COUNTY PRIDE.

Texas is the largest State in the union so far as area is concerned and it has the largest rural population. It is said that although the population of it is made up largely of immigrants, persons who moved to Texas from nearly every State in the United States, that State pride is stronger there than in any other State.

future. These difficulties exist in nearly every county in the State. If to give the greatest good to the greatest number is the correct principle, it would not do to create a new county everywhere these inconveniences exist.

But the demand for a division of the county does not come from the country people who are most inconvenienced but from a few residents of towns, who for other motives desire the change, and these motives are not always unselfish ones.

Notwithstanding all this, the great masses of the people in the upper end, the lower end, the eastern and western and the central portions of the county are determined not to allow their great county divided, because after all they love the county and county pride still over-comes selfishness and prejudice.

We love this great county as a whole more than we love any portion of it alone. We love its people, wherever they live or from whatever section they come, and we trust the day will never come when we shall be unable to look upon and admire them as citizens of the largest and best county in North Carolina.

We are very much interested in the progress and development of Lumberton. After existing for a century as little more than a county seat, in the past few years she has taken on the ways of progress. Within the past six years her population has more than doubled and her business and industrial life has largely increased.

Marietta, N. C., Has Fine Prospects

It is located on Raleigh and Charleston Railroad, half way between Lumberton, N. C., and Marion, S. C., in middle of a fine farming section and great timber land. Its people are of the best, and it now has a large saw mill, a large planing mill, a tobacco sales warehouse, six stores, and with a neat railroad freight and passenger station in the center of the town. There is every prospect of the erection, this fall, of a large cotton mill, the opening of a bank, and other industries closely following. A landed in crest here cannot be badly placed. See Town Site Map, and the undersigned.

BY-LO Talcum Powder, Natural Violet.

By-Lo is so fine that it floats in the air, and so delicately perfumed with the odor of fresh flowers, that we know you will like it. It does not have that Talcum Powder odor, just

The Smell of Fresh Violets.

We handle all the different kinds of High-Grade Talcum Powders, but regard By-Lo as the best there is. You will think so too when you try it.
