In ordering the address of his paper changed a subscriber should give the address to which it has been changed, and the new address.

Entered as second-class matter at the Postoffice at Lumberton, N. C., under the Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1909.

FOR PERMANENT ROADS.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found a news item in regard to a meeting which will be held in Lumberton on Tuesday of next week to consider the advisability of making some changes in the present road law of Robeson county.

We hope at Tuesday's meeting serious consideration will be given to the advisability of asking the present Legislature to allow Robeson to vote on bonds in the sum of, say, $500,000, for the permanent building and improvement of roads.

A large number of citizens of Robeson county, both those who oppose and those who favor division of the county, is in Raleigh today, and the matter will be threshed out to a finish before the committees on counties, cities and towns today and tomorrow.

Mr. J. F. McKay's suggestion for an act to prohibit any division of Robeson county for a period of two hundred and fifty years, published elsewhere in this paper—providing heavy punishment for any person who shall dare to work for, discuss or think about division, is what Col. A. Fairbrother calls the "stuf" or does he call it the "stuff"? Anyway, it's all right. Anything for a quiet life.

PERSONALS FROM MAXTON—A HORSE FATALLY INJURED.

Mr. Martin Luther McLean, of Fayetteville, spent Sunday in Maxton. Mr. A. W. McLean was in Maxton Sunday evening. Solicitor N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville, passed through Maxton Saturday on his way to spend Sunday at home, and returned Sunday night. Mr. Tom Burrows, of Lynchburg, Va., was in Maxton Saturday night.

NO "LESSER" LUMBERTON.

Under the caption, "No Greater Lumberton." The Charlotte Chronicle copies the following from The Robesonian: "It is proposed to amend the town charter, making Lumberton the limit on the west. A strong resolution was passed against any change and urging upon the Senator and Representatives from Robeson the importance of not making the change proposed. It is thought that if the proposed change were made the section just across the river would become a refuge for undesirable citizens and would be a constant menace to the town."

a few minutes, so that it is impossible to get to Rowland by rail from Lumberton without spending a day or night in Pembroke. It is one of those provoking narrow misses that makes people think the railroads are actuated by a spirit of pure cussedness.

TO PROHIBIT DIVISION.

An act to prohibit any division of Robeson county, for a period of two hundred and fifty years. Section 1. Any person presenting a petition to any other person for his signature for a division of Robeson county inside of its boundaries, shall upon conviction be fined not less than $3,000, and imprisoned not less than thirty years.
