AN ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE.

To the People of North Carolina: There is a proper and not unnatural public interest as to the present policy of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League...

ENFORCING THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

By an overwhelming majority the people of North Carolina have declared for the suppression of the liquor traffic in this State.

The State Anti-Saloon League stands simply for the enforcement of this expressed will of the voters of the State, and we appeal with confidence to the General Assembly...

We do not ask for more than the people have declared for, nor do we expect less. The people have so unmistakably declared their wishes...

LET'S MAKE NO HOLE IN THE DIKE. We do not believe that the whiskey interests can bring any strong pressure to bear upon our law-makers...

HISTORIC COMPANY L.

One of the Oldest Military Companies in the State Located at Lumber Bridge--Its Officers and Men--A Record to be Proud of.

One of the oldest military companies of North Carolina is Company L, located in the quiet old Scotch town of Lumber Bridge.

There is but one town in the State that can boast of an older military organization of the volunteer service and Lumber Bridge has long been justly proud of Company L.
