WILMINGTON TO BE OUT-LET?

C. C. & O. Railroad May Make North Carolina Coast City Its Seaboard Terminal by Arrangement With Carolina Central—Extensive Improvements for the Roadbed Indicate That This Move is Contemplated.

R. W. Vincent in Charlotte Observer.
Will the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad make Wilmington the outlet for the vast coal fields which that railroad taps, or will Savannah be selected as the seaboard terminal? That is a question that is agitating the minds of Wilmington business people generally, and is interesting everybody along the line of the Carolina Central Railroad.

Rumor has been rife with the plans of this new system. It has been reported with equal persistence that Charleston and Savannah would be the terminal, and the fact that surveys have been made and options secured that will carry the line to Spartanburg, lends color to these reports. On the other hand is the fact that Wilmington would make a shorter haul to the sea by at least a hundred miles than either Charleston or Savannah, and the further fact that the Seaboard Air Line is making some notable improvements between Bostic, the connecting point with the C. C. & O. Railroad, and Wilmington, and these improvements tend to show that the Seaboard is expecting more and heavier business from some source—very likely the coal business that the C. C. & O. will furnish to some seaport.

Nobody in authority seems ready to say that this is what the improvements along the line of the Carolina Central mean.
Not that they stand in the attitude of observing secrecy or checking a mystery, but they proceed to be in complete ignorance as to what the Carolina, Clinch-field & Ohio people mean to do for a terminal. I questioned a dozen people in Wilmington whom I thought ought to know something about this very interesting situation. The best-posted Seaboard man there made no secret of the improvements under way and contemplated in the Seaboard's terminal property, but he declared that they are justified by the increase in the freight business. The Observer has already noted the fact that the Seaboard authorities had appropriated $200,000 for these terminal improvements, and it is here noted that work has already begun. The improvements embrace two new freight warehouses, located on the water front, a new freight depot, which has been sadly needed for years, and a coal pier, including the necessary amount for dredging the harbor fronting the water terminals. These accounts for the expenditure of the $200,000, but further than this the Seaboard man knew nothing. No big coal piers, such as would be needed to handle the business that the C. C. & O. would carry there, had been provided for and he could not say whether they were contemplated. A leading banker said, however, that a prominent Seaboard official told him that the company expected to spend over $400,000 at Wilmington very soon. If, by that, he meant $400,000 in addition to the terminal improvements now under way, then it seems that coal docks may be embraced in the road's plans of activity.

No one else knew anything.
The objection to Wilmington as a terminal that might arise from lack of water on the bar or in the channel will be overcome before the people of that section are through, for they are determined to have a 30-foot canal from Wilmington to the sea and they are in earnest about it.
Not only the Congressman from the sixth district, but the entire State delegation are interested in this project, because they realize what it means to the whole State to have the State's only gateway amply able to take care of all the commerce of the world that can be induced to flow that way. The present plan is to have Congress make a sufficient appropriation each session to continue the work of dredging the channel—which has been going on for some time—without cessation until the 30-foot depth is attained. With deep water Wilmington's future prosperity is assured even if the C. C. & O. takes its eggs to another market.
So much for the seaboard terminal.

Sherlock Holmes would probably find more evidence in the trackage improvements to justify the belief that there is "something in the air" than in the terminal improvements. I rode from Hamlet to Wilmington on Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V.
Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr.
King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia.

the rear end of the train with the engineer of roadway and the meaning of the activity was pointed out. All the way from Bostic to Wilmington the track engagers are busy replacing the 50-pound rail with 65-pound rail. The difference in the ease of riding is appreciable, and the lighter rails would not stand for heavy coal business.
The 65-pound rails are coming from the main line, which is being relaid with 75-pound rails.
All along the line the kinks are being taken out of the track, new cross-ties are going in by thousands and at the Wilmington end, or rather at Navassa, this side of the first river crossed, the tracks are being raised four feet. This last work was undertaken because of the lesson learned in the recent floods, when the track was under water and business for several days paralyzed.

Another move—as important as heavier rails and new cross-ties—is that of ballasting the roadbed. Toward the Wilmington end of the line this is being accomplished with clinkers from several big plants that are engaged in extracting the marketable products from barytes. This material is said to make very fine ballast, being heavy and hard as iron, but it is probably no better, if as good, as the wash gravel, which is being taken out by a large force near Lilesville, on the Pee Dee river. At present the roadbed toward Bostic is receiving this ballast. All of this means that the Carolina Central will very shortly be able to handle more and heavier traffic, and that passenger travel on the line will no longer be the reproach that it has been because of its many discomforts.

The choice of Wilmington as the seaboard terminal of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio would mean great things for the section traversed by the Carolina Central. First, it would mean cheaper coal for the consumers in this section; it would mean a greater and more rapid development for the territory which the Carolina Central traverses, because the growth and development of Wilmington as the gateway of the State must inevitably redound to the prosperity of North Carolina.

ROBESON BAPTIST ASSOCI-ATION.

Proceedings of the Twenty-Sixth Annual Session—Important Resolutions Passed—To Meet
Next Year at Bear Swamp Church.

Reported for the Robesonian.
The Robeson Baptist Association convened in its twenty-sixth annual session with the Lumber Bridge church November 17-19.

The attendance of delegates was not up to the average, but the hospitality was unsurpassed, the speeches excellent and with all it was a good session.
The introductory sermon was delivered by Rev. S. L. Morgan, text, Acts 1-8; subject, "The Spirit-filled Church." Rozier and Great Marsh churches were received by letter from the Cedar Creek Association, and Fair Bluff church was dismissed by letter to the Cape Fear Columbus Association.

The report on periodicals was discussed by Revs. J. M. Fleming, J. W. Cobb and S. L. Morgan.

Rev. J. S. Corpening, of Dillon, S. C., ably discussed the subject of home missions.
One of the ablest addresses of the meeting was that of Rev.
Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, on the women's work. Mr. E.
L. Middleton, of Raleigh, presented the subject of Sunday School Missions and Revs. Livingston Johnson and I. P. Hedg-cote the subject of State Missions.

Prof. R. E. Sentelle, of Lumberton, and Dr. J. J. Hall, of Fayetteville, discussed the subject of minister's relief.

Mr. Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children, spoke on that ever-interesting subject, the orphans.

Dr. J. J. Hall delivered an interesting and instructive address on "A Trip Abroad."

Dr. W. R. Cullom, of Wake Forest, and Prof. F. P. Hobgood, of Oxford, discussed education.

Rev. S. L. Morgan presented the subject of foreign missions.
A resolution of far-reaching importance and one which should mark an era in the association was presented by Rev. S. L.
Morgan, as follows:

Whereas we believe that we should have some better financial system in our churches and whereas we need to plan for a movement to stimulate our Sunday school work, therefore, Resolved:

1st. That we call a convention to meet at Lumberton Thursday, December 17, at 11 a. m. to consider these matters.

2d. That this convention shall be composed of all the pastors of the association, with at least one delegate from each church, preferably the superintendent of the Sunday school.

3rd. That the said convention shall make definite recommendations as to our Sunday school work and especially as to some uniform system of raising money for the objects of the convention and that these recommendations shall be printed in the minutes of this session of the association.

4th. That, if it seems wise, the said convention shall determine what amount our association shall raise for each of the convention's objects during the ensuing year.

5th. That if possible the convention shall, with the aid of the pastors and delegates present, revise and complete the list of pledges for State and Sunday school missions and shall secure pledges for home and foreign missions.

Rev. Livingston Johnson will be present and great good is expected to result from such a convention.
Delegates to conventions were appointed as follows: Southern Baptist Convention—Rev. C. H.
Durham, alternate, Rev. E. J.
Hansley; Baptist State Convention—Revs. W. S. Ballard, W. S.
Johnson and R. A. Hedgworth; alternates, Revs. J. W. Cobb, I.
P. Hedgworth and S. L. Morgan.
Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Rev. C.
H. Durham, moderator; Dr. R.
T. Allen, clerk-treasurer; executive board—C. H. Durham, W. S. Johnson, E. C. Nye, L. E.
Tyner and Richard Humphrey.

The next session will meet with the Bear Swamp church Wednesday before the first Sunday in November, 1909.

President-elect Taft stated Friday that his Cabinet is not made up or slated; that no one has been decided on for any place in it and no offers of any Cabinet positions have been made to any one.

The entrance of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio railroad into Spartanburg, S. C., was celebrated at a banquet given in that city Friday night which was attended by presidents and other high officials of three great systems and other representative men of the South.

Watched Fifteen Years.
"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East William, Maine, 26c. at all drug stores.

Expenses—Other Matters.

Several from here attended the teachers meeting at Lumberton Saturday. Among those who attended were Messrs. Walker, Hodge, Thaddeus Stone and the teacher, Miss Ethel Cashwell.
They report a delightful trip.
Mr. Hezzie Phillips went to Lumberton Saturday on business.

Messrs. Berry, Wesley and Richard Ivey, Geo. Warwick, Geo.
Graham and J. R. Lawson, of Oram, attended services here Sunday.

Mr. I. V. Britt went to Kings-dale Saturday on business.
Mr. Lenord Britt went to Boardman Thursday on business.

I received a letter from one of my uncles, who lives near Lam-mar, S. C., last week. He says crops are very good down there, he got $225 per acre on his tobacco farm this year. That's making money raising the weed.

I heard an old negro talking some time ago. He said he had about ten acres of land and an ox and he was going to work and he didn't care what kind of a panic came. (He's dead and doesn't know it.)
The pastor, Rev. M. A. Stephens, did not fill his regular appointment Sunday on account of sickness, but Mr. E. J. Britt, of Lumberton, was present and made a talk that was a rare treat.
Hope Mr. Britt will come again soon.

I am very sorry about the poem I sent in last week. I clipped it from another paper; it was sent to that paper without the author's name by a correspondent, but the author's name was not given and I don't know that I ever saw the author's name. Yes, give every man credit.

The Mt. Eliam Sunday school quarterly meeting will be held at Smyrna next Sunday, the 29th.
Hope all the schools will be represented.

Mr. Graddy Lawson says he is going to get married at Christmas if Mr. M. doesn't beat him.

We heard of a certain widow saying—and she said it—she had to get married or leave this State; that she doesn't want to marry but she doesn't want to leave dear old North Carolina.
She said all the single men had been to see her, even the young boys. She did not say which one she would rather have.
But I do hate for a woman to have to marry or leave. (People will marry.)

Here is what one man who was running for a county office reports lost and done by him in the recent campaign: Lost 3 months and 1 day canvassing, 53 1/2 acres cotton, 56 acres corn, 4 acres potatoes, 5 shoats, 3 geese, 11 turkeys, one old cow and a calf, 4 front teeth and a considerable quantity of hair in personal fights; gave 17 calves dresses, 3 boxes tobacco, 13 baby rattlers, 5 pair suspenders, 75 baby dolls; told 4,375 lies, shook hands 17,550 times, talked enough to have made in print 1,000,000 large volumes, kissed 350 babies, kindled 15 kitchen fires, cut three cords of wood, pulled 500 bundles fodder, picked five hundred pounds of cotton, piled 4 loads of corn, fell down 1,000 times, broke one tie, dug 1 acre of potatoes, carried in 5,000 buckets of water, was dog-bit 73 times, baby broke my watch—$3 to have repaired; loaned out three barrels of flour, 5 pounds of coffee, stand of lard, 100 pounds of bacon, 4 bushels of corn, 2 pounds of butter, 17 lead pencils, two hoes, 1 mowing blade, 3 spoons, 1 overcoat, 3 dozen eggs—none of which was returned. Called my opponent a liar—doctor's bill $25; had three arguments with my wife—result, one child killed, 1 lamp broken, two flower vases broken, 1 dish of hash knocked off the table, 1 broom-handle broken, two handfuls of whiskers pulled out; spent $2,368, railroad fare, board and everything, and worst of all, never got elected.
This happened in Georgia.

Mr. W. H. Lamb, the road supervisor for Britt's township, was here working the roads, or having it done, last week.

While returning home Sunday night mister—we won't call his name—lost his hard hat and the buggy wheel ran over it and cut it right in two.—Poor old hard hat.

With best wishes to all to have a happy Thanksgiving.
Happy Jack.

"BLUR"

This word is used by people coming to us perhaps more than under any other conditions. The meaning of this word is plain to us all, and when you hear it you know what it means. Something is not clear, a mist, cloudy, smoky, shady, and as some say inky, a little obscured. All these words are familiar to us, they come to us in complaints or expressions of trouble.—Brought about by poor eyesight, or as it is usually expressed, everything has become BLUR'D. We often make things clear to our patrons and that we understand this difficulty. Come and see us.
