

THE ROBESONIAN

ESTABLISHED 1870

COUNTRY, GOD AND TRUTH

SINGLE COPIES 5 CENTS

OL. XXXVII. NO. 101.

LUMBERTON, NORTH CAROLINA MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1907.

WHOLE NO. 2225

Boylin's Jewelry Store, Lumberton, N. C.

WEEKLY WACK!
Trains all Delayed!
NO BAGGAGE.
SALES CONTINUE.

Monday and Tuesday,

FEBRUARY 11th and 12th

We want you to see our Line of Weekends. You are not compelled to buy, by a few words,
You cannot beat us on Prices
or Goods unless you cheat.
We have had a little taste of Winter, but

EASTER SUNDAY
IS
March 31st.

John T. Biggs & Co.
Lumberton, N. C.

March 6, 7 and 8.

Mr. Weil, representing the Haas Tailoring Company, will give our Spring Opening in our Sample Rooms, over Bank of Lumberton. Call and see him.

JOHN D. McALLISTER,

And-To-Measure Garments for Gentlemen,
Rooms No. 6 Over Bank of Lumberton.

10 800 At Cost

The Eagle Furniture and Carpet Co.,
Lumberton, N. C.

Has decided to sell at COST, their whole entire line of China and Glassware--all new designs.
We make this offer because we must have more room to display a more Complete Line of Musical Instruments.

Give us your Christmas order for House Furnishings and Musical Instruments.

DON'T FORGET

To call on us.

Ask our Prices--Compare Quality.

EAGLE FURNITURE AND CARPET CO.

Dec. 20th.

MAXTON NEWS LETTER.

Rain, Sleet, Ice and Snow in Maxton—Personal and Minor Matters.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Capt. J. C. Everett spent last Sunday in Bennettsville.

Mrs. A. B. Croom was called to her home in Raleigh last Saturday on account of the death of her sister, Miss Sue Dinwiddie. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones.

On last Monday we had rain and sleet and before noon the trees were loaded with ice and remained so for a day or so. On Thursday night it commenced snowing and kept it up until about 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The fall was about 6 inches deep. One of our weather prophets stated Thursday that he would eatell the snow that fell during the night. He was awakened early this morning by his son telling him to get busy as he had some work before him to clean up what had fallen. It is needless to say he did not carry out his

original

Dg. D. S. Currie, of Parkton, spent a while here Wednesday night on business.

Mr. Simon Weil, of Clifton, S. C., is here this week with some horses and mules and his propriate tools with which he has opened a general feed stable in the town.

Mr. A. H. Gandy spent a few days here with his tools to clean up his stable.

Mr. J. W. Davis, who has been connected with the Southern Executive of this place, has resigned his position and moved with his family to their former home in Lumberton.

Miss M. B. John, of Bennington, is visiting Miss Connie McGehee this winter.

Lumberton, N. C., Feb. 9, 1907.

BARNESVILLE NEWS NOTES.

Wednesday Was a Good Day for

Bachelors, Several of Them

Taking Better Babies—Brides

Entered in The Robesonian

A great many of our citizens attended court last week, fortunately all of them returned without going to the chain gang but some heeded it as soon as they were discharged

by the Judge.

The committee on programme have invited Rev. Jas.

A. Smith, of Wilmington, N.

C., to deliver the address at the entertainment to be held here Wednesday evening, also fees for the same. The amount to be paid him will be determined by the amount

we have now, having made arrangements with the present holders, who are giving this entertainment.

Last Wednesday seemed to have a good day for bachelors in this section. Several came in to themselves a better look.

We note Mr. J. B. Ward, Mr.

Miss Lina Lewis, Rev. K.

Barnes officiating. Pastor R. A. Hedgpeth went to Marietta to officiate at the marriage of Mr. C. F. Henney to Miss Catherine Atkinson.

The public school of this place closed last Tuesday. The music class under the management of Miss Leona Prevatt will continue, and a subscription school will begin in a few days.

Barnesville, N. C., Feb. 11.

ASHPOLÉ NEWS LETTER.

The "Deistrict Skule" to be Presented by Elderly Local Talent

—Mr. Haynes Barnes Stuck by

Negro—Minor and Personal

Matters.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Capt. J. C. Everett spent last

Sunday in Bennettsville.

Mrs. A. B. Croom was called to her home in Raleigh last Saturday on account of the death of her sister, Miss Sue Dinwiddie.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones.

On last Monday we had rain

and sleet and before noon the

trees were loaded with ice and remained so for a day or so. On Thursday night it commenced

snowing and kept it up until about 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The fall was about 6 inches deep.

One of our weather prophets

stated Thursday that he would

eatell the snow that fell during the night. He was awakened early this morning by his son telling

him to get busy as he had

some work before him to clean up what had fallen. It is needless to say he did not carry out his

original

Dg. D. S. Currie, of Parkton, spent

a while here Wednesday night on business.

Mr. Simon Weil, of Clifton, S.

C., is here this week with some

horses and mules and his proprietary tools with which he has opened a general feed stable in the town.

On last Monday we had rain

and sleet and before noon the

trees were loaded with ice and

remained so for a day or so. On

Thursday night it commenced

snowing and kept it up until

about 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The fall was about 6 inches deep.

One of our weather prophets

stated Thursday that he would

eatell the snow that fell during

the night. He was awakened early

this morning by his son telling

him to get busy as he had

some work before him to clean

up what had fallen. It is needless to say he did not carry out his

original

Dg. D. S. Currie, of Parkton, spent

a while here Wednesday night on

business.

Mr. Simon Weil, of Clifton, S.

C., is here this week with some

horses and mules and his pro-

prietary tools with which he has opened a general feed stable in

the town.

On last Monday we had rain

and sleet and before noon the

trees were loaded with ice and

remained so for a day or so. On

Thursday night it commenced

snowing and kept it up until

about 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The fall was about 6 inches deep.

One of our weather prophets

stated Thursday that he would

eatell the snow that fell during

the night. He was awakened early

this morning by his son telling

him to get busy as he had

some work before him to clean

up what had fallen. It is needless to say he did not carry out his

original

Dg. D. S. Currie, of Parkton, spent