CITIZENS' TICKET NAMED.

Mr. E. J. Britt Choice of Largely Attended Meeting.

The meeting of the United Voters was held Monday evening in accordance with the call. Despite the bad weather, the meeting was largely attended. Mr. R. E. Lee called the assemblage to order and requested Colonel N. A. McLean to act as chairman and explain the object of the meeting. Colonel McLean on assuming the chair, explained in a few well-chosen words, that this meeting was for the purpose of selecting a ticket which would be bound to no faction or set of men, and which would have at heart the best interests of all the people; that the people were tired of certain institutions attempting to dictate the policy of the town, and name the officers who were to represent its citizens.

Mr. E. M. Britt was asked to act as secretary of the Meeting.

The Chair then declared the first business of the meeting was to select a candidate for Mayor. Mr. J. G. McCormick therefore nominated Mr. E. J. Britt, saying that there was no man in Lumberton better qualified to fill the position under existing conditions than Mr. Britt; that even his enemies dare not question his integrity and honesty of purpose; that he would guarantee that he would be controlled by no interests save those of the people and that he had never been allied to any faction; was committed to no man's Cause, except the people, and under no obligation to no set of men nor any institution.

At this juncture, the question was raised as to whether all of them who were present would be morally bound to support the ticket named. The Chair ruled that all those who attended and participated would be morally bound to support the ticket named. Mr. J. A. McAllister then arose and presented the name of Mr. W. O. Thompson, saying that all the good things which Mr. McCormick had said about Mr. Britt, applied with equal force to Mr. Thompson.

Mr. McCormick then arose and desired to know if attendance alone without participation was sufficient to bind those present. The Chair ruled that it was. Mr. W. H. Humphrey appealed from the decision of the Chair. Mr. McCormick seconded the appeal. The question was submitted to the body and the Chair sustained by a considerable majority. Mr. McAllister thereupon withdrew Mr. Thompson's name, and along with a number of others, including Mayor Thompson, Sheriff McLeod, W. I. Linkhaw, H. M. McAllister, and others, withdrew from the Meeting. Everything moved smoothly thereafter. Mr. Britt was named by acclamation.

Dr. N. A. Thompson, Mr. Ed. B. Freeman, and Mr. I. L. Pope were unanimously named for the two year commissioners and Messrs. J. D. McMillan, Jr., C. M. Fuller and R. E. Lee for the one year term. Judge T. A. McNeill, Messrs. J. B. Pitman and F. Gough were selected for the Board of Audit and Finance.

A committee was appointed to notify Mr. Britt of his nomination, and escort him to the Court House. Mr. Britt came forward and made an excellent straight forward speech, saying that if he consulted his own personal inclinations and interests, that he would refuse to accept the nomination and that he was in no sense a candidate, but he could not refuse to heed the will of the people as it had been expressed tonight. He said further that he was committed to no Cause other than that of the people and if elected, he would be mayor of the whole town and serve it as such to the best of his ability. Mr. Britt was cheered to the echo.

At the conclusion of the speech, a resolution was unanimously adopted pledging each one present to give to the ticket his hearty support and do all he could for it.

After a few remarks from the Chairman, the Meeting adjourned.

Great Farewell Sale at J. P. McNeill's store. The store stock to go. Read the ad for details.

Fire at Gaddysville.

Mr. J. R. Burns' residence, at Gaddysville, came very near being destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The fire originated from the ash box that was left under the kitchen stove. The family were away at the time, with the exception of Mrs. Burns, who was in the front part of the house and knew nothing of the fire until one of the colored hands ran from the field and gave the alarm. Others were working near and water and buckets were handy, so the fire was soon under control. The damage done will not amount to over $25. At the rate the wind was blowing, had it been unnoticed for a few minutes longer, the house could not have been saved.

Miss Richardson Married.

Miss Estelle Richardson of the Bennettsville graded school, who was spending a few days with her parents Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Richardson of Latta was married Sunday afternoon to the Rev. J. R. T. Major of Darlington county. Rev. J. W. Speake performed the ceremony.

The above, taken from the Marion, (S. C.) Star, will be read with interest by the many friends of the bride, who was some years since, a member of the faculty of Robeson Institute. She is a most popular, attractive and accomplished young woman, and has the best wishes of our people.

Concert Tour.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum Singing Class of 1907 will start upon its eastern trip the first of May. The second or western tour will, probably, begin the last of July, after several weeks interval of rest by the Class at the institution in Oxford.

The excellence of these entertainments is known to the people of North Carolina.

The work of our orphans' homes appeals both to the heart and to the judgment. It merits our sympathy and support. Interest in this cause is already great and it is growing.

Notice to Subscribers to the Confederate Monument.

A misapprehension exists as to when the funds will be needed to pay for the monument; some having the idea that it will not be needed till the unveiling on May 10th. This is a mistake. Under the terms of the contract with the McNeil Marble Co. payment must be made on the completion of the monument. The monument is all here except one piece and unless there should be some unavoidable delay will be completed in a week or less. So that the funds will be needed by the time the subscribers can get the money into my hands.

This is therefore to urge all subscribers who have not done so, to send me at once the amount of their subscriptions, and any others who wish to contribute are urged to do so promptly in order that settlement may be made with the contractors and the monument may be unveiled free of debt on 10th of May. Make all remittances to J. A. McAllister Treas. Vet. Association.
