THE ROBESONIAN.

Where Mr. Britt Stands As to Factions.

To The Editor of The Robesonian.

What the writer is going to say is what any citizen has a right to say. It is not an utterance of this paper, as the writer is not now connected with it at all. But it is written in behalf of a friend, unsolicited. This right any correspondent of a paper should be allowed. However, what is said of Mr. E. J. Britt might be truthfully said of Mr. W. O. Thompson, the present mayor of the town. I have been closely associated with Mr. E. J. Britt, even more so than with Mr. Thompson. But I am a friend to both of them. One of these two men, I think, will be the next mayor of the town. Mr. Thompson has been an avowed candidate for some time. Mr. Britt's friends made a "set" on him to allow them to run him for the office. The writer knows what was in the minds of these friends. He knows that Mr. Britt was besought by them to run before he finally gave his consent. The object was pure and simple to defeat any candidate who, while he might not be the candidate of any faction, is so considered by the people to be such. Those who have brought Mr. Britt out have done so in order that the people might have a candidate who is independent of any set of men. The office is one that belongs to the people by rights and they should name the man to fill it rather than leave it to this or that faction to do. It is by the begging of the friends with this object in view that Mr. Britt is in the field to win. If elected he is to be the mayor of the town and of the people.

His enemies are using as an argument against him the fact that a few men of a certain bank are for him and are working for his election. These men who are objected to have this right if they want but it is unfair and untrue to put Mr. Britt down as this or that bank's candidate. The friends of Mr. Britt who put his name before the people had it in mind to beat both factions and any other reason assigned for his being in the race is a misrepresentation. The main object was to beat all of those who are considered factional candidates and to elect a people's mayor. If these same men who are objected to by Mr. Britt's enemies had remained in the race it would have been two scalps that the independent voters would have taken rather than one.

Everybody knows "J" Britt too well and no man should so far forget himself and all sense of fairness as to say he is any private man or institution's candidate. No one should dare to so pervert the truth. A thousand times would "J" Britt rather his name had been left out than to have any man make any such charge against him. It may be politics for his enemies to claim this and try to use it against him but it is unfair and untrue. If any one fails to vote for Mr. Britt on such misrepresentation, knowing the man as they do, they are hard up for an excuse to defeat so honest and so worthy a man.

What Our Reporter Saw in New York.

A recent visit to one of the largest paint factories in the world, disclosed machinery that was producing 10,000 gallons of Paint, and doing it better and in less time than 100 gallons could be made by hand mixing.

This was the celebrated L & M. Paint

The L & M. Zinc hardens the L & M. White Lead and makes L & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.

4 gallons L & M mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes 7 gallons of paint at a cost of less than $1.20 per gallon.

If any defect exists in L & M. Paint, will repaint the house for nothing.

Donations of L & M made to churches.

Sold by The McAllister Hardware Company. 29 & 6

Eight of the converts of the recent meeting of the Baptist church, were baptised by Rev. Mr. Durham Sunday night.

GRAHAM-TOWNSEND.

Miss Minnie Townsend Becomes Bride of Dr. Robert F. Graham.

Written for The Robesonian.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Townsend, to Dr. Robert F. Graham at the Baptist church Thursday evening, was one of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed here. The church was tastefully decorated, the color scheme being green and white. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jackson, the bride's pastor, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ashby, of the Methodist church, beneath the central rose-vine arch, which was laden with white and pink roses. Before the bridal party entered, Miss Myrtle Muse, of Carthage, played "Con Amore" and Miss Ida Townsend, of Red Springs, sang two of Guy de Hardelet's charming songs, "All For You" and "Because."

Just at 9 o'clock, the first chord of Mendelssohn's Wedding March was sounded and the bridal party entered. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Tom Weaver, of Asheville, and Miss Patience Alford, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Dan McLaurin and E. H. McKinnon coming under the side arches and stopping on either side the central aisle until the ushers, Messrs. Bernard Edens, C. D. Smith, Sion Alford and A. C. Sinclair, Jr., passed. After the bridesmaids and groomsmen came the bride and the maid of honor, Miss Blanche Covington, of Ramsuer. The groom, with Mr. Tom Graham, his brother, as best man, entered through the arch on the right of the altar and joined the bride and maid of honor beneath the central arch.

During the ceremony, Miss Muse played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," and the party left the church to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride was beautifully gowned in radium silk over taffeta and carried bride's roses. Her veil was fastened with a crescent of pearls.

The maid of honor wore white china silk and had white carnations; the bridesmaids wore pink silk and carried white carnations; Miss Muse wore white china silk and Miss Townsend lace on chiffon over taffeta. Both had pink carnations.

Miss Connie Capel and Master Haywood Graham were the ribbon bearers.

The bride was one of Rowland's most popular and attractive young ladies and the groom is a successful young dentist of Lumberton, and the circles of their friendships might well be measured by the large display of handsome presents they received.

They left on the ten o'clock train for Richmond and Jamestown.

Miss Alford entertained the bridal party at an informal tea on Tuesday evening.

All off With William Henry, Cat.

That cat of our, William Henry, seems to have enjoyed the notoriety given him in these columns a few issues ago when we told of how he got his head caught in an oyster can. He seemed not to have been satisfied with the one time and over into the court house yard he wandered Friday and engaged in a similar experience. This is to notify him that he shall never be noticed any more if he cuts his yellow head off. Our object in reporting his previous experience was merely to note a rather unusual circumstance and it was certainly far from our intention to arouse in William Henry a desire to become a maniac for the sake of notoriety.

There will be a call communication of St. Albans Lodge, No. 114 F. and A. M. Tuesday evening, April 30th. Third degree work. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend.

Contributions for the relief of the Chinese sufferers, if given to Miss Lizzie Caldwell, will be immediately forwarded to The Christian Herald, and from there cabled to China. Every cent given for this cause, will help to save the lives of the poor, perishing human beings.

Mason Allen happened to what narrowly escaped being a serious accident Friday at the station. He was driving a mule to a cart and the mule backed the cart up against a passing train. The cart was jerked by the train with such force as to break the harness, and make a complete wreck of the cart. Neither Mr. Allen nor his mule were injured.

A Sunday school was organized at the National Cotton Mills Sunday afternoon by a number of Baptists of this place. Mr. W. P. Barker was made superintendent; Dr. R. T. Allen, vice superintendent, and Mr. Luther Hope, secretary and treasurer. The school will meet each Sunday afternoon hereafter at 3:30 o'clock. The hall over the Company store is being used for a place of worship for the present.

The Bazaar a Success.

The Robeson Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy gave a Bazaar on the second floor of the court house last Thursday afternoon and evening, for the purpose of raising money for the monument which is now being erected on the court house square. The large hall was elaborately decorated with flags, and a profusion of flowers and ferns. Five tables were placed around the room where ice cream and cake were served by a number of young ladies. Home made candies found ready sale. The fancy articles were numerous and beautiful, and were eagerly purchased by many customers. Votes as to the most popular girl in Lumberton, were sold by Mr. Geo. B. McLeod. In this contest, Miss Minnie Lennon received the largest number of votes, and was presented a beautiful picture by Mr. M. G. McKenzie.

Another feature, was guessing the name of a handsome doll. All failed to guess the right name, which was "Edna." Mr. J. P. Stansel purchased the doll and presented it to Miss Marie Linkhaw.

Letters written to all the young people of the town were sold for ten cents each by Misses Watson, Gower and Harper.

The Confederate booth was conducted by Misses Winnie Rowland and Elberta Winburne. They had for sale hand-painted blotters, postcards, confederate calendars, portraits of Lee and Jackson and other articles.

The occasion was one of thorough interest and enjoyment for all who attended, and the Daughters feel much gratified at the result of their efforts. After all expenses were paid, about $125.00 was cleared.
