SAMPSON COUNTY'S SHORTAGE.

The grand jury of Sampson county Monday returned indictment against A. W. Aman, former Republican sheriff of the county, for embezzling State the former board of county commissioners for turning over tax books of the county to Aman without settlement for previous year and for failure to require him to give school fund bonds: also against present board of county commissioners for failure to require the present treasurer to give school fund bond.

Aman made an assignment the latter part of last month and disappeared. The shortage be deducted.

Sampson certainly had confidence in her officers not to require bonds and not to keep some kind of check on her sheriff We believe that every Give us our nigger just once for tocounty should have an auditor to go over the books and accounts of ils officers. There is no corporation or private ento confidence in its employes and why should a county be expected to do it.

Passing of The Negro. hagoth Chronicle.

It is snowing. A man has a woodpile, but he can't find a nigger in town to cutit. The steam saw does all that sort of work now, but it is busy elsewhere. A real estate agent had a "load" of wood dumped at his door yesterday. Twenty-six chunks composed the load. It cost him a dollar. He was on the lookout for a boy to come along with whom he might negotiate for the carrying of the wood upstairs into his office. One came. "Will you tote that wood up for ten cents?" asked the real estate man. "Naw," was the comtemptuous reply of the boy, who scarcely stopped to look at the pile, all of which could have been placed on a fire in an old fashioned chimney and not have made the old folks sit very far back, either. Well, this goes to show how times have changed. The furnace in the basement has knocked the nigger out. The house resounds like a boiler shop and hisses like a locomotive at rest while steam is being raised and county funds; also against and the deuce is to pay when the furnace goes wrong, which it has a way of doing at the very time when it ought not to do so. Bitter Cold Weather.

A New York Correspondent to Charlotte Of server of Yesterday, The wave of bitter cold which swept down on the city last night sent the mercury down almost to oldest son of Mr and Mrs. J. B. Inman, the zero mark. At least two deaths are known to have resulted from the cold in the city. Neither of the victims has been identified. One was found lying in the street at Degraw and Hicks streets, Brooklyn. His body was stiff. Another man was found dead in a hallway in First Avenue. He apparently had gone into the hallway to sleep and had been overcome. Several other persons who had been overcome by the cold were found unconscious in the streets and were removed to hospitals. John Lenehan was found standing by a amp post in Fifth avenue, his hands and feet frozen. He probably will die. Dr. Charles Welsh, a dentist of Saugerties, N. Y., fell in front of the Waldorf-Astoria and lay unconscious for more than an hour before he was found. His condition is serious. John Arnleder was found un-Tallow perpound conscious lying on a snow bank Has per 10" counds
