OLD FORK CLEANINGS.

Sad Death of Loveable Woman-- Old Landmark Passes Away-- Other Items.
Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Last week my business affairs got all jumbled up and piled up too, so I could find no time to pay my respects to my friends of the lower end, which was not much of a deprivation to them, as I had no news of any interest to write, a condition which has not improved much since. On Friday p. m., and night we had three heavy rains, and a severe electric display, but not much wind. The rain was gladly welcomed by the farmers, as we were getting dry in the Fork. Crops are looking very well, and growing nicely. The Squire found several cotton blooms some days ago, and there are plenty of them in the neighborhood. In olden times it was considered real early to have a cotton bloom, and ripe watermelons by the "4th of July," at the present time the blooms are plentiful in June, but I hear of no melons likely to be ready by the 4th in this vicinity.

Our community was grieved on Sunday a. m., the 30th, to learn of the death of Miss Amanda Caddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Caddell, of the Turn Out section. This loveable Christian woman attended the previous Sabbath services at Oak Grove M. E. church, of which she had been for several years a devoted member, and that night was stricken down with pneumonia, from which she died on Saturday night following at 10:30. One Sabbath in God's earthly sanctuary, and the next in the beautiful courts of the Heavenly city, for she was a gentle, humble, Christian, as was evidenced in her Godly life and conversation, and her sweet sunshining nature. The aged parents, four sisters and three brothers, mourn the separation, while the whole community join in sympathy for the loss of one who was a general favorite.

On the same night, an old landmark of ante-bellum days passed into the great beyond.
Mack McQueen, (colored) who was reared, lived, and died in this immediate section, and was a relative of Wash Mc-Queen, of your town. "Mack" was, in slavery times the cariage driver of my uncle, Major McQueen, and I have known him every since my earliest recollection. He was always conspicuous for his good manners, courtesy, and old time politeness, taught him in his youth, by his well-trained mother, and to which he adhered as long as he lived. How rapidly, like the old veterans, is this class of darkies disappearing, and each one that goes, leaves a vacancy that will never be filled by the rising generation.

The Squire accuses me of having made a mistake in my last letter to your paper, and I promised him to correct it, though I'm inclined to shuffle it off on your typo. His wheat crop is the subject at issue.
He had only three acres sown, with a yield of about 50 bushels, which I think I stated, however it was printed four acres, which he thinks did not do him justice. So I do hereby acknowledge the error, with a promise to do better hereafter.

Mrs. Olmstead is at present visiting friends and relatives in Maxton.

Mrs. Sarah Bullock, and daughter, Mrs. Rhoda Alford, of Rowland, were welcome visitors in the Fork last week, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. R. D. Hamer, and also they dined one day in our own home.

Mr. Jas. Chisholm, one of our most efficient route agents, has been right sick for a few days, but was rapidly improving at last reports.

Miss Mary Belle McLaurin, our little grand-daughter, returned to her home near Latta, S. C., last Thursday, after a visit of some weeks.

We extend a hearty welcome to the new editor of The Robe-sonian, with best wishes for success. "Aunt Becky."
Old Fork, July 6th, 1907.

Rembert News.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Rev. J. N. Tolar and family are spending some time with his mother. They expect to go away this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Tolar, of Latta, S. C., spent Sunday at home. They left Monday night for Jamestown.

Mr. John Gibbs, of Hope Mills, preached for us Sunday afternoon, and Mr. J. N. Tolar Sunday morning. Quite large crowds were out.

The school building here is being overhauled. We expect a good school this fall and a much nicer arranged building with patent desks. Would be glad for Mr. Poole to come around occasionally and see what we are trying to do for our school.

Mr. T. S. Tolar came up from Latta Sunday morning and spent the day, returning Monday.

A very heavy rain fell here late Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. J. D. McCormac and A. M. Tolar were in Fayetteville Thursday on business.

Rev. I. N. Tolar and mother spent Tuesday at S. J. Cobb's.
We are glad to know he is quite well now.

Rembert, July 3, 1907.

New Methodist Church at Fay- etteville.

The contract for a new Methodist church at Fayetteville, has been let to Mr. J. Lee Harbin, contractor and builder of Lexington. The new church will be one of the handsomest in the State. The total estimated cost complete, with pews, art glass, heating, fixtures, etc., is between $25,000 and $30,000. Material used will be red pressed brick, and black mortar, with Mt. Airy granite base and stone and terra cotta trimmings.

St. Pauls to Have a Cotton Mill.

A charter was granted Thursday by the secretary of State for a $100,000 cotton Mill to be erected at St. Pauls, in this county.
The incorporators are: Lock Shaw, A. R. McEachern, J. M.
Butler, J. D. McRaney, of St.
Pauls; J. F. Gilmore, Rex; W. D.
McNeill, Fayetteville. The mill is to be erected under the supervision of Mr. W. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, which will be the fourth mill to be erected under his direction in the past eighteen months.

FAIRMONT NEWS LETTER.

Fourth Quiet--Postmaster Now Uses Fairmont Stamp--Ash-pole a Thing of the Past--Locals.
Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Young Messrs Carter, of Max-ton, have been here among relatives the past week and having a pleasant outing.

J. M. Ashley visited Boardman Tuesday and Mrs. F. S. Floyd on Friday, called there by the illness of Mrs. C. F. Ashley, whom we regret to hear has been very sick. Mrs. Ashley was formerly Miss Mary Lewis, of Lumberton, and has many friends there who hope she may soon be well.

Misses Gaynell and Myrtle Barnes, of Barnesville, spent last week with their grandmother Mrs. Pitman.

Mrs. Howell and daughter, of Central Georgia, are visiting relatives in this community. Mrs.
Howell was Miss Swannie Gunn before her marriage and was raised here but this is her first visit home in twenty years.

The venerable father of Miss Amanda Townsend died last Thursday at Back Swamp.

Mrs. Simmons, of Jacksonville, Fla., who lived here several years ago as Miss Juanita Funderburk, visited friends in town last week.

The new home of Mr. E. Fisher on Trinity Street will be a handsome two story house.

Messrs. Ray Williams, of Dillon, S. C., and Paul Ashby, of Rowland, spent the fourth with our young people.

Everybody celebrated the fourth. Some by resting at home but most at picnics here and there.

N. A. Carter and party went to Waccamaw Lake last Thursday.
Another party are making arrangements to go this week and spend a day at this beautiful quiet resort.

Mr. Anderson and family have moved here from Vineland, and occupy the Fisher house on Cottage Street. Mr. Anderson will open a hardware business in the Griffon store at once.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hughes will return to S. C. to live among their own people. Their residence will be occupied by Mr.
George McDaniel.

Miss Minnie Stafford, of Latta, S. C., is visiting relatives in town and community.

Mrs. Drum Floyd and children, of Marion S. C., spent week with Mr. F. S. Floyd and family.

Miss Lucy Grantham has returned from a delightful vacation spent at numerous places and is again at her place with E. W.
Floyd, Miss Lucy knows and is known by every body and is an additional attraction to Mr.
Floyd's popular store.

Post-Master Thompson celebrated the Fourth by beginning the use of the Fairmont stamp.
Now everything is changed of the town but historic Ashpole church one of the largest Baptist congregations in the State will keep the name very much alive as will Presbyterian Ashpole near Rowland.
