KING OF PORTUGALS LAID.

The Victim of Assassins—Carlos I and the Crown Prince Shot to Death While Seated in the Royal Carriage at Lisbon by a Band of Men Who Fired a Volley From Carbines.

Lisbon, Dec. 1st. King Carlos, of Portugal, and the Crown Prince, Luiz Philippe, were assassinated today and the city is in a state of uproar. The King's second son, the Infanta Maria, was slightly wounded, but Queen Amelia, who strove to save the Crown Prince's life by throwing herself upon him, was unhurt.

A band of men, waiting at the corner of the Praco de Commercio and the Rua de Arsenal, suddenly sprang toward the open carriage, in which the family were driving to the palace and leveling carbines which they had concealed upon them, fired. The King and the Crown Prince, upon whom the attack was directed, where each shot three times and they lived only long enough to be carried to the marine arsenal, nearby, where they expired.

KING FALLS AT FIRST SHOT.

Almost at the first shot the King fell back on the cushions dying and at the same moment the Crown Prince was seen to half arise and then sink back on the seat. Queen Amelia jumped up and threw herself toward the Crown Prince in an apparent effort to save his life at the cost of her own, but the Prince had received his death wound. The police guard fired upon the assassins and killed three of them.

A CRUEL PLOT.

The royal family were returning from Villa Vicosa, where they had been sojourning and were on their way from the railroad station to the palace. A strong guard was in attendance because of the recent uprising in the city and the discovery of a plot to assassinate Premier Franco and overthrow the monarchy. But the band of murderers had selected the most advantageous spot for the commission of their crime, for they were concealed from the eyes of the police until the carriage had wheeled into the Praco de Commercio, a large square. Before any of the guard were aware of what was happening the assassins leaped toward the carriage and instantly a fusillade of shots rang out. In a moment all was terrible confusion, the King and Crown Prince being shot down without the slightest chance to save themselves. Police guards sprang upon the assassins, the number of whom is somewhat uncertain, and killed three of them and captured three others. One of these committed suicide after being placed in prison. It is charged that one of the murderers was a Spaniard named Cordova.

The bodies of the King and the Crown Prince were removed from the marine arsenal in two closed carriages to the royal palace, the Praco Das Necessidades, the late residence of the King, escorted by municipal guards mounted. The news of the assassination swept through the city like fire through dry grass. To-night the populace is panic stricken, not knowing where the next blow may fall. There is the greatest dread for the future of the country, which seems on the verge of being plunged into the awful throes of a revolution with all the attendant horrors and bloodshed. Throughout the city consternation reigns, and all the houses and business places are barricaded.

Lisbon, Feb. 2.—All Portugal is overwhelmed today at the killing of the King and Crown Prince. Though torn by internal dissensions the past few months, terrorized by acts of crime and bloodshed, uprisings in the streets, outrages with knife and bomb and always fearful lest these signs of revolution would culminate in some dreadful outbreak.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp, and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was discovered by Dr. King's New Discovery, and I want to say right now it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimsland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

CRYSTAL WEDDING.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Hedgepeth Celebrate the Fifteenth Anniversary of Their Wedding by Entertaining at Their Home—The Occasion one of Rare Pleasure to All Present.

Late in the day came a solemn proclamation by King Manuel II, announcing that he would uphold the constitution and preserve the integrity of the kingdom. In this proclamation, which is addressed to the Portuguese people, he says: "An abominable crime has stricken me in my heart, as a son and a brother. I know the nation shares my sorrow and indignation, and detests the horrible act which is unprecedented in history. I am called upon by the constitution to preside over the destinies of the nation and conformable therewith, I shall do my utmost to promote the good of the fatherland and merit the affection of the Portuguese people. I swear to maintain the Catholic religion and the integrity of the kingdom and to observe myself, and enforce observance by all, of the nation's political constitution. I also declare that it is my pleasure that the ministers shall remain in office."

Mr. Durham Powers went to Parkton Sunday, returning Monday morning. Miss Effie M'White visited her sister, Mrs. Pink Smith, of Lumberton, R. F. D. No. 5, Sunday. Miss Mary Lee McMillan spent Sunday with Mrs. N. A. Townsend. Prof. M. E. McCullar has been confined to his room for the past few days. We hope to see him out again soon.

At the oyster supper here Friday night Miss Laura McCullar won the cake, which brought $19.40, for being the prettiest girl. Mr. Robert M'White visited friends near Smith's Bridge Sunday. It is supposed that he went "dear" hunting, as he was late getting home Sunday night.

A young sport of Lumberton who was in the Ten Mile section Sunday seemed to be enjoying himself fine; to be "frank" with you, he was simply having a good time. Miss Emma Dell Powers, who had been visiting Miss Minnie Eure, of Lumberton, returned home Monday. Mr. R. E. McCullar's store was burned down Saturday night between one and two o'clock. The cause of the fire is not known.

With best wishes to The Robesonian.

HUSLER, BARKERS, N. C., Feb. 4, 1908.

AIN'T IT SO?

If the law-makers had listened so, and heeded, the advice given by that staunch and level-headed Scotchman, Col. Neill Archie McLean, a year ago, there would have been no need for an extra session of the Legislature, and many thousands of dollars would have been saved to the State.

At a meeting of the Republican State executive committee held in Greensboro Thursday, it was decided to hold the next Republican State convention in Greensboro on April 30th. Two conventions will be held, the first to elect a State chairman and members of the executive committee and choose delegates to the Republican national convention to be held in Chicago; the second to be held later in the summer to nominate a State ticket.

FAIRMONT NEWS LETTER.

The Spelling Bee given by the Waverly Book Club so Much Enjoyed That Another May be Given—Prize Won by Prof. Cole—Death of Mr. Micafor Griffin—The Methodist Ladies Taking Great Interest in Furnishing Carolina College—Other Items.

The Spelling Bee given by the Waverly Book Club last Friday night was so much enjoyed that we expect to have another to report, the inclement weather preventing many from attending who desired to do so. We expect Prof. Cole will have to be declared debarred, though for he just stood there and spelled down everybody like he was raised on "Websters Blue Back." It is a pity we had not secured the presence of J. A. McAllister, of Lumberton; then we would have had a contest! Last Friday night showed plainly that whatever may be said of other places, our young people are learning to spell. Many of them stood up splendidly who had never known the Blue Back before. The prize was won by Prof. Cole, with Mrs. Olin Floyd a close second.

We are having the coldest weather of the winter and, according to the ground hog, will have six weeks of winter yet. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams, of Dillon, S. C., spent part of last week in town with friends and relatives, who were delighted to greet them. Mr. N. T. Andrews, who was called to Charlotte last week, returned on last Saturday reporting his son, Dr. Andrews, much improved. We regret to report Rev. J. B. Jackson on the "grip list." He could not preach last Sunday, his pulpit being filled at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. R. F. Drummond and at night by Rev. J. M. Moore, of Red Springs, who is a welcome visitor in town this week. Quite a number of our citizens are attending court at the capital this week.

Mr. Micafor Griffin, one of the oldest men of our community, died last Friday from old age and a complication of diseases. A quiet, unassuming man, Mr. Griffin was a sincere Christian and a good neighbor, and was well loved by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and family, who have the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. C. A. Floyd celebrated his birthday last Sunday by giving a dining to some of his best friends, who wish him many happy returns of the day before the troubles of time make his head turn gray.

The Methodist ladies are already beginning work on a white sale of shirt waists, etc., which they expect to conduct during the early part of April for the benefit of their Carolina College fund. If all the Methodist women in Robeson would take this same interest in the college the furniture would be ready when the building is complete.

Master Claude Cashwell was up from Wilmington last week to spend a few days with home folks. Fairmont, N. C., Feb. 4, 1908.

Hearing Before Referees.

Before George H. Howell, Esq., referee in bankruptcy, in this city yesterday there was a hearing of the case of M. E. Myer, general merchant of Red Springs, N. C., who lately failed in business. A compromise has been effected with creditors and the hearing here yesterday was on this compromise. The facts were certified to Judge Parnell or an order later L. T. Cook, Esq., of Lumberton, was present representing a majority of creditors and Mr. A. T. McLean, of Lumberton, one of the trustees, was also present.

"I trust this may be read by many sufferers from kidney and bladder trouble," writes Mrs. Joseph of Woodland, Tex. "I suffered four years and could find nothing to give even temporary relief. Our druggist is last induced me to try your 30 days' treatment of Fincales for $1. This one bottle has cured me and money could not buy the value it has been to me. Guaranteed. Sold by J. D.
