In ordering the address of his paper changed a subscriber should give the address to which it has been going, and the new address. With the large circulation that it has, the Robesonian is a first-class advertising medium. Rates will be furnished promptly to prospective advertisers.

The paper wants to be fair to correspondents and will give them as much latitude as it thinks public policy will permit. We are not responsible for the views of any correspondent. We require that a writer sign his name to a communication attacking some one else or an institution. In publishing articles where the name of the writer is not required to be published, we reserve the right, for good reasons, to give the name when asked for.

Entered as second-class matter at the Post-office at Lumberton, N. C., under the Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1906.

Inasmuch as Lumberton was content to sit quietly by and allow the new Methodist College to be located elsewhere, we are glad that it is to be situated within the borders of our county. The citizens of Maxton have shown a most commendable breadth of spirit and a devotion to the town and its best interests which speaks well for them and for their town. They have done themselves proud and may well rejoice in their good fortune. The benefit to them and their town will increase as the years go by, and while those who have subscribed, may receive no dividend-checks from the investment, the benefits derived therefrom will be more lasting and of far greater value. The Robesonian congratulates the people of Maxton on their good fortune and the town itself on the public spirit shown by its people, and wishes the institution to be the fullest measure of success.

The Seaboard Air Line is not only up-to-date in one respect but in one instance it is ahead. We ordered a shipment of news the other day and the day after it was delivered to the road at Richmond, Va., it was delivered in our warehouse here. That is quicker almost than it delivers passengers.

MAXTON VICTORIOUS.

Proposed new Methodist School For Young Women to be Located at This Thriving and Wide-Awake City—Two New Churches.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

On Tuesday, last, the delegates and representative of the various towns in the Fayetteville, Rockingham and Wilmington Districts met at Maxton, and presented their claims to the committee on location for the location of their proposed new college.

Fayetteville, Sanford, Red Springs, Hamlet and Maxton were placed in nomination. Each town had an advocate who presented the advantages, subscriptions, etc, for their towns. The speeches were able, and full of humor and flavor. It is doubtful if ever an institution in North Carolina started under such enthusiasm and circumstances of favor as this institution.

Maxton offered the preference of four choice locations and a guaranteed subscription of $12,000 beside other subscription. Fayetteville offered a beautiful site and $25,000 subscription; Sanford offered a site and $12,000; Red Springs, a site and $15,000. Hamlet, a site and $12,000.

After a good natured but thoroughly contested effort, owing to its superior location and railroad facilities for the accommodation of the section to be benefited, Maxton was chosen.

It is an auspicious beginning that this school has subscriptions came from the heart, regardless of denominations. The enterprising citizens of Maxton stood solidly for the school Maxton is now erecting two modern churches at a cost of about $30,000, and now with a great new school she offers advantages which few town in the State offers to the home seeker.

ASHPOLE NEWS LETTER.

New Houses Being Built—Rev. Mr. Jackson and Mr. N. A. Thompson Indisposed—Minor Matters.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Mr. McKenzie, Robesonian representative, was here last week raking in subscriptions and money. Hope he made a great success.

There are about eighteen houses being built in our little town right now, with several more to be begun at once.

Mr. F. G. Taylor left last Saturday for a vacation trip to South Carolina. He said he was going deer driving but the boys spell it dear.

Architect Cooper, of Wilmington, was up last Saturday to arrange numerous things concerning O. I. Floyd's brick building. Contractor Arch Collins is building a house for Boyd Hays and will remodel Mrs. Augusta Ashley's dwelling.

Mrs. Jane Thompson, of the Kentyre section, South Carolina, is visiting relatives in town.

We are sorry to report the venerable N. A. Thompson in worse health than usual.

Rev. J. B. Jackson, not being at all well last Sunday, his place was ably filled by Prof. L. T. Royal. There was no service at night. However Mr. Jackson expects to be fully recovered in a few days and will preach on Thanksgiving day as usual.

Attorneys Lee and Britt, of the Lumberton bar, were visitors in town last Friday.

Mr. J. B. Miller, recently appointed town marshal, has moved his family into the P. R. Floyd house.

Mr. Whaley, of Lumberton, and his pretty run about, were the center of attraction on Main Street last Tuesday afternoon. Ashpole, N. C., Nov. 21st.

Death of Mr. T. H. Hutchison's Father.

At the home of his grandson, Mr. J. T. Kunkle, 218 North Fifty-ninth street, West Philadelphia, on the morning of October 29, 1906, Mr. Charles Hutchison, formerly of Kingston, Pa., died.

Mr. Hutchison was born at the Brig o' Johnston, near Paisley, Scotland, August 30, 1824. When but a boy of ten years he came with his parents to Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. Leaving there in his young manhood, he came to Pennsylvania, where he married and became identified with the anthracite coal industry, being one of the pioneer individual coal operators of the Wyoming Valley. He was progressive and public-spirited. The first coal cars that ran on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad he owned, and afterwards sold to that company. The first telephone in the valley connected his office with his mines. Mr. Hutchison was also a Christian man and devoted to the interests of religion. Not only the churches of his own faith, but of others, were liberally assisted by him. He was one of the charter members of the Presbyterian church of Plymouth, Pa., and afterwards, for many years, a member of the Kingston Presbyterian church. A student in youth of the Word of God, its promises in advanced age were consolation and support.

The day following Mr. Hutchison's death a son-in-law, the husband of his daughter, Louisa Eno, was killed in a railroad accident, and within a week his daughter, Agnes (Mrs. Kunkle), living with her son in West Philadelphia, suddenly passed away. The interment of father and daughter was at Forty Fort, Pa.

Deceased was the father of our townsman, Mr. T. H. Hutchison, who attended the funeral.

The Farmers and Merchants Bank, of Stanley, of which Mr. O. L. Spaulding is cashier, opened for business Tuesday. Mr. Spaulding is known here, having married a daughter of Mr. C. B. Townsend.
