LUMBER BRIDGE LETTER.

Delightful Entertainment at Graded School Thanksgiving—Orphans Remembered.

Written for The Robesonian.

Lumber Bridge Graded School treats the town and community to something new, pleasing and patriotic in the form of Thanksgiving exercises, which were held Wednesday evening, so as to reach the greatest number possible. The true spirit of Thanksgiving could not fail to quicken anyone, so fortunate as to be present. The selections were happily chosen and the sentiment was in perfect harmony with the occasion. The participants of all grades did so well that personal mention of anyone would not be in good taste, unless perhaps, a special thought might be given to the beauty, grace and dignity of the "Queen of the Harvest," in the person of Miss Katie Marley. It is always right to speak well of a queen. Her throne, erected in the midst of an ideal harvest scene, surrounded and decorated with fruits and flowers, shocks of golden grain, baskets of corn, heaps of potatoes, onions, melons and pumpkins, more suggestive of a bountiful harvest than our "cornucopia," made realistic the thought that our very existence is due to the God of the Harvest. With this thought impelling us to deeds of gratitude and loving charity as with one accord each pupil of the school, in a song of praise, marches to lay his offering at the feet of the Harvest Queen, she rises from her throne, bids them take these gifts—tokens of genuine love and thankfulness—to earth's more needy ones, the orphan homes, where plenty is a stranger and comforts sparse and few.

The offerings of fruits or anything else the child might wish to give bore evidence of the fact that it was a keen pleasure to these children to give to the fatherless or motherless children of our Oxford Orphanage. The value of these gifts was more than six dollars and a cash offering, without taking up a collection, amounted to nearly five dollars.

We feel very grateful to all the teachers of our excellent school for our Thanksgiving exercises. Such lessons cannot fail to make better men and women of our boys and girls. The following programme was well executed:

ROWLAND NEWS LETTER.

Methodists to Give Bazaar for Benefit of Parsonage—Mr. McCormick and Bride Visit Relatives—Miss McLeod and Mr. Smith Wed—Rev. Mr. Bradley Will be Transferred Personal Mention.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Mr. R. S. Bond spent several days in Richmond the first of last week.

Miss Eleese Roseman, of Clio, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Alice Saunders.

Register of Deeds Bullock and family ate their Thanksgiving turkey with relatives here.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a bazaar commencing December 13th, and lasting three days. The proceeds will go towards completing the parsonage and it is hoped they will be liberally patronized.

Miss Dera Drye, of Carolina, S. C., spent several days at the home of Mr. W. H. McCallum the latter part of the week.

Mr. James Gordon McCormick and bride, of Mariand, Fla., who stopped over here on their bridal tour to visit relatives, have returned home. Mr. McCormick is an old Robeson county boy, being a brother of Mr. H. K. McCormick, but has been in Florida for the past ten years. He and his bride were given a cordial welcome and much regret is expressed at their early departure.

Miss Hallie Lytch, who has a position in the graded school at Bennettsville, spent Thanksgiving with home folks.

Miss Naomi Lytch, who is now stenographer for a large Dillon firm, was at home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. J. P. Smith, Jr., and Miss Mary McLeod, two of our most popular young people, were married last Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being most impressively performed by Rev. W. T. Walker. They boarded the train immediately for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend their honeymoon. Miss McLeod is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McLeod, while Mr. Smith is the senior member of the well-known firm of McRimmon, Smith & Co.

Mr. J. S. Funchess, an old knight, but now doing a prosperous wholesale fruit business in Wilmington, was greeting his friends here last Wednesday. Rev. J. W. Bradley leaves Tuesday for conference which meets this year at Rocky Mount. Having been stationed here for the full limit of four years it becomes necessary to transfer him to some other point. There is no doubt that his four years here have been productive of greater good than was that of any of his predecessors—being endowed with an unusual amount of energy and having a heart full of love for his work, his achievements here for the four years have been little short of marvelous. Wherever he may be sent he carries with him the best wishes of a host of friends.

Mr. Will Murchison and friend, Mr. Ross, of Dillon, were in Rowland a short while last Wednesday.

Mr. Clyde McCallum went to Fayetteville Saturday night, coming back Monday morning. Rev. Mr. Bailey, of Timmonsville, S. C., filled the pulpit of the Ashpole Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and was greeted by a large and appreciative audience.

Ellsworth Plumstead filled the boards at the opera house last Friday evening. The presentation was very creditable and the audience went away well pleased.

Rowland, N. C., Dec. 3rd.

THOMPSON-MONROE.

Dr. N. A. Thompson and Miss Katherine Graham Monroe Wed.

The marriage of Dr. N. A. Thompson to Miss Katherine G. Monroe was solemnized at the Monroe homestead, near Manchester, Cumberland county, Wednesday, the 28th. It was a quiet home wedding, only near relatives of the bride and a few intimate friends being present. Rev. Watson M. Fairley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Fayetteville, briefly, but impressively performed the ceremony. No invitations were issued. Cards reading as follows have been received here:

Mr. Daniel Alexander Monroe announced the marriage of his sister Katherine Graham to Doctor Neill Archie Thompson on Wednesday the 28th of November one thousand nine hundred and six Manchester, North Carolina. At home, Lumberton, North Carolina.

The bride comes of one of Cumberland's oldest and most prominent Scotch families. She is a woman of most lovable disposition and character and of rare attractiveness. She was for a short time head nurse of the Lumberton Sanitarium and while here made many friends, to whom it gives pleasure to know she will hereafter be a permanent resident of Lumberton.

Dr. Thompson is a native Robesonian, but has been a resident of Lumberton for only a short time. He is the owner and founder of the Lumberton Sanitarium, which was made possible only by his skill and energy. He is popular with our people, both as a man and as a physician and has a large and rapidly increasing practice.

A Millinery Tea.

Miss Maggie Pitman delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home Friday evening. Each young lady had been requested to bring an old untrimmed hat and some trimmings. Later in the evening these hats were presented to the young men, also a needle and thread, and the work began. It was amusing to see the earnest looks on their faces as they patiently finished the young ladies, amid much laughter, put the hats on and adjourned to the dining room. The table was artistically decorated in pink and green and loaded with delicious fruits.

After much discussion it was decided that Mr. James Beckwith had made the most successful milliner and was given the prize. The booby was given to Mr. Ed. Fope. The prizes were delivered by Miss Christine Gower.

The young people then indulged in games until the hour of departure and reluctantly said good-night, all voting Miss Pittman a most charming hostess.
