PURE LINSEED OIL.

OUR OFFER IS $100.00 IN GOLD.

WE ARE NOT GIVEN TO "BLOWING OUR OWN HORN," SO TO SPEAK, but the many serious cases of adulteration, which have come under our notice of late, prompt us to say a word or two to those who perhaps have but a slight acquaintance with the facts.

Mr. Spencer Kellogg has been in the linseed oil business for 30 years. His father was half owner in one of the oldest established mills in New York State and his grandfather made oil in 1812. One hundred years in the oil business!!!

We do not propose to allow our customers to be imposed upon. We do not propose to see our oil adulterated and sold under our brand. We do propose to stop it.

We ask your assistance and in turn we offer $100.00 in gold for evidence that will lead to the apprehension and conviction of any person or persons guilty of adulterating our oil, or selling said adulterated oil under our brand and trade mark.

LETTER FROM AUNT BECKY.

The Usual Secrecy of Labor has been many days and girls into the Cotton Fields, and they are making money. "Aunt Becky" is death to be known into Winter Quarters—Cold Weather brings the Consolation of no Snakes—Some interesting Observations.

Old winter is sounding a note of warning, and has driven us to early firesides. I am loath to take up winter quarters, and so we enjoy the fresh breezes, and see much of our-door life. The happy songs of the dear little birds will soon be hushed, and the beautiful foliage of the trees changed to the brown livery of autumn; but so it is, in this world of constant changes.

Mr. G. A. McGoogan and wife and little daughter, Florabel, left for their Georgia home last Friday. Glad to know that Mrs. McGoogan's health has improved during her visit here.

Mr. J. D. McCormac, of Rennert, was here on a business trip Monday. Glad to report the sick are improving, and hope they will soon be enjoying good health.

Mr. Stewart McGoogan will leave today for Raleigh to resume his studies in Draughan's Business College.

Mr. D. A. McGoogan spent a few days last week at Antioch attending Presbytery.

With best wishes to The Robesonian.

But they didn't figure right and were supplanted.

Colonel Withers, of Virginia, died the other day. He was an old man, and one of the few remaining officers of the Confederate army.

THE REEL HAPPENINGS.

Curver's Creek Section of Bladen County. Historic Homes Around the Home of Captain K. J. Braddy.

Mr. E. M. Britt, of Lumberton, spent Friday night here. Mr. Lily Love, of New York City, is visiting relatives here.

The water in the Cape Fear river is too low for boats to run now. Mr. Jas. C. Roberson, of Wilmington, spent Saturday and Sunday here.

Your correspondent, in company with Mr. E. M. Britt, of Lumberton, recently visited the Curver's creek section of Bladen county. The soil is exceedingly fertile and is underlaid with marl.

While in this community we visited the hospitable home of Capt. K. J. Braddy. Capt. Braddy is a Southern gentleman of the old school and a veteran of the civil war.

Around this farm clusters many historic scenes, among which is a road built by Lord Cornwallis in his march to the sea.

There was a large crowd in town and horse-trading was the order of the day. Tar Weekly, N. C., Oct. 15, 1907.
