ROWLAND NEWS LETTER.

Bazaar Begins—Spark's Circus has Record-Breaking Crowd—Rev. Mr. Ashby Goes to Rowland—Personals.

Mr. R. S. Bond and Dr. W. L. Grantham were in Lumberton one day last week.

Dr. J. P. Ewing, of Dillon, spent last Thursday here with relatives.

Mr. A. L. Bullock attended to business at Lumberton Monday. J. G. McCormick, Esq., of Lumberton, was here on business Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, Jr., have returned from their bridal tour, which included Jacksonville, St. Augustine and other Southern points.

Mr. Jno. W. Ward spent last Tuesday in Lumberton on business.

Dr. W. L. Grantham was called to Marietta last Tuesday afternoon on professional business.

Rev. J. M. Ashby, formerly pastor at Ashpole and Asbury churches, has been sent to Rowland for the coming year. Rev. J. W. Bradley, formerly pastor here, has been sent to Troy.

The Methodist bazaar started Thursday morning and from present indications promises to be a complete success.

Spark's shows exhibited here last Monday and drew perhaps the largest crowd that has ever assembled in Rowland. It is above the average in decency and morality and deserves to be liberally patronized.

Mrs. Hedgpath and daughter, Miss Lula, of Ashpole, visited relatives here last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Lizzie Burns, of Ashboro, N. C., who has been visiting relatives here and at Echo, has returned home.

Mr. Frank Allen, the clever insurance man, was here part of last week.

Rowland, N. C., Dec. 12th.

LUMBER BRIDGE LOCALS.

Sudden Death of Mr. Munroe—New Teacher in Primary Department—Personals.

Miss Essie Shaw returned home from Peace Institute last Thursday night.

Mr. Duncan Malloy spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Malloy, last week.

Misses McMillan and Lena Ausley visited friends at Shan- non last week.

Mr. Preston Stamps, of Fayetteville, visited relatives here last Sunday.

Misses Mittie Cobb and Essie Shaw spent Monday in Fayetteville.

Dr. D. S. Currie, of Parkton, was in town last night on "business."

Prof. L. L. Hargrave attended the teachers' meeting at Rowland last Saturday. He is well pleased with the town.

Mrs. E. L. Hargrave has resigned as teacher of the primary department and is succeeded by Mrs. A. B. Smith, who will teach till Christmas.

We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Margaret Shaw, which occurred last Saturday week, also Mr. Peter Monroe died suddenly yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock. Mr. Monroe has been in feeble health for sometime.

BAZAAR AT BOARDMAN.

The Ladies of St. Jude's Church Give one For Benefit of Church—Proceeds Reach $55.

On Wednesday evening, December 5th, the ladies of St. Jude's Episcopal church opened their bazaar, which proved to be a success in every particular.

The bazaar was for the purpose of placing on sale, for the benefit of the church, a display of fancy and practical articles made by the ladies for this purpose; considering the small number of people engaged in the work and the limited length of time given, the exhibition was a credit to the taste, skill and energy of those interested.

The decorations of the different booths were unique and attractive. The art booth was attended by Mrs. E. B. Wright, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Covington, Miss Carpenter, and Mrs. Turner, and netted the society about $60.

Across the aisle from this attraction was the lunch counter. The original idea was to have it as near the real thing as possible, but the gay arch, the decorative plants, chinese lanterns, flags, etc., gave it a decidedly festive appearance. There were served coffee, chocolate, doughnuts and an elegant assortment of cakes, in such a pleasing manner that the booth was well patronized the whole evening. The committee at this booth was composed of Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. McNaughton, Miss Bennett, Miss Parker, Miss Markham, and brought into the treasury about $12.

The novel feature of the evening was a Japanese cherry tree. This curious tree, imported from the edge of the swamp, was loaded with red and yellow cherries, which were sold at five cents each, and each cherry entitled its possessor to a mysterious package from behind the scene. So satisfactory were these cherries that they soon disappeared, and the amusement from this time on was centered in the fish pond.

There were fishes galore, but in the course of time even these were exhausted and still there were would-be purchasers clamoring for more; soon attendants with glowing checks began to flit to and from the fancy work department laden with spoils. After this booth was sacked doughnuts and cakes began to appear on the large fish hook to the great enjoyment of the merry crowd, and the fish pond was pronounced closed only when the lunch committee declared there was nothing left to give them but one cup of cold coffee. The successful operators of the Japanese cherry tree and the fish pond were Mrs. Sheldrake, Mrs. J. S. Wright, Miss Pattie Boyd and Mr. Ched Wheatly, and they had about $15 to show for their very busy evening.

To the satisfaction of the ladies of the church everything provided for the bazaar was disposed of, absolutely nothing remained on hand, and Mrs. Davenport, the small treasurer, almost staggered under the weight of the $55, which were the total receipts of the affair.

Boardman, N. C., Dec. 11th.

If you like coffee but dare not drink it, try Dr. Shoop's Coffee. It is true that real coffee does disturb the Stomach, Heart and Kidneys. But Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee has not a grain of true coffee in it. Being made from parched grains, malt, etc., it forms a wholesome, food-like drink, yet having the true flavor of Old Java and Mocha coffee. "Made in a minute." Call at our store for a free sample. Sold by H. W. Boardman.

Echoes From The Baptist State Convention.

Written For The Robesonian.

The number of Robesonians in attendance upon the Baptist State Convention at Greensboro last week were notably conspicuous, and all seemed to enjoy themselves in a very high degree.

The large delegation from all parts of the State, including a goodly number of representatives from other States, were royally entertained by the generous inhabitants of the Queenly City; and Greensboro most wonderfully sustained her reputation of being a rapidly growing and prosperous city. It was a privilege to be there. The Convention was not up to the average in some of its aspects, but we attribute the shortage due to the absence of Dr. B. D. Gray, of the Home Board, who has the distinction of being one of the best speakers in the South, and Dr. R. J. Willingham, of the Foreign Board, also held in high regard. But none were so much missed as our own beloved veteran, Dr. J. D. Huffman, who is popularly known in the conventions as the "Walking Delegate." However, the denomination has made rapid progress in its growth and spiritual development.

There were many more additions to the churches than were reported the previous year, and a larger number of church-houses built. $104,500 were contributed to the various objects against $92,000 the year before.

We enter our new year with glad and grateful appreciation of the past and reaching out with determined energy to even greater things.

By the time our Convention meets in Wilmington we expect to have raised $150,000. Endowment for Wake Forest College; $40,000 for State Missions; $30,000 to Foreign Missions; $20,000 for Home Missions; build an Infirmary for the Orphans to cost $10,000; and give our Seminary at Louisville, Ky., $1,600.

Of course, the Baptists of Robeson will do their part; but while we make contributions in money let us not forget to pray the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth more laborers in His harvest. It gave us inexpressible joy to visit our Orphanage at Thomasville and see 330 sweet children who are being cared for by the Baptist of North Carolina. We spent about six hours with them.

We caught ourself at intervals, submerged in the tides of emotion and would secretly enquire: "What are you weeping for?" and the answer would come through our soul like this: "For joy because it is the good fortune—under God—for so many poor little children to have such a splendid home. Everything there is done 'decently and in order' being under the sole influence of Godly management, and the atmosphere is sweetened with the presence of the Orphans Father.

We loved the orphans before. We love them better now, since it was our privilege to go and see them and listen to the music of their sweet voices attuned by the heavenly lyre.

It is but the voice of the whole Robeson delegation when we say the crowning was the Orphans' speech before that great body of Baptists, and the climax of our joy to visit them in their magnificent home.
