UNIVERSITY DAY CELEBRATED.

The Alumni of Maxton Have Appropriate Exercises—The Warehouse Company Make Fine Showing.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

An occasion that was very much enjoyed was a banquet given at the Maple Shade Hotel on Friday night by the alumni of the University of North Carolina. The table and dining room were beautifully decorated for the occasion. The menu was served in courses and showed how well Mrs. Weatherly knows how to set her table for such. The following alumni were present, the young men each inviting a lady friend.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. McNatt, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLean, Dr. M. R. Gibson and Miss Kate Thompson, Mr. Leon T. Cook and Miss Emma Belle McRae, Miss Lucy Cobb and Mr. Jno. McKinnon, Mr. F. L. Black and Miss Mabel Wooten, Hon. G. B. Patterson.

Mr. F. L. Black, was toast-master and the following toasts were given and responded to after a few words of welcome were made by Mr. Black: "The University and the Alumni," by G. B. Patterson; "Old College Days," by Leon T. Cook; "University Day Poem" (original) Miss Cobb; "The Ladies," by S. B. McLean. After this the guests went to the parlor where first an organization of the alumni of Maxton was effected. Dr. McNatt was elected president and Mr. F. L. Black secretary and treasurer.

The banquet was enjoyed very much by all present and it is hoped to have a more elaborate one 12 months hence than this.

The old college days were discussed by the men and the one lady alumnus of the place, Miss Cobb, until the time came to leave.

The credit of this first gathering together of the University Alumni is due to Miss Cobb.

Misses Sallie McArn and Lillian Smith, of Rowland, were visitors here this week.

Misses Kate and Mary Scutherland are the guests of Miss Eliza McQueen this week.

Hon. Lee S. Overman spent last Sunday night with Mr. A. J. McKinnon. He was on his way to Lumberton, where he made a speech.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLean returned home Wednesday morning from their bridal tour.

Mr and Mrs. J. E. Avent and their little nephew, Leroy Utey, left Friday afternoon for their new home at Morganton where Mr. Avent has accepted the position as superintendent of the graded schools.

Mr. W. H. Harding returned home Wednesday morning after an extended tour North, where he went on business.

Mr. Ed. McRae and Mrs. R. M. Williams, spent last Wednesday in Lumberton with friends.

Miss Clarkie Belle McNair spent several days at the Southern Presbyterian College at Red Springs the first of the week.

Mr. H. B. Adams, a prominent young attorney from Laurinburg, spent last Wednesday night here with F. L. Black, Esq.

Miss Maud F. McRae, of the Southern Presbyterian College at Red Springs, is at home for a few days this week.

Miss Johnnie Bason, of Red Springs, spent a few hours in town last night.

Miss Emma Belle McRae, of the Southern Presbyterian College, came home last night to spend several days with her parents.

There was a meeting of the stockholders of the Warehouse Co. held here last Wednesday. The affairs of this concern showed up well and the management were doing their full duty. The books showed a dividend of 14 per cent. had been earned. It was ordered that 10 per cent. be paid over to the stockholders and that the remaining 4 per cent. be applied to the surplus account. The following directors were elected: A. J. McKinnon, A. Shaw, A. M. McKinnon, H. G. Hill, E. F. McRae, J. L. McLean, D. A. Patterson; and the following officers were elected: E. F. McRae, President; A. J. McKinnon, Vice-President; T. O. Evans, Secretary and Treasurer.

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 13th.

Lumber Bridge News.

Mr. Conley and Miss Cade Wed—Social Functions—Mr. Shaw Better—Lumber Bridge Light Infantry Elects Officers and Contest For Medals.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Mr. A. E. Conley and Miss Bertha Cade were quietly married at the home of Mr. J. W. Hall last Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. R. Law. The bride wore a gray coat-suit and hat to match. They left immediately for Washington and Niagara Falls. We wish them a long and happy life.

Our young people were most pleasantly entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. H. M. John last Wednesday evening, the amusements being various games and music.

They also attended a quilting party at Mrs. Carl Howard's last night. Our girls are getting quite domestic of late "Shelling Peas" and "quilting"

Miss Eva Cade, of Salemburg, came home to attend the Conley-Cade marriage.

Mr. J. W. Hall returned home from Florida Saturday.

We are glad to see Mr. A. L. Shaw out again after quite a severe attack of acute indigestion.

An error occurred in last week's issue. Mr. Ed. Sikes, of Perry, Fla., was expected home but didn't come.

In compliance with Special Order No. 56, from adjutant-general headquarters, there was an election held in the armory of the Lumber Bridge Light Infantry to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. J. W. Hall, which resulted as follows: First Lieutenant J. B. Malloy elected Captain, and Sergeant D. A. Barlow was elected first lieutenant. There was a good attendance at the meeting. All seemed enthusiastic and both officers were elected by acclamation.

The company held its annual target practice today on the rifle range and contested for three gold medals and one gold-head cane presented to the company by that loyal and big hearted honorary member, Ed. Currie, and one sharp-shooter's medal, which were won as follows:

First prize, J. F. Pitman; second prize, W. H. Freeman; third prize, Capt. J. B. Malloy; fourth prize, W. W. Smith; fifth prize, H. C. Miller.

Capt. J. W. Hall, of Irvine, Fla., was with the boys today and showed them that he can still shoot a rifle. He made the highest score at the practice.

Lumber Bridge, N. C., Oct. 13th.
