A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

At High Noon Yesterday Miss Frances Walters and Mr. A. J. Edmund United in Marriage.—The Attendants—After a Sumptuous Dinner the Wedding Party left for Chadbourn by Private Conveyances.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

A marriage of unusual interest took place today, Wednesday, at high noon, when Mr. A. J. Edmund, of Chadbourn, led to the altar Miss Frances Walters, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walters, of this place. The marriage took place in the home of the bride in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties, who were present by invitation to participate in the joys of this happy event. This was indeed an enjoyable occasion and one long to be remembered by those who were so fortunate as to be present. There were twelve waiters who stood up with the happy couple in the front parlor, while Mr. K. M. Barnes officiated in a beautiful ceremony which made them join hands as husband and wife, after which he invoked the blessings of God on this union of hearts which made them one.

The waiters who marched out and stood up with the happy couple were as follows:

Mr. J. R. Blake with Miss Annie Edmund, of Chadbourn; Mr. R. B. Edmund, of Chadbourn, with Miss Blanche Flowers, of Barnesville; Mr. Clyde Flowers with Miss Lizzie Britt, of Barnesville; Mr. Strong Floyd with Miss Polly Johnson, of Fairmont; Mr. Fletcher Walters with Miss Smithie Floyd, of Barnesville and Fairmont, respectively; Mr. Elery Floyd with Miss Ada Jenkins, of Barnesville.

The following were also noted among the wedding party who came from Chadbourn with the groom to claim his bride. Messrs. S. N. Edmund, Bruce Edmund, R. H. Edmund and Miss Fannie Edmund.

The party came a distance of over twenty miles in private conveyances and returned the same day. They were all bright and happy, especially on the return trip. We have already mentioned that the wedding took place at high noon, which is a farmer's dinner time. Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations were over, the happy couple, with their waiters and a few other friends, were invited into a large dining room, where a long table was loaded down with good things to eat, such as old ham, chicken, turkey, pies and cakes of every description cooked to "the Queen's taste." The table itself was beautiful, decorated as it was with many dressed pound cakes which had been prepared with loving hands for this occasion. Of course, the bride and some of the other young ladies didn't eat much dinner, but there were others seated around the table who did their full duty without offering any apology for having lost their appetites when they retired to make room for others who were patiently waiting their turn to try their hands at the same game.

After dinner the wedding party took their leave 'mid showers of rice and congratulations for their future home at Chadbourn, where they will be given a hearty welcome by their many friends.

BARNESVILLE ITEMS.

Barnesville and Spring Hill Fortunate in the Selection of Teachers—Mr. Dodridge Floyd Kicked by a Mule—A Successful Meeting at the Baptist Church Just Closed—Other Matters of Interest.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Barnesville school opened the 9th with bright prospects. Mrs. Louise Bullard, who is well and favorably known in this county as a teacher, has charge of this school. The music school opened at the same time with Miss Leona Prevatt as teacher. She has a good class and new scholars are coming in every week.

Rev. R. A. Hedgpath has just closed a successful meeting in the Baptist church of this place. Fifteen were added to the church and others will join in the near future. The baptism took place Sunday afternoon in Lumber river in the presence of a large crowd of people who had assembled to witness this solemn, but beautiful church ordinance. After the baptism the people returned to the church, where the pastor preached a sermon which was very appropriate, and the right hand of church fellowship was extended to the new members and the meeting closed with the church greatly strengthened and edified.

Dr. J. C. McKenzie and his little daughter, Sadie, attended church at Fairmont last Sunday.

Mrs. Will Regan, of Howellsville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murray.

Mr. Dodridge Floyd, who was kicked by a mule late Monday afternoon, is doing very well. Dr. McKernie, who was called to him as soon as he was kicked, says that Mr. Floyd is out of danger and will soon be well, which will be good news to his friends, for it came near proving a serious accident.

The school at Spring Hill will open the 14th of October with Miss Gertrude Fisher, of Cotton, as teacher. The people of Barnesville and Spring Hill are fortunate in the selection of their teachers for this term.

Mrs. Lonnie Stanton, of Dillon, who has been so low for several weeks with typhoid fever, is reported a little better. This will be good news to her many friends in this county, where she was well known as Miss Bettie Barnes. The prayers of her friends will be that she may be restored to her wonted health.

Mr. R. Pitman Barnes returned to the N. C. Military Academy at Red Springs on the 12th inst. This is his second year. Mr. Homer Surles left on the 16th to enter the same school. We wish them much success. This school is growing in favor with the people of this section.

spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. J. J. Prevatt had the misfortune to get his left hand severely cut up in Mr. G. L. Townsend's cotton gin last Thursday while attending to the gin. Dr. J. D. McMillan was called to dress the wounded hand and Mr. Prevatt is getting along very nicely now.

Lowe, N. C., Sept. 24, 1907,

Mr. J. S. Norman, who has been in Wilmington during the summer, is here this week on his return to school at Chapel Hill.
