

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Cotton to-day, 8 1/2 cents
Eggs 20 cents

Mr. W. H. Humphrey, clerk of court, has received the pension vouchers for this year and veterans and widows entitled to a pension may call and ask for their money.

Ladies wishing to contribute to the Christmas dinner for the inmates at the county home are requested to send same to the home of Miss Lizzie Caldwell not later than Thursday evening.

The National Cotton Mills will shut down Wednesday evening for the holidays and the Lumberton and Dresden Cotton Mills will shut down at noon Thursday. All these mills will start up again next Monday morning.

Parties wishing to send off registered matter during the holidays are requested to get same to the post office not later than 4 o'clock afternoon if possible in order to give the postal clerks time to handle the mail.

The entertainment given by the graded school children at the Opera House Friday evening was attended by a large crowd and was very much enjoyed. Its excellence rendered much enjoyment on both teachers and pupils.

Several marriages were celebrated at the pastors' conference of the Robeson Association held at the Baptist church here last Thursday, but they are not in shape to be given out for publication at present.

Miss Aline Phillips and Mr. W. H. Pitman were married yesterday at the home of Mr. W. S. Pitman, in Wilsboro township, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. M. Fleming. Mr. Pitman is carrier on rural route No. 2 from Lumberton and lives in East Lumberton.

The Methodist Sunday school will give a Christmas entertainment at the church Wednesday evening with every body invited. The admission fee is one sweet potato, or you can bring as many potatoes as you like. The potatoes will be sent to the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh.

Mr. Vernon Bridges, of Elrod, has sent to the Robesonian a very cleverly-drawn puzzle picture of a tree, in the top of which is hidden a snake, the puzzle being to find the snake. It is matter for regret that, since this office is not equipped with facilities for making electrotype, it is not practicable to publish the picture, as requested.

Col. N. A. McLean returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where he went Thursday to attend an operation for a nose and throat trouble Saturday. The immediate painful effect of the operation left Mr. McLean very sick, but it is thought that he will be able to return home in a few days much benefited.

Mr. A. Bichery, proprietor of the Waverly Hotel, has leased from Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffith, of Greensboro, the Columbia Hotel building for two years and to run it as an annex. There is not sufficient room at the Waverly to accommodate the patronage, which has been exceptionally good under Mr. Bichery's excellent management.

Licenses have been issued for the marriage of the following: Otis Fisher and James Menden; Jennie Belle King and S. L. Baggott; Stella Lancaster and Duncan J. Bullard; Mary May McKinnon and Wm. J. McBrayer; Ella May Snodders and W. T. Gates; Mary C. Thow and Fletcher P. McPhail; Alice Stubbs and J. W. Budy; Aline Phillips and J. H. Pitman.

The following graded school teachers left Saturday for their respective homes to spend the holidays: Misses Lelia May Gill, of Lumberton; Annie Lee Arent, who lives near Raleigh; Agnes McBrayer, of Shelby; Sallie McLean, of Maxton; Miss Mary Watson, of Riverton, whose resignation as teacher of the first grade was noted in Thursday's Robesonian, will spend a few days visiting friends here before returning home.

Messrs. White & Gough, who have stores at Lumberton, Fairmont and Barnesville, have bought the stock of Mr. S. J. Smith, of Fairmont, who retires from the mercantile business to go back to his farm. This stock of goods was placed on sale this morning. The people of that part of the county are to be congratulated upon the fact that this enterprising firm is broadening the scope of its business in Fairmont.

The following cases from Robeson came up in the Federal Court in Wilmington last week: Franklin Ivey, a young white man of Raynham, charged with larceny of postal funds, was found not guilty and discharged; Nannie Manning, 40 days in jail for retailing; Helen Sellers, retailing, pleaded guilty and judgment suspended; Martha Barfield, same; Jake Felton, retailing, 30 days in jail; Mary Jane Locklear, retailing, guilty, prayer for judgment continued; Jennie Thompson, retailing, not guilty.

A Dangerous Operation
In the removal of the appendix by a surgeon, no one who takes Dr. King's New Life Pills is ever subject to this frightful ordeal. They cure constipation, headache, biliousness and malaria. 25c at all drug stores.

In The Mayor's Court.

Some early shipments of Christmas booze are perhaps responsible for the fact that business has picked up sharply in the mayor's court. Saturday night John and Fred Pitman, who live in North Lumberton, were tried before Mayor Pro Tem. M. W. Floyd for being drunk and were taxed $5 each and cost, a total for the two of $14.05. This morning W. H. Shooter was up for the same offense and was taxed $5 and cost, a total of $7.75, and also this morning S. T. Freeman was tried for the same offense plus disorder and was taxed a total of $13.95, which includes the costs.

Saturday afternoon was the time all these offenses were committed and in the morning Joe Tyner and Billy Phillips, both of whom live near town, will be tried for a little disturbance at the same time. Tyner was knocked down by Phillips near White & Gough's store, so it is said, but the whys and wherefores of the whole shooting-match will come out in the trial.

Successful Real Estate Sale.
The land sale advertised in The Robesonian and held at Fairmont Thursday was a great success. All the lots offered, 64 in number, were sold, the amount realized being $6,070. The property belonged to Messrs. J. B. and Layton Stephens and Jetter B. Lewis, of Fairmont, and J. L. Stephens, of Lumberton, and the sale was conducted by Penny Bros., auctioneers for the American Realty & Auction Co. of Greensboro. This company has sold in Fairmont during the last three months $12,000 worth of real estate, all at a fair price. There seems to be plenty of money in that section and real estate here is valuable.

Rev. R. E. Sentelle Ordained.
Rev. R. E. Sentelle, superintendent of the Lumberton (Graduate) Schools, was ordained at the Baptist church Thursday evening. Mr. Sentelle was licensed to preach some years ago but had not been ordained, and a short while ago Revs. S. L. Morgan, pastor of the church at Red Springs; L. P. Hedgepeth, who has several churches near Lumberton; and C. H. Durham, pastor of the Baptist church here, were appointed presbytery to examine Sentelle in him. The ordination sermon was preached by Mr. Morgan and the charge was delivered by Mr. Hedgepeth.

ORRUM OCCURRENCES.

Improvements on the Streets—Good Concert.

Mr. Frink Freeman, of Bladenboro, was here Wednesday.—Mr. W. O. Britt went to Wilmington Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Cindy Lawson has moved to this place. Mr. G. M. Floyd has moved to Lumberton and Mr. A. J. Surles has moved into the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Floyd.

Dr. Crow, the eye specialist, was here last week and fitted several people here with glasses.

A negro named Hubert Brigman was arrested by Constable Nye near here last week. He was brought here and given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate E. C. Nye and sent to jail at Lumberton until the next term of court.

For the past week a crew of hands has been at work on the streets here and they are being greatly improved. Also a new street has been made in front of Prof. Shepherd's house, connecting the road near the school house with the road in front of the church. This will add greatly to the appearance of the town and to the convenience of the public.

Mr. Frank Nye's little boy is very sick at this writing. The concert at the school house came off fine Friday night and was well attended.

OUT SHANNON WAY.
Christmas Tide Wedding Bells—Some Who are Moving—Tendency to Lawlessness.

Since our last items were penned, Miss Janet McDonald has left our neighborhood and returned home after a pleasant visit to the Misses Smith; Miss Pauline Stamps has made a short visit to Miss Belle Smith; Miss Bessie McMillan, of St. Pauls, has visited at Mr. D. S. Klapp's; Miss Nellie Humphrey has gone to Rowland to visit friends. There may have been some others, but if so we do not now recall their names.

Miss M. J. Cobb has moved from this section to the home of her brother, Mr. S. W. Cobb, near Alfordville, and Mr. Kesler Cobb has gone to St. Pauls with his uncle, Mr. L. Shaw, and the old Cobb residence is now vacant.

Mrs. D. O. Currie and Miss Meta Klapp have quite sick, but we are glad to learn that they are both better, and we hope they will soon be well again.

We hear that the "wedding bells" will ring on our R. F. D. route about Christmas. Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Mae McKenzie, of Gold Hill, to Mr. W. J. McBryde, of R. F. D. No. 1 from Red Springs, on the 23d, 6 p. m., at Antioch church. We extend congratulations.

Our merchants are showing a lot of Christmas goods, and we presume they are selling them right along, notwithstanding the low price of cotton.

Mrs. J. C. McPhail and Mrs. Cunningham, of Red Springs, were visiting Mrs. D. O. Currie this week.—Mrs. J. H. Singleton, of Red Springs, and Mrs. Lucy Roach, of Dundarrach, passed through our city this week.

There is some moving going on among the tenants of this section.
