ON HAZING.

From present indications, it looks very much "ke thè co 'eges and other educational institutions of the State are going to make determined efforts to put an end to hazing. Four Sophomores were expe"ed from the Agriculat Ra'eigh, the past wee'r for hazing Freshmen. At Tritity under the auspices of the Wash the author are expensed in toh Start & good one. It themselves in an emphasic manner against the custom. Ane-State University, at Chapet H has done "kewise.

We don't think that this practice among students has always been as barbaric as it is thought to have been by some who are not familiar with the real condihad the effect of rubbing the v'e. fresh fellow down and taking the freshness out of him. In former for the fun that was in it and no harm was ever done unless it was an exceptional case.

end will help him to resent it as a matter of principle.

At the University the past week Freshman Hatch was walling along one of the dark streets and was met by three or four other students who had been there longer. One of them, O'Ne" made an effort to grab Hatch. The latter, in a moment of fright and dread of hazers, drew his pistol and shot O'Neill, inflicting slight wound. Hatch says the Sorhomores had threatened him previously and he thought the time had come and he did what he did to defend bimsel? against being hazed. This incident will probably have a good effect towards stopping the practice there.

Mayor Thompson has had notices posted in public places about the town that hereafter the ordinance in regard to obstruction of side welks and streets will be enforced. The section referred to is: "Obstructing the sidewalks, or streets with any buggy, wheelbarrow or other ter General Hitchcock some time vehicley chairs, benches, open gates, chicken coops, boxes or other articles (except infant carriages and invalid chairs) shall render the offender subject to a fine of five dol'ars. Provided; that nothing in this section shell prevent builders from obstructing the streets, but not sidewalks, for a reasonable length of time with material while work is in progress. Provided, further, that merchants exhibiting their goods on the sidewalk in front of their stores shall leave a space of six feet thereon clear."

The above ordinance is a good one and should be strictly enforced. The sidewall's are intended for people to walk on and should not be blocked, taking from the people their right of way. In regard to blocking the streets with vehicles, this is a most dangereous practice. We have noticed anywhere from five to ten idle vehicles standing on one street. If a horse attached to a buggy should become frightened, run away and crash into them some day the town would have to stand the expenses of a law suit for damages. Mayor Thompson is tr'ing the proper steps and we hope to see our streets and sidewalks kept clean.

New Postal Experiment.

A very interesting experiment b s irauguarated in a number o' the large cities, and may be exterded later to smaller ones to dispense with the stamping on the backs of all letters received.

At the present time each enve ope handled in the mails is stamped on the front side with the name of the place of sending together with the date, and oa the back it is stamped with the place of receiving and also with the date and hour.

The department has already made an experiment in New York, Eoston and Je sey City and Chicago.

Now an order has been issued, effective October 1, that in the cities of Richmond, Va., Albany, St. Louis and other points, the experiment shall be begun, and will be continued long enough to determine definitely what differ ence is made, and what saving of time, etc., is gained.

It is an idea that first originated with First Assist nt Postmasago, and if it is found that the new plan makes the additional clerks called for each year, less, will probably be dropped wherever its use will prove of financial benefit to Uncle Sam.

Ine idea at first thought seems to be a good one, and it is not un'ikely that in most of the cities. of any size in a few years, letters wi' not have to be stamped at the postoffices with the receiving

Hatch Discharged.

Durham Herald

There was a great deal of talk resterday over the shooting in Chapel Gill right before lastthe shooting in which Freshman Hatch shot and wounded Sophomo 'e O'Nei".

Call on or write us.

It is learned that young Hatch as been discharged from custody and that the condition of O'Ne'' is such that it is now ?' most certain that he will recover. It was the talk of Chapel Hill yesterday. A great many of the citizens did not know of the shooting yesterday.

From what was learned yesterday it seems that Freshman Hatch, who is nothing more than a mere boy, being about seventeen and sme" for his age, was arrainged. He wason handwhen the case was cried. But there were no witnesses. The wounded Sophomore did not want to prose cute and those with the men are not known. I hat ended the case so far as the magistrate was conderned. He could not force Hatch to the stand to tell what he knew about the matter and there was no other person who seemed The following item is from a to know and Hatch was discharge

A creation that startles and a s inptuous scenic spectacle beauti ful beyond description. Opening with the time-honored burnt cork semi-circle for so long known as the First Part of Minstrelsy, the company presents an ar ray of black-faced comedians who are prominent as fun makers everywhere The comedians are in black-face, while the soloists are presented in "white face. The former represent the up-to-date Min strels, while the latter picture the wan dering Minstrels who flourished in Ho mer's day, seiting the events of history to musice. While the First Part feature is steged magnificently, and the company elaborately cost amed, the humor and melody of the old semi-circle as of ginat ed by Dan Decatur Emmett, prevails .-The jokes are crisp and c sply told, the solo and ensemble music high class, and the dances the latest and the best.
