NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

What Offices are to be Filled in Several States and Territories.

New York Dispatch

A week from Tuesday there will be election in forty-two States and three Territories. Oregon, Maine and Vermont have already elected State officers and members of the Sixtieth Congress. In twenty-three of the States a Governor and other State officers (in twenty of them also, a Legislature); in ten, minor State officers of justices of the Supreme Court; in two, congressmen and a Legislature, are in seven congressmen only, are to be elected. Oklahoma is to vote on a State Constitution, and Arizona and New Mexico on joint statehood.

The terms of thirty United States Senators---fifteen Democrats and fifteen Republicans---expire March 3, 1907. Virginia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Arkansas have already selected Democrats, and Georgia has a Legislature which will elect another, while Maine and Oregon have Legislatures which insure the return of Republicans. Of the twenty-two States in which is to be chosen November 6 a Legislature that will elect United States Senators, fourteen are now represented in the Senate by Republicans and eight by Democrats.

A national House of Representatives is to be elected---the Sixtieth Congress, with 3-6 members. The present House is composed of 250 Republicans and 136 Democrats. Maine has already elected four Republicans, Oregon two and Vermont two.

There is fusion in only one State---Nebraska---where the Democrats and Populists agreed upon a division of the State nominations, though in several other States the Republican or Democratic candidates for State offices have been nominated or endorsed by one or more of the minor parties.

As usual, there is one State ticket---the Democratic---in South Carolina. Pennsylvania leads this year with the greatest number of State tickets---twelve. Parties are numerous, those having tickets in the field being: Independence League, Citizens', Commonwealth, City Referendum, Jefferson, American, Anti-Administration Republican, Reorganized Republican, and Lincoln Republican. Six of them, however, are confined to Pennsylvania.

The Socialists have tickets in 25 States, the Prohibitionists in 23, Socialist Labor in seven, Populists of Peoples' Party in four and the Independence League in three, while "Public Ownership" has a ticket in one State.

The number of tickets in the different States is: 1, South Carolina; 2, Tennessee, Washington; 3, Delaware, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Rhode Island, Utah; 4, Connecticut, Colorado, Idaho, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Wyoming; 5, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, New York, Ohio; 6, Indiana, Massachusetts, Texas; 7, California; 12, Pennsylvania.

The Socialists have tickets in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

The Prohibitionists in California, Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Texas, Wisconsin. The Socialists Labor in Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas. The Populists or Peoples', in California, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas.

The Independent League in California, Massachusetts and New York.

Union Labor in California, Pennsylvania; "Public Ownership" in Minnesota, Anti-Administration Republican in Alabama, Reorganized Republican in Texas, and Independent Democratic in Colorado.

The Socialists and Prohibitionists have nominated candidates for Congress in many districts, and in others Labor Unions or Federations have endorsed Democrats or Republicans who are believed to be favorable to their cause.
