FAIRMONT NEWS LETTER.

Town Over-Run With Drummers
—Ashpole Drug Co. Changed to Pittman Drug Co.—A Tacky Party—Other Items of Interest.

E. C. Jones spent part of last week in Fayetteville on automobile business.

Mr. Neill J. Stephens, who learned telegraphy here, is among home folks for a short while. He returns to Sanford, Fla., this week.

Messrs. T. J. Daily, R. O. Pittman and others attended the first quarterly meeting for Robeson circuit at Earnesville last Saturday. The next meeting will be held with this church.

Miss Ethel Cole came from Marietta and spent Sunday at home.

The town was completely over-run by drummers last week. We were almost crowded off the sidewalk. It is evident that the wholesale houses expect prosperous times in lower Robeson.

The Ashpole Drug Co. will be changed to the Pittman Drug Co. We are glad a "home boy" has returned and invested here and sincerely hope he may prove eminently successful.

Col. N. A. McLean, of Lumberton, "the most popular man in Robeson," was out on business last Friday.

Mr. Bush, of Wilmington, Del., is in town closing out the business of the South Eastern Lumber Co.

The young people enjoyed a tacky party at the home of Miss Mamie Kyle last Tuesday night. The prize was won by Miss Nellie McMillan.

Mrs. F. S. Floyd spent a few days in Marion, S. C., this week, visiting her son.

Mr. John Fisher and family, of Parkton, spent Sunday here with Mr. Fisher's brother, E. Fisher.

There were lively doings in the real estate business last week, twelve or more deals being made in a few days!

Mr. I. M. Thompson has sold his house and lot in town and will move to his farm near town to be near his father, who, we regret to learn, is in very poor health.

Dr. Easley, of Bordman, spent a night in town last week on his way back from a vacation with home folks in Virginia.

Mr. T. N. Higley, of Lumberton, was busy all day last Monday collecting revenue tax from our merchants and others.

Mr. Robt. Inman is building a residence for his own family just out of town on his farm.

Fairmont, N. C., Jan. 21, 1908.

Items From Long Branch—Movements of a Number of People.

Rev. O. P. Hedgpeth filled his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday at Long Branch. His subject was "Union with Christ," which was very appropriate and helpful to those who were to live near Christ.

Mr. E. J. Britt, of Lumberton, is down at his old home spending a few days this week.

Mr. Claud Bullock, accompanied by Miss Alice Surles, of Center, attended church Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Edmond, of Lumberton, visited her aunt, Mrs. E. A. Edmond, Sunday.

Messrs. Fred and Claid Roberts, accompanied by Mrs. Alma Skipper, of Lumberton, visited at the home of Mr. J. P. Roberts Sunday.

Mr. W. J. Britt, of Lumberton, visited down at his old home Sunday.

Mr. Henry Ivey, of Howellsville, was visiting some of the girls down here Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse Stone and daughter, Miss Nolis, and sons, W. A. and Grady, visited relatives over in Bladen county Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Berry Oray, of Orrum, was visiting at church Sunday.

Mr. E. B. Stone, of Mt. Biam, was the guest of Miss Dollie Slaughter Sunday afternoon.

Mr. William Wilkerson, of Center, was the guest of Miss A. M. Thompson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. A. McDonald, who is in the sawmill business here, has treated himself to a nice horse and buggy. Lock out, girls, and lets see who will get the first ride.

Mr. W. T. Carter who has been quite sick for a long time, was able to attend church Sunday.

Sorry to report that Mrs. Cynthia Britt is on the sick list; nope she will soon be out again.

Some of our young folks attended a fruit supper at Mt. Eliah school house last Tuesday night. They report a fine time. The only thing they disliked was that they were nearly frozen when they got home.

We would all be glad to see some more items from Gaddy. The writer must be off on a vacation.

[We hope our Gaddy correspondent will take notice and let us know what the people are doing in that neck of the woods. Editor.]

Long Branch, N. C., R. F. D. No. 4, Jan. 21, 1908.

Everybody's for February.

In the February number of Everybody's the publishers have a production of which they may well be proud. From the cover, which represents an Oriental rug of warm color and intricate design, down to the final pages, where Thomas W. Lawson explains his reasons for giving up his long-waged war upon criminal high finance, the magazine is packed with interesting, forceful narrative and a goodly share of romance and humor.

The principal article is contributed by Ralph D. Paine, and under the title of "Over the Florida Keys by Rail," tells the story of the conception and execution of Flagler's great plan to join Key West to the mainland by a "seagoing railway," by Samuel G. Blythe, gives a thoroughly amusing and lively description of John Bull's sons and daughters as they appear through American spectacles, and serves as a good-natured answer to Bernard Shaw's sht on the "vilagers" of this country. "The Quest of the Magic Carpet," by Franklin Clarkin, presents the subject of rug-hunting in the form of a story, and explains the mysteries of the making of some of the most famous of these Oriental works of art. The status of music in America is attacked in a striking article from the pen of Mary Garden, the prima donna, who urges the recognition of the new school of music in this country, and characterizes the present attitude of the critics and operagoing public as old-fashioned and unprogressive. W. J. Henderson answers this attack. The third of H. N. Casson's "The series, Romance of the Reaper," is concerned with the amalgamation of the Harvester Kings, and the formation of the great International Harvester Company.

Under the heading of fiction, the two most notable contributions are "The Middle-Aged Failure," by Maximilian Foster and William Bullin's "A Wild Way of Love." The former is a strong story and finds a charming companion in "The Shifted Burden."

The Charming Woman

Is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires; neatness, clear eyes, clean, smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restores weak women, gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Total bottles free.

STATE NEWS.

The next meeting of the North Carolina Bar Association will be held June 30 to July 2d. The announcement of the place will be made in a few days.

A Raleigh dispatch of the 17th is to the effect that the Atlantic Coast Line Ry., which was the last road holding off, has finally consented to agree to all the terms of the railroad agreement suggested by Governor Glenn, both for interstate and intra-state passenger traffic, and will not resist the right of the State to make rates.

Fire which originated in the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association, over the store of the Brown-Rogers Hardware Co., at Winston-Salem, Sunday night, burned the roof and partitions of the building and a part of the stock of the Brown-Rogers Hardware Co., the damage from fire and water amounting to about $40,000 or $50,000.

The Chamber of Commerce at Wilmington, at a meeting held Monday, adopted a resolution memorializing the Legislature to exempt the industry of wine making from any State law that may be passed. The memorial sets forth the facts that the climate and soil of eastern North Carolina are especially adapted to grape culture, this section being the home of the scuppernon and other valuable grapes, and that the State has for a number of years, through its agricultural department, encouraged the growth and cultivation of these native grapes.

As the result of a head-on collision at Cameron, fifty-four miles south of Raleigh, between a Seaboard Air Line freight and the north-bound fast passenger train No. 84 early Saturday morning, two men were killed and twenty injured, none seriously. Engineer E. H. Vaughan and Hemp Townsend, Negro fireman, both of the passenger train were killed. Both were from Raleigh. The collision is attributed to trouble with the air brakes on the extra freight train and to complicated train orders, with no blame to the train dispatcher. The freight had orders to meet the passenger at Southern Pines, the orders being received before reaching Cameron. The air brakes failed to work, and while trying to make up lost time to get into the siding at Cameron, the train was struck by the passenger train, the engines crashing together.

The Amazing Progress of the South.

The total wealth of the South in 1880, $7,505,000,000; 1899, $11,150,000,000; 1900, $13,863,000,000; 1907, $20,500,000,000. The gain in seven years is nearly equal to the South's total wealth in 1880, and to more than 50 per cent. of the total in 1900.

A press dispatch of the 19th from Rio Janeiro, Brazil, states that the Brazilian police have discovered an anarchistic plot to destroy a part of the American fleet lying in the harbor there. One Jean Feather was the chief conspirator, and the police expect to arrest him soon.

It is reported in political circles in Washington that the nomination of Secretary of War Taft for the presidency by the Republican National Convention is about cinched. It is said that the Southern States have been corralled by the President's candidate.

By Mary Heaton Vorse. Romance is well supported by Justus Miles Forman in "The Honor of St. Cer," and by Booth Tarkington's "Guest of Queensway." "The Transfer of Google" is a good piece of humorous character study. Beattie R. Hoover and Winifred Arnold contribute to "Little Stories of Real Life," and V. F. Boyson is represented by a poem, "The First Rose."

The illustrations demand a word of mention. Besides a series of pencil drawings of modern Chicago, by Vernon Howe Bailey, and the fifth of William Balfour Ker's descriptive frontispieces, "The Story of an American Home," there are splendid examples of the work of Mary Greene Blumenschein, Will Crawford, and Gustavas C. Widney, as well as a profusion of photographs.

NEWS FROM ALFORDSVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McLean entertain a Home Burned—Other Matters.

The old year has given up its place to a new one and now we all have strong resolutions of making it more prosperous than 1907, and whether we will succeed or not is a question of time.

The holidays are over now and the young folks have resumed their studies. The older ones are busy planning new agricultural ways. Whether they will plant more or less cotton than last year and what kind of fertilizer they will use seems to be a question of importance and consideration.

Mr. Alex Alford and three of his children have been right sick, but were better at the last hearing.

A sociable was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McLean Wednesday night which all seemed to enjoy.

Miss Annie McLeod, from Bladen, is a visitor at Mr. J. E. Alford's.

Mrs. Mary Covington, one of our new neighbors, spent last week with her brother, Mr. John Henderson.

A new and stately dwelling house is being erected for Mrs. Belle Alford near the old home.

Miss Nannie McEwin, a charming young lady from Bladen, will return some time soon after a prolonged visit in the Alfordville section.

Messrs. Tom McQueen, Neal McLunis, Archie and Stafford Smith were over prospecting Sunday.

Mr. John Paul had the sad misfortune of getting his house burned down.

Mrs. Maggie Oliver spent last night (Thursday) at Mrs. J. E. Alford's.

Messrs. Duncan and Tom Bracey made a call at Etrod Sunday.

"On S. nday eve Mr. Ira Paul made a most pleasant call on little Miss Annie Sam. To disappoint Mr. Henry Wall—if that don't beat it all!"

Alfordville, N. C., Jan. 17, '08.

State Railway Figures

Clerk Henry Clay Brown, of the corporation commission, gives out some interesting figures about the railways in the State. The present mileage is 4,106, the increase in twelve months being 145, of this the Norfolk & Southern contributing 97. The earnings totaled $28,291,730, of which the Atlantic Coast Line shows $7,254,822; the Seaboard Air Line, $4,079,013; the Southern, $12,617,888; miscellaneous roads, $8,440,206. The taxes paid last year totaled $706,904, of which the Coast Line paid $228,796; the Seaboard Air Line, $122,061; the Southern, $288,542; miscellaneous roads, $67,504.

Don't Spill a Fine Action.

There is something impressive in a Legislature's meeting to remove a hardship of its own imposing. It may be humiliating, but it is also honorable. Here's hoping that the fitness of the action will not be spoiled by some over-zealous friends, that they meet, not to remedy a mistake, but to make the best terms possible with the railroads. Even the talk of such an action on the part of a sovereign State is a degradation.

After having been entombed for forty-six days one thousand feet below the surface in a shaft of the Giroux mine at Eley, Nevada, three men, A. D. Bailey, P. J. Brown and Fred McDonald, were rescued Saturday night. On the morning of December 4 these men and two Greeks were working 1,065 feet below the surface when the shaft caved in, snapping the cable used to haul the cage from the shaft and hurling thousands of tons of rock and timbers into the shaft. Bailey, McDonald and Brown managed to reach the pump station, and twenty-four hours later managed to make themselves heard by tapping on a six-inch water pipe that reached from the pumping station to the surface. Communication was established with the world above and food and drink were lowered to the men. Later a portable telephone was lowered and the imprisoned men were enabled to talk with the people above. At no time during their stay underground did the men suffer greatly.
