EVERYBODY REGARDS A DOLLAR
As well worth making. Has it occurred to you that after you have made it, it is foolish not to take care of it in the best possible manner?

Deposited in the National Bank of Fayetteville, your cash is far safer than if you kept it yourself. Fire cannot destroy our vaults and they offer very little temptation to burglars. The latter gentry know it is much easier and safer to rob a store, office or home where money is known to be kept. Make your cash safe by depositing it with this bank.

The Most Skilful Player

Cannot produce really fine music from a poor Piano. The purchase of such an instrument is a mistake, the selling of one is worse.

When You Select a Piano

Here we are always glad to have you bring an expert player with you. Then the tone and volume of our pianos are brought out in all their beauty. Then the quality of our instruments is proven better than any attempt at description we might make.

SUPERB CHOCOLATES

All other chocolates seem just ordinary after you once try Huyler's. They are just as pure and wholesome as they are delicious. We secured the agency for the Huyler line knowing there is nothing finer, and because we know that that people will unconsciously judge the value of our stock by the individual lines we carry. We will be glad to have you judge this confectionery as soon as convenient. In packages from 5 cents up.

"Act normal," says Roosevelt, "and there will be no hard times." That means, send HER a box of Huyler's.

LETTER FROM ALABAMA.

The Strike in the Birmingham District and Comment Thereon—A Worthy Son of Robeson—Other Matters of Interest.

To the Editor of The Robesonian:

My friend Hon. Hamilton McMillan has been "touching me up" somewhat for not writing for the dear old paper. I had thought that I was about forgotten in the old land, that my contemporaries had about all passed over the river, and that the young could not feel specially interested in what I would have to write. But he is partial, and writes that my "letters are read the second time." Perhaps they need close inspection to get anything worth while out of them.

Your paper is most enjoyable. Some of your contributors have a good deal of vinegar in their ink, but it requires an electric storm occasionally to keep the atmosphere pure. When the elections are all over we shall have peace.

Aunt Becky is faithful. Who will make her a present of a fine good pen? It is thoughtful of her to mention "the Esquire" in her loyal contributions, or somebody might wish that she were a "merry widow." She is wielding a facile pen and deserves the high appreciation awarded her by your many readers. If the "Esquire, who must be as proud of her as ever knight was of fair lady, will give her a pen, or some one else should do so, she must let us know about it, and wield it, as she has done the one she now has, in the interest of all that is social and pleasant and good.

The Birmingham district has been in the throes of a terrible strike. Think of 17,000, abled-bodied men in camps, fed by the union to which they belong in idleness, concocting plans to dynamite the houses of non-union men, killing women and children, and making a perfect pandemonium in the midst of peaceful citizens. Cars have been blocked and fired into, an officer of the law and a conductor shot to death on it, two others killed and fifteen wounded. Only four nights ago a non-union negro escaped before his house was blown up, but he was found later and shot. Luckily he was not seriously hurt. One of the "bosses" living near where I sit made a narrow escape recently. The front part of his residence was blown up, but he chanced to be in a rear room. His two grown daughters were in a front room and the explosion would have caused their death had not the excessive heat induced them to change their pillows from head to foot of the bed. As it was they were so stunned that they were unconscious for hours. Gov. Comer has had regiments of soldiers here, ready for any emergency. The strike is now called off, and today, September 1st, most of the men will return to their work.

I have been in sympathy with labor, but a powerful union that can not, or will not, control its elements is close akin to anarchy and nihilism. If Dick becomes tired of my wages because they are insufficient, let him seek another job; but he has no right to take his Winchester and stand in the way to prevent Bob from occupying the place he vacated; and certainly he has no right to murder him if he persists in his work. It is a free country, and by all rules of political economy the law of supply and demand should regulate the price of labor as well as the price of products. These people have many of them, been buying property, etc., on the installment plan. What will become of the property when the payment is not made? Merchants have been selling the same way, and some of our best men are forced to make assignments. This state of affairs has existed nearly two months. But it has ended now; the soldiers will remain till the waves have all gone ashore, and then they will strike tents and return to peaceful pursuits.

The Presbyterians are holding a meetings of days this week, and the Methodists will commence one next Sunday. As "action and reaction are equal," let us hope that there may be much good done; that Pratt City and the Birmingham district may have a glorious revival.

It affords me pleasure to learn that Miss M. E. McMillan, of Red Springs, is to be one of the teachers at Montevello, some sixty miles, by rail, south of us. I hope to see her as she passes through Birmingham. A daughter of F. M. Davis, deceased, will send her daughter to this school. Laura Blanche Price will be greatly benefitted by such association. I hope that Miss McMillan will be pleased with Alabama, and I am sure that the trustees and patrons of that excellent school may well felicitate themselves upon being so fortunate as to secure the services of so worthy and accomplished a teacher. Success and happiness to Miss Minnie. I regard her father as one of the most worthy men, not only of his county, but of the State. The great county of Robeson, my native county and his, could do herself no greater honor than to send him to the General Assembly to aid in formulating or improving her laws. He has a first-class education, excellent manners, a level head and a pure heart. Besides, he has experience, and would have influence with good men from the start. Give this grand old veteran a chance and you, my countrymen, will be proud of his record.

The Western Methodist gives an interesting sketch of Rev. James Clinton Rhodes, eldest son of Dr. Richard C. Rhodes, formerly of Lumberton. He is in poor health, confined to the house. He was said by the editor, who had visited the home, to be "poor in this world's goods but rich in his children." He had three preacher sons, all of whom were graduates of Vanderbilt University with the degree of A. B., and two of them had won the title of A. M. and the third, who is quite a young man, will return this fall to labor for his master's degree. As these boys are grandsons of my sister, I have a pardonable pride in writing of their achievements. One of them is secretary of the students' feature of the Y. M. C. A. for Arkansas; one is assistant professor of biology in a college in Mississippi, and the third goes back to the University. Their father has had some of the best appointments in his conference. His address is Arkadelphia, Ark.

Wishing The Robesonian and its readers prosperity and happiness, I am,

Yours Cordially,
A. L. Davis.

To the Democrats of Robeson County—W. J. McLeod for the House.

We, the citizens of Red Springs and vicinity, heartily endorse W. J. McLeod as a candidate for the House of Representatives from Robeson county. He is a Christian gentleman, a strong defender of the rights of the people and a staunch advocate of the moral issues of the day. The varied interests of the people of all sections of the county will be safe in his hands. He is well qualified to defend the principles of Democracy, both on the stump and in the Legislative halls at Raleigh. He is brave, honest, fearless and true and will always advocate the principles for which he stands.

We ask your support and influence at the primaries in Mr. McLeod's behalf.

Respectfully,
D. P. Eachern, R. W. Livermore, A. T. McCullum, J. N. Buie, E. C. Cope, W. E. Garrett, J. A. Singleton, D. M. McKay, I. T. Brown, H. S. Toon, W. F. Williams, J. L. McMillan, A. P. Howellsville Happenings.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

People through this section are through pulling fodder and cotton picking is about to become the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wilson visited friends and relatives at Lumberton Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. E. J. Wilkins went to Lumberton yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ivey visited Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Flowers Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Wilson and daughter, Miss Cora, went to Lumberton Saturday.

Some of the young men have been looking at their lumber. I guess they are thinking about building.

Mrs. Rosa B. Kinlaw visited her father, Mr. Sam Taylor, Saturday, accompanied by her daughter and niece, Misses Easter and Gertie.

Submits a Few Remarks About "McLeodocracy" and the Present Fight.

To the Editor of The Robesonian:

Please allow me space to say a few more words, and then I am through. If the young men whom I mentioned some time ago were criminals, all who have held office since, including our friend Graham, are criminals; for by the work done by these young men it is possible for such as he to hold office. Oh yes, these young men are criminals now! A few years ago they were applauded and made heroes of. These fathers of Democracy have no doubt done valiant party service, and I duly appreciate what they did when they were fighting niggers and radicals, but I do not appreciate their present effort to destroy their own work of a lifetime. They helped to build a strong Democratic party; now they seem determined to destroy the creature of their own making. These men against whom they are hurling their fiery darts are as true Democrats as ever breathed the breath of life. Have I not the right to acknowledge the many favors and deeds of kindness shown me by ex-Sheriff McLeod, and have not hundreds of others as certainly true, and because I acknowledge this, am I an unpardonable sinner and political scoundrel? "McLeodocracy!" That's keen! If saying Sheriff McLeod has been a friend to many when no one else showed any interest in them converts my Democracy into "McLeodocracy," let it go at that. But Mr. McLeod has withdrawn from the race. Has the fight ceased?

Your What-you-may-call-him (he was too cowardly to sign his name) asked if I would vote for Mr. Barnes. Why, yes; Mr. Barnes is a nice man, and we believe he is too much of a gentleman to join the fight being made against us good Democrats as he is himself; and I believe he has more sense, if he is nominated he will get the full party strength.

As your correspondent thinks my Democracy is "McLeodocracy" maybe his is questionable. Will he vote the ticket nominated, provided he and his bosses do not succeed in having their own way? If I and all others must take the dose measured out to us, will our defamers take the healing lotion we may perhaps give them? The rub is: will the "Fathers of Democracy" and their sons fall in with the majority and support the ticket, or will they kick over the traces and join Col. Steve Edmunds' brigade? I do not believe there are many who are engaged in this fight against the Democratic party, for that is what it is, and Brer Graham & Co. are not numerous.

"McLeodocracy" was once good. I never heard a word against McLeod nor the commissioners while they employed McLean & McLean as counsel. Not one. The commissioners acted before just as they have acted since and if they were violating the law their counsel said nothing about it. If McLeod was robbing the people his counsel said nothing about it, and they were overlooking his official conduct. When he retained other counsel, and the board of commissioners did likewise a board of audit and finance was appointed to investigate their official acts. I know, and everybody else knows, that if any others dare control the county affairs the Democratic party and Robeson county may go to the Radical party and to hell.

I notice much being said about destroying the Democratic party. Who is accused of crime? Who is saying mean things? Have any of the "McLeodocracy," if you please, said a word against any man, except to state the truth and defend their record when misleading statements were made? I have not seen it.

Now I close by saying, I am not going to join the "Father of Democracy" even in their insane frenzy to destroy the grand old Democratic party at the behests of political bosses. These may abuse and slander, but as the pure gold is purified by fire, so will these against whom these false statements are made grow in the estimation of all honest men.

If he wants to know under what circumstances I saw him, I will tell, and the reason I question his Democracy is because he told me that if George McLeod and the old commissioners were nominated he would not vote for them. If I am required to vote the ticket nominated to be a good Democrat, the same should be required of him.

I regret above all things this

Sewage of Outlets for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to that good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Mr. N. J. Page Gives a Challenge or so and States a Rumor.

To the Editor of The Robesonian:

I want to say through the columns of your paper that the article in the last issue of your paper signed by Mr. E. Fisher meets my approval and not only mine but it speaks the sentiment of this section of Robeson county. They want the old commissioners re-elected because they have absolute confidence in their integrity and ability and believe that no set of men could give our county a better administration than they can.

I have noticed that almost all of the articles published in your paper against the old board of commissioners are not signed by those who wrote them. It is a duty you owe to the commissioners to publish the names of the writers. Let the accusers stand face to face with the men they accuse and let the people judge who is to be believed. These articles, Mr. Editor, sound much alike and the impression is general that a few parties are preparing these articles and having them published with some other signatures than that of the writer. We challenge you, Mr. Editor, to deny these charges. I have heard that it is also a fact that certain articles favorable to the old board of commissioners offered you for publication have been held up by you until a reply to them could be prepared and published with these articles. I further challenge you to name the writers of these unsigned articles and if the members of the board of county commissioners cannot show as good or a better record than the men who accuse them I will support the ticket you name and use my influence for it in White House township. Now let the people hear the whole truth and if you do, D. P. Shaw, Marshal Shepherd, and the old board of commissioners will be nominated by a large majority. Get out from behind your cover and fight in the open like an honest man.

God deliver me from hypocrites and false swearers, for their portion is the bottomless pit.

N. J. Page.

FOR NEW COMMISSIONERS.

Give a New Board Chance to Straighten Out Affairs—Some Things the Old Board Should Explain.

To the Editor of The Robesonian:

With all the attempts at explanation which ex-Sheriff McLeod and the old board of commissioners have made, they do not appear to attempt to explain why it was that ex-Sheriff McLeod only paid over to the treasurer of Robeson county the sum of $431.50 on account of B and C taxes for the year 1906, when Sheriff McNeill has paid over from the same source for the year 1907 the sum of $2,697.26, making a difference of nearly $2,300.00 paid over by Sheriff McNeill more than paid by ex-Sheriff McLeod. This is a startling revelation, and it certainly needs explanation from somewhere.

We have seen no explanation of the action of the old board of commissioners in allowing ex-Sheriff McLeod $1.20 costs on each land sale for taxes where the lands were bid in by the county, which they refused to allow Sheriff McNeill but 70 cents for the same services. As there are a large number of these sales, this difference of 50 cents for each sale makes quite a difference during the several years that ex-Sheriff McLeod was allowed these costs.

We have tried to be fair to the old board of commissioners but they certainly have been guilty either of great ignorance or great carelessness in handling the affairs of the county, and if the errors which they have made have been caused either by ignorance or carelessness, they should get out and let a new board come in. We would certainly like to hear some good objection made to either one of the parties who is in the race for the new board. Each one of them is a most successful farmer and some of them have large experience in other business affairs.

The five members of the new board which we see are now in the race are Jno. Archie Currie, of Blue Springs; Alex. McKenzie, of Burnt Swamp; W. S. Cobb, Lumber Bridge; Geo. L. Thompson, Back Swamp, and W. H. McClellan, Thompson's. None of these men have ever been in politics, and they have nothing at stake except to work for the good of the county. They are not seeking the office, but their friends, the good Democrats of Robeson county, have insisted on their getting into the race. They need not charge that these men belong to any Lumberton ring, or that they have any axe to grind. There is not a single one of them from Lumberton, and they have no political strings tied to them.

Another question which we certainly would like for the old board to answer is this:

Why is it that the old board, some of whom have held the office for eight or ten years, are so anxious for it again? If it causes them so much trouble and worry, and if they are not well paid for it, why do they still want to hang on to it? As a rule it is mighty poor business to give an office of this kind to a man who is very anxious to have it. In the past it has been necessary rather to force the office of county commissioner on the good business men of the county, and this is the first instance, so far as we can remember, when an old board has made a scramble for the place again. These are matters which the tax payers should well consider. Some of the friends of the old board are trying to make it appear that some personal attack is being made on the old board, and that the old board needs vindication. This is a very foolish view to take of the matter. I have absolutely nothing against any member of the old board personally, but as a Democrat, looking out for the best interest of the Democratic party, I am absolutely sure that it is best to nominate a new board of commissioners this time, giving the new crowd chance to straighten out the affairs of the county, and then if they do not do it better than the old board, it will be plenty of time to put the board back in again.

Yours truly
