MAXTON NEWS LETTER.

Drug Store Changes Hands—Little Boy Suffers Broken Leg—Recital at Graded School—Prospects of Another Oil Mill—Personals and Briefs.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Messrs. D. R. Barnes, Ben Barnes and T. O. Evans have purchased the Croom-Barnes Drug Co.'s business and will shortly incorporate under the name of Barnes Bros. Drug Co. with a paid in capital of at least $5,000. A new iron front with a plate glass will be put in and other improvements made. Mr. D. R. Barnes is well known here and has been a partner in the former business to which his firm now succeeds. Mr. Evans is the president of the Bank of Maxton, and Mr. Ben Barnes has been connected with large drug houses, wholesale and retail, at both Winston and Greensboro. Mr. R. D. Croom, who retires from the business, will devote his time to the Maxton Bottling Works which he soon expects to incorporate.

Mr. O. C. Spaulding, the cashier of the Bank here, has secured the McLean house on Saunders Street and with his wife will soon occupy the same. His wife is for the present at Lumberton, at the home of her father, Mr. C. B. Townsend.

Messrs. R. C. Lawrence and A. W. McLean, of the Lumberton bar, were here on business Thursday.

Misses Louise Blue, of Aberdeen, and Atlanta Gibson, of McColl, who have been visiting friends here have returned to their homes.

Misses Bessie and Clarkie Belle McNair and Leila Barnes spent a few days at McColl this week.

Mr. J. P. Wiggins was a Charlotte visitor last Tuesday.

It is reported that some parties from Rowland will open a bottling works here in the near future. We are always glad to learn of any new industries that may locate here.

Dr. M. R. Gibson returned home Wednesday from Montgomery Ala. where he spent several days.

Angus, the little son of our townsman, A. C. McKinnon Esq., had the misfortune to break his leg just above the knee on Wednesday. He and several children were on a loaded wagon, something frightened the horse and all fell off, but strange to say only one was hurt. He is resting as well as can be expected and it is hoped he will soon be able to walk again.

Mrs. Dorndoff, vocal teacher at Peace Institute, of Raleigh, and Miss McNeill of Red Springs, gave a recital in the Graded School Auditorium here last night to a fair sized and appreciative audience. Mrs. Dorndoff has a splendid voice and all who heard her were very much carried away. Miss McNeill gave two selections on the violin which were enjoyed. The entertainment was for the benefit of the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church who are raising funds to help pay for the new church building and furnishings.

Mr. J. D. Austin and family have moved back here from Red Springs to their home on Rail Road Street. Maxton is delighted to get these people back again.

Maxton may probably have another oil mill. Mr. Hitchcock, of Atlanta, is here looking over the field and it is learned that he is right much pleased with the advantages we have to offer. The Elba Mfg. Co., of Charlotte, purchased a lot last year on which to build an oil mill and ice plant and it is thought they will soon begin work. There is also considerable talk of several new buildings going up on Main Street. Nothing is definitely known yet to be handed out for publication however, it is thought this can soon be done.

Mr. J. D. McLean is here for a few days. He will leave Sunday for another business trip. Maxton, N. C., March 23.

Lumber Bridge, Mch. 23.

A Good Entertainer.

Mr. Thos. H. Lindsey gave a very creditable entertainment at the opera house Friday evening under the auspices of the Boys' Literary Society of Robeson Institute. As a monologist, impersonator, reciter—in all—he showed decided, stage talent. Whether humor or pathos he was entertaining. Several little local "hits" were made all provoked laughter and applause. The audience was not large. Others should have been there and enjoyed it, at the same time helping out the cause for which it was given.

AROUND THE TOWN.

A Devout Interest Manifested in the Work at Robeson Institute—The Young Students Organize an Anti-Cigarette Club.

There were three hundred present at Robeson Institute for chapel exercises Friday morning. The work is in better condition than it has been before. The principal has been unable to take much interest in the work but he has almost entirely recovered and the pupils are working in earnest. There are two more months yet and much will be accomplished in that time. It is desired to make the last year of the Robeson Institute a successful one. The older boys are very enthusiastic over base ball and are planning to play other teams later in the spring.

A commendable step was taken Friday by the younger boys which it is hoped will be a very successful one. An Anti-Cigarette Club was organized by Miss Watson. There are thirteen members, and earnest members they are. The officers are: Robt. Parvin, President; Guy Townsend, Secretary; Knox Proctor, Treasurer. They will meet Tuesday evening at the dormitory and there will be talks by those in town who are interested and willing to help. Their motto is: "Rowing not Drifting." Their Purpose: "Enter not into the path of the wicked and go not the way of evil men."

This is a little seed sown but in a fertile ground and a bounteous harvest is hoped for.

The members of the club are Robt. Parvin, Guy Townsend, Knox Proctor, Furman Biggs, Marvin Campbell, Bertram Williams, Robt. Caldwell, John Proctor, Clarence McNeill, Vernon McNeill, Welt Wishart, Robt. McIntyre, Oris Edwards.

And thus the deadly cigarette has been given another blow. From all sides the cigarette smoker is feared. A young man of this place was given a position some days ago and was told that if he contracted either of three habits he forfeited his job: smoke cigarettes, utter oaths or drink liquor.

Cemetery Committee Meets.

The Cemetery Committee met Friday and adopted the plan of the landscape gardeners and named the Cemetery "Meadow Brook". The mayor was instructed to have surveyor lay off two acres of it. Lots will be put on sale immediately.

It was resolved to request board of commissioners to move any bodies from old Cemetery at depot to the new Cemetery at the expense of the town if the interested parties will permit it and buy lot in new Cemetery.

The town will further take steps to buy the old property and convert it into park.

Death of Mr. J. W. Webster.

Mr. Joe W. Webster died at his home at Rowland Friday night. He has been in bad health for some time, and death was not unexpected. Mr. Webster was a good citizen, esteemed by those who knew him, and his death will be heard with regret by many. He was about seventy years of age. The remains were interred in the cemetery at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He leaves to mourn their loss one daughter, Miss Linnie Webster, and four sons, Messrs. John, J. D. Wm. W. and Uley Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McLean spent Sunday in Maxton with friends.
