.
You must look well after the condition of your liver and bowels. Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing indigestion, biliousness, headache, dizziness, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetable. The dose is only one pill at bedtime.
