A NECESSITY, NOT A CHOICE.

It is to be hoped that the gentlemen who began this morning to make a canvass of the town in order to obtain signatures to the petition to be presented to the town commissioners to call an election to vote an additional tax of ten cents for the graded school will find no difficulty in securing the necessary number of signatures.

RED SPRINGS REVIEWS.

A Delightful Lawn Party—Movements of the People.

Mr. A. J. Conally, of Quitman, Ga., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berder Conally, Miss Polly David, of Tishabee, Ala., is the guest of Miss Margaret Edens this week.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd of Henrietta, Ky. In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since. This Salve is for sale by all druggists."

COUNTY CLAIMS AUDITED.

Commissioners Hold Special Session Thursday and Pass on Many Claims—Proposed New Township Matter not Decided.

The county commissioners were in special session Thursday for the transaction of routine business. No decision was rendered in the matter of the proposed new township of Pembroke, the consideration of which consumed the major part of the time of Monday's meeting.

W. O. W. Reception—A Candidate Suggested and Others Endorsed—Other Matters.

On Wednesday night, the 5th, the W. O. W. Camp of Red Springs gave a most delightful reception to their friends. Besides the members of the Red Springs Camp, there were representatives from Raeford, Pembroke and other adjacent camps.

Important Business Change—People Who Come and Go. Miss Nettie Pace is visiting relatives in Chatham county.

The threshing machine came in upon us almost unexpectedly today, and the women folks had to "hustle."

Miss Julia Stewart, of Laurinburg, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. Dugald Stewart.

Messrs. John McNair and brother, Robt., formerly of Alma, but now of Virginia and Florida, respectively, visited our home during my recent absence.

Miss Margaret Baldwin left Monday for Waynesville, where she will spend some of the hot days that are to come.

Mr. J. B. Weatherly, one of Maxton's senior merchants, has retired from the mercantile business and will be succeeded by Mr. A. E. Weatherly and Mr. D. W. Walker.

Mr. W. P. Humphrey, of Saddle Tree, gave us a pleasant call yesterday. He lived in this section once upon a time, and when he went away carried with him one of our bonnie Scotch lassies.

Old Fork, Aug. 7, 1908.

No one is immune from kidney trouble, so I remember that Foley's Kidney Remedy will stop the irregularities and cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine.
