To My Friends and Patrons:

I wish to thank you, one and all, for the patronage you have given me the past year, and would like to say that I am endeavoring to serve you better in the future than I was in position to serve you in the past. I have made a study of the wants and needs of my customers, and will try to show you the year 1907 not only the Best that the Market affords, but the Latest and Nobbiest Articles that come out in Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings. Call to see us if you do not purchase an article, and you will always receive a hearty welcome and courteous treatment. Again thanking you for past patronage and soliciting your future business, I beg to remain,

Cordially and Truly Yours,

MAXTON NEWS LETTER.

Veterans Attend Reunion—Bank Did a Good Business the Past Year, and Elects Officers and Directors for This Year—Much Dissatisfaction at Missing Connections—Personal.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.
Col. W. M. Jones and Cadet G. H. McLean of the North Carolina Military Academy were here awhile Sunday.

Mr. O. C. Spaulding, cashier of the Bank of Maxton, succeeding Mr. M. W. Cole, arrived Tuesday and has taken up his new work. His wife is in Lumberton now visiting her father, Mr. C. B. Townsend.

The following veterans left Monday for Wilmington where they will attend the reunion of the Fort Fishers survivors: Messrs. C. C. Patterson, Angus Shaw, J. C. McCaskill, A. McKay, J. L. McLean, E. L. McCormick, B. F. McLean, and Dr. J. D. Croom, of Maxton, and Messrs. D. McCormick, Ed Purcell, Frank Currie and Frank McKay, of Red Springs.

There was a stockholders and director's meeting of the Bank of Maxton in the office of the bank last night. The affairs of the institution were found to be in the best of shape, the securities all gilt edge. Since increasing the capital from $20,000 to $40,000, last April the Bank has made over $4,000. The following officers and directors were elected: T. O. Evans, Pres., O. C. Spaulding, Cashier, A. J. McKinnon; V. Pres.; Lacy Williams, Asst. Cashier. Messrs. W. S. McNair, J. W. Carter, J. G. McCormick, A. J. McKinnon, J. M. Burke, G. B. Patterson, Neill Alford, J. K. McGirt, R. M. Williams, T. O. Evans and M. W. Cole the board of directors.

Much dissatisfaction is being expressed by the travelling men on account of the missing of the connection with the Seaboard Air Line here in the evening by the passengers coming in on the Atlantic Coast Line. On Tuesday and Sunday evening your correspondent was at the train and the Seaboard Air Line pulled out after the Atlantic Coast Line had blown for the station, thereby causing the Atlantic Coast Line passengers to miss the other train not more than five minutes. This works a great inconvenience to the passengers being left as they cannot get away from here until the next afternoon if they intend to go beyond Hamlet. At both of these times a report was sent to the Seaboard Air Line train stating that there were so many passengers to transfer. Yesterday evening 7 were left. Maxton, N. C., Jan. 16, 1907.

Center Dots.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.
Miss Eva Atkinson is visiting relatives in Harnett county. Mrs. R. L. Collins and children, of Lumberton, have been spending a few days in this vicinity. Mr. Nub. Townsend and Miss Annie Rice spent Sunday in this community.

Mr. Edward Bissell is spending some time with his brother near Buie.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride Mr. Daniel Williams led to the hymeneal altar Miss Maggie Stubbs. 'Twas a beautiful home wedding with only a few relatives of friends of the contracting party present. Rev. E. A. Paul very happily performed the ceremony. The bride is one of our most highly esteemed young ladies and the groom is one of Robeson's most cultured young men. They left immediately after the ceremony for their future home at Raynham. We want to congratulate the young couple and wish for them a happy life.

Center, N. C., Jan. 15, 1907.

A Memorable Day.

One of the days we remember with pleasure as well as with profit to our health, is the one on which we became acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, the painless purifiers that cure headache and biliousness, and keep the bowels right 25c. at all Drug stores.

ASHPOLE NEWS LETTER.

Book Club Organized—New Teacher—Bank Elects Officers at Close of Successful Year—Minor Matters and Personal.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.
Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Glass, of Maxton, visited C. A. Floyd last week. Mrs. Glass remains some time.

At a meeting of the Bank Directors Jan. 9th all old officers were re-elected. The Bank was found in a prosperous condition and a good dividend declared.

Mrs. Lewis Jenkins and family have moved back to their farm. Their friends are sorry to lose them.

The growth of the school necessitating another teacher, Mr. Royall's sister, Mrs. Bullard, arrived Monday night and will assist.

Rev. T. J. Daily had a large and interested congregation out to hear him preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

The Fortnightly Book Club was organized last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Floyd. Its members expect great pleasure from its meetings.

Mrs. P. B. Thompson has been quite sick but we are glad to see her out again.

Z. B. Straughan spent last Monday in Fayetteville on insurance business. He has accepted a contract with The North State Co., of Kinston.

Our streets are being improved very much by side walk building.

Miss Roberta Daily has accepted a position to teach at White Pond school house just over Ashpole Swamp. She has a large school.

I. M. Thompson has accepted a contract with Caldwell and Carlyle, of Lumberton, to deliver fertilizer at this point.

The weather this week has caused gardens to be first in our thoughts. J. M. Ashley and others are setting out cabbage.

The walls of Floyd Bros' new building are going up rapidly now. It will be an ornament to the town.

A. F. Floyd will move this week into the new brick store on Main street recently erected for A. L. Jones. He will have a much nicer place to display his fine stock of merchandise.

Our merchants are not discouraged by the poor crops of last year, but are making plans for better things.

The W. T. Mercer Furniture Co. has been re-organized and changed into The Ashpole Furniture Co., incorporated with several stockholders. They are doing a fine business.

The Artesian Bottling works are busy all the time. We would be glad to welcome other small manufacturing companies. All such are a great help to a town.

The Knights of Pythias will give an oyster and ice cream supper Friday night. Ashpole, N. C., Jan. 15, 1907.

New Suits Started.

A number of suits of interest have been started in the past few days. Mrs. M. E. Teal, through her attorneys, Messrs. McLean, McLean & McCormick, has instituted suit against the Carolina Central Railroad Co., asking $5,000 damages for personal injuries which she received while getting off the train at the station here some time in December. She will allege negligence of the road.

Mr. E. J. Britt, attorney, has started suit for Blacker Bros. against the town of Lumberton for the value of a horse which fell in a ditch near the cemetery and which died from the injuries.

Cornelius Pittman, a colored woman, has engaged Messrs. E. J. Britt and R. C. Lawrence to bring suit against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., alleging negligence of the company that resulted in injuries to her when she was getting off the train at Pembroke. The amount of damages that will be asked has not been determined yet.

Piles get quick relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Remember it's made ALONE for Piles—and it works with certainty and satisfaction. Itching, painful, protruding, or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Try it and see! Sold by all dealers.

LUMBER BRIDGE LETTER.

Miss Stamps' "At Home"—Post-office Moved—New Store—Box Supper Friday Night—Personal.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.
Among the social features of this week was an "At Home" given by Miss Pauline Stamps last evening. The girls carried old hats and trimmings and the boys trimmed them. Mr. Henry Jones received the prize for having the best trimmed hat and Mr. G. R. Thagard received the "Booby." Everybody seemed to have a nice time and if the ladies don't look out the boys will beat them trimming hats yet.

We failed to note last week that Mr. and Mrs. E. Williford had returned from Florida, after spending very pleasantly the holidays. Also we failed to note that Mrs. S. P. Klapp and daughter, Miss Ruth Hagty, spent Christmas in Siler City.

Mrs. C. W. Bennett spent several days in Lumberton last week, having some dental work done.

Mrs. A. E. Conoley spent several days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Parker, at Salemburg. During her visit there her aunt, Mrs. Jennette Brown, of that place, died.

Mr. Kenneth C. Lancaster returned to school at Oak Ridge last Monday.

The postoffice has been moved into the store formerly occupied by Miss Mittie Cobb.

Carpenters are at work on Mr. M. L. Marley's handsome store. This will be quite an improvement in our town. We shall look forward to its completion.

A box supper will be given at the academy next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Each lady is requested to bring supper for two. The gentlemen draw for a box. Each draw 25 cents. He has supper with the lady whose name he draws. A pleasant evening is assured everyone. Come. Lumber Bridge, Jan. 16, '07.

Barker News.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.
The people of this community had the pleasure of hearing two very able sermons Sunday one at the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Eure, and the other at Ten Mile Baptist church by Rev. B. Townsend, of Boardman who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Townsend.

Mr. Warren Fowers, of Raleigh, who has been spending several weeks with relatives and friends, left Monday for Tampa, and other points in Florida.

Miss Lena Russ left Friday for Maxton, where she will attend school preparatory for entering the Methodist College when it is completed.

Misses Nannie and Clyde and Master Wesley Regan, of Saddle Tree, entered school here Monday.

Mrs. Eure, her two daughters and son, have arrived and Mrs. Eure has been ill since Friday not being able to leave her bed.

Mr. Will Jones, of St. Paul, entered school here Monday.

Mrs. Kintlaw and her two sons, Messrs. Braxton and Roy Kintlaw, attended the funeral of Mrs. Catherine Kintlaw at Regan's today.

Messrs. Lamb J. Bynum Gregory and Miss Bethune, of Lumberton, attended church at Ten Mile Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Regans, of Saddle Tree, spent Saturday and Sunday with her brother Mr. J. Regans.

Mr. Preston Pate went to Bellamy Saturday to visit his old friends at that place. Barkers, N. C., Jan. 15, 1907.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from our midst Sovereign English Edgar Smith, therefore be it resolved:
1st. That we bow in humble submission to the Divine Master's will, and cherish the assurance that our faithful Sovereign has entered upon everlasting rest.
2nd. That he will be sadly missed in the Camp where he was a member and the home where he lived.
3rd. That we tender our heart-felt sympathy to his grief-stricken father, mother, brothers and sisters.
4th. That a copy of these resolutions be published in The Robesonian, The Sovereign Visitor, and a copy sent to his parents. Also a copy preserved by our Camp.
