THE LATEST SHAME.

A little less than a month ago—during the night of July 13th—four members of a hardworking honest farmer's family, including himself, were fell upon while they slept in their home in Rowan county and murdered.

We do not believe that any punishment so severe for those who are guilty of committing a crime as black as the murderers of the Lyerly family committed but a mob is not the right party to administer the punishment.

NEEDED LEGISLATION.

There is one thing which we trust the next Legislature will do as soon after it meets as possible and that is to enact a law giving to the corporation commission of North Carolina more power touching the regulation of railroads.

passengers. There are quite a number of roads in North Carolina which, on account of negligence, are in such condition that it is absolutely unsafe to operate passenger trains over them.

UNFAIRNESS IN CHALLENGES.

Judge Neal is in favor of some changes in our laws. He says: "Under the law as it now exists in this State, when a person is charged with the commission of a capital, criminal offense and is placed on trial he may challenge preemptorily twenty-three jurors and the State challenge only four."

We hardly ever talk shop but occasionally the notion strikes us. This is one of those times. We are sure there are lots of people in the county who ought to be taking the Robesonian and we hereby invite you to do so.

The Cowardice of Mobs.

The Monroe Journal adverts to the cowardice of mobs, who always wreak vengeance on friendless and unprotected criminals, but who are mighty careful to keep their hands off criminals of prominence and influence.

The finishing touches are being put on the Raleigh and Southport railway at Fayetteville. The work of construction southward from here to Lumberton, it seems, will rest for a little while.

By-Lo is so fine that it floats in the air, and so delicately perfumed with the odor of fresh flowers, that we know you will like it. It does not have that Talcum Powder odor, just

The Smell of Fresh Violets.

We handle all the different kinds of High-Grade Talcum Powders, but regard By-Lo as the best there is. You will think so too when you try it.
