SHANNON NEWS LETTER.

Laying of Corner Stone of Presbyterian Church at Red Springs - For Better Roads - Personal.

After some time we will try to pen a few lines for the paper. Since our last Mr. A. D. Conely has had tussle with typhoid fever but he is convalescent now, we are glad to report.

Mrs. N. A. Cobb has been sick for sometime with "Lo grippe" but is recovering slowly now.

Mr. Richard Baxter has been in poor health for sometime but his health is somewhat improved so he was able to come to the gin with cotton on the 9th, and had the misfortune of falling in the hopper and got his leg cut and bled badly.

We did intend to write regarding the Public roads but we see that the editor has called the attention of our newly elected officers to the necessity of keeping their campaign promises, and has referred to the road law.

We are hoping to see some work done before the meeting of our law makers. If our roads can be graded as some one says, for $38, per mile we might have more work accomplished with the 1906 taxes than has been done up to this time. Some of the bridges are in need of repairs here about and the sand is deep in some places. I think the roads could be graded cheaper by letting the roads out by contract.

We attended the laying of the corner stone of the Presbyterian church at Red Springs on the 8th and enjoyed the occasion very much the exercises by the masonic order were witnessed by a large number of the prater nity and by the schools of the place besides quite a large number of ladies and gentlemen from the town and surrounding county. All seemed to enjoy the day.

Prof. J. B. Carlyle was the orator of the day. His address was just five. Though the crowd was large the dinner was ample and was just elegant.

There have been near 1100 bales of cotton gined here to Nov. 10th. The cotton crop is short in this section. The estimates run any where from 23 to 34 of a crop.

Shannon, N. C., Nov. 10th.

Raeford News Notes.

Mr. J. A. Patterson spent Monday in Fayetteville.

Miss Bessie Muse, of Laurinburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Morgan.

Mr. J. C. Morgan, of Monroe, spent a day last week with his sister here, Mrs. E. B. McNeill.

polled Tuesday in Raeford only two were Republican.

Miss Ade H. Barnes, of Smithfield, has accepted a position as assistant in the postoffice here.

Rev. Jas. A. Smith, of Wilmington, visited his sister, Mrs. D. B. McLean, the first of the week.

Miss Grace Robinson, who has been a student in school here this fall, on account of the ill health of her mother returned to her home in Hope Mills Wednesday.

Mr. Smith McKeithan is erecting a new residence on Fulton street.

In no time past has Raeford enjoyed more unbound prosperity than now. At present there is not a store vacant and several new dwelling houses built in the last two weeks are almost finished. The addition of a new factory, a good high school and the proposed electric lights are evidences of the town's growth. It is gratifying to know that the prospects for the future are very bright.

The Halloween party given in the school auditorium by the young men to the young ladies of the school last Friday night was unqualifiedly a successful one. Ghostly figures and weird tales haunted the participants long after the party had broken up. All expressed themselves as having a most enjoyable time.

SMYRNA NEWS.

Marriages Two - Mr. Wishart and Miss Lennon, Mr. Hill and Miss Lewis - Other Happenings.

Rev. A. E. Paul filled his regular appointment at Smyrna church Saturday and Sunday.

School opened at Bordenville last week. Mr. Geo. Warwick and Miss Graham are the teachers. The average attendance for the first week was about 30.

Kingsdale has opened a school for the benefit of the children of that place. We are always glad to see good schools in our community and especially one that has music department attached.

Mrs. Dock Edmond, of Lumberton, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Parker.

Mr. Ira E. Wishart, who came home from Wake Forest sick, suffered a relapse, but is convalescent again, we are glad to say.

The Smyrna Sunday school is progressing nicely. Sunday we had about 150 present. Yet we have room for greater work and earnestly insist that all of the children in reach of our church may come into the school room.

Last Sunday Smyrna was the scene of two marriages, to the great surprise of all who were present.

Just after the sermon Mr. Palmer Hill and the daughter of Mr. Rob Lewis, of Bellamy vicinity were married. Many congratulations to this young couple. Both are nice looking.

Just after the congregation was dismissed another couple was on the scene and the congregation assembled in the church to witness the marriage of Mr. Frank A. Wishart, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wishart, and Miss Bertha L. Lennon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, of Bellamy. They took dinner at Mr. A. S. Wishart's Sunday and left on the train today for Wilmington, where they will live. Mr. Wishart is engaged in business there.

We also wish them a happy lot and may their sorrows be few and far apart. While we trust their joys may be as numberless as the sand of the seashore.
