SPRINGS NEWS.

REV. P. R. LAW, EDITOR.

There is something inspiring and encouraging in the dash and enterprise of the Lumberton folk in proceeding to build two magnificent cotton mills at one time. There is an example in it for other towns. May it be followed There is sobriety in the steps of the Lumberton builders. We see the National Cotton Mill management has made Col. N. A. Mc Lean president. He is one of the most conservative of business men, is clear-headed always, even brilliant, as is known of all in tyese parts. Then there is the bracing of G. B. McLeod as vicepresident and A. P. McAllister as secretary-treasurer. The officials, including an experienced and successful superintendent, are all that could reasonably be desired. The Dresden Cotton Mill stock holders have elected the same officials was have run with such signal success the Lumberton Cotton Mill. Therefore nothing more could be reasonably desired for this mill also. The intelligent activity of the projectors and builders of these great plants warrant a full expectation of success. Let other towns go and do likewise. They

The world is brightened by noble deeds. They are alas too infrequent. Everyone should be told. The story is ever read with relish. It rarely happens that the publication of one fails to do good. We have one of the best of the kind. Messrs. George, Alf and Sandy McLeod agree to found a scholarship at the Southern Presbyterian College at Red Springs in memory of their father, the late A. H. McLeod, Sr This donation is worthy of al praise. In no way could these sons perpetuate the name of their tather more nobly. It links his name with the active forces of the Kingdom of Christ through future ages. There is a sweet consciousness one awakens in himself when he put something from his earthly goods into an estab lished Christian school, because it is his privilege to feel that he himself will be a recognized force throbbing with righteous energy Friends of the college by the school. thousand will read this fine item hearts thankful to these gracious resume her work as missionary.

The address of President E. W. Stevens at the opening of the 54th Annual Session of the Southern Baptist Convention in Chattanooga, Tenn., last Friday is a notable one for the encouraging statistics it presented in ingenious array. Comparing reports of years and decades far pole, spent Sunday here with apart is an adroit performance to relatives.

tian world, with one great throbbing heart-is made glad at the tidings of such forward marching and signal victories with which the address bristles. There are 5,000,000 Baptists, we are told, in America and 4,000,000 of them are in the South. And one half these four millions are white. There are now 187 missionaries in the employ of the foreign board and over 700 in the employ of the home board. The contributions to missions for the past year has been $315,000. Foreign mission work is going on in Japan, China, Mexico, Brazil, Argentine, Italy and Africa, under its management and support. There are 103 educational institutions under its control, 52 uni versities and 51 academies. The Theological Seminary at Louis ville, Ky., has an endowment of
