The two yeggmen who broke jail at Greenville, S. C., Sunday night, were intercepted near Asheville Monday night and after a fierce fight in which Special Deputy Sheriff Frank Rogers was badly wounded one of them was captured, the other escaping with the officer's pistol. John Kingsbury, a well-known colored man, committed suicide Sunday in the town lock-up at Oxford by choking himself so severely that heart failure ensued. Saturday night he attacked his wife with a knife, inflicting dangerous wounds, and fear that he had killed her is thought to have caused him to take his own life.

A dispatch of the 5th from Wilmington states that reports indicate that the strawberry crop, which will be moved within the next ten days, will be the largest in years and that the revenue will be greater than that which comes from tobacco or cotton. It is estimated that the number of cars that will be shipped will be 6,000 or more.

A Savannah, Ga., dispatch of the 4th is to the effect that the plan of Daniel Sully, to throw a chain of cotton warehouses across the South capable of holding one third of a year's cotton crop, will be strongly opposed if it ever threatens to become a fact, and that it will have very slight, if any, support at all in that section.

Up Before the Bar. N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For Chills, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache they work wonders. 25c. All druggists.

A CHURCH ANNIVERSARY.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Bladen-Union Church Appropriately Celebrated—Other Items.

Quite a large concourse of people assembled at old Bladen-Union church on Sunday last to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the church, it being 50 years since the church was first organized. The first pastor was the late Jordan W. Cobb, who served the church for 10 or more years and did it faithfully. Part of his pastorate was during the civil war and just after. He was so true to his appointments he sometimes walked 15 to 20 miles to meet his people. His worthy son, Col. Stephen Cobb, was present and was asked to tell us something of what he knew, which he did in a pleasant way. We all were glad to meet him and listened with keen interest to what he said.

Our young pastor, Rev. Otis Johnson, delivered a fine address of welcome to all visitors. Bro. Johnson knows just how to please and keep the attention of the audience. While speaking after a song by the choir Rev. R. N. Cashwell gave a brief sketch of the church from its foundation, which was listened to with interest. Bro. Cashwell was followed by Rev. J. D. Clark, who spoke only 10 minutes on the importance of foreign missions. Bro. Clark was pastor of this church for a number of years and was loved by us all. After another song by the choir and congregation we adjourned for dinner.

Dinner over, all again assembled in church to hear the concluding exercises. Rev. R. L. Byrd was called for and responded in a speech of 20 or 30 minutes on foreign missions. Bro. Byrd served this church for 6 years with great credit to himself and congregation. Especially was he active in helping to break up the abominable whiskey business in this vicinity, and was remarkably successful in this. Next and last, but not least by any means, came our former pastor, Rev. John McGibbs. His talk was on missions and was ably handled. "Johnnie," as we familiarly prefer to call him, is a brick. Few young men in the Cumberland Association can measure arms with him.

And now the program is complete, and after singing "Blest be the tie that binds," the meeting adjourned. Many visitors from a distance attended this meeting. Among them we noticed Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher, of Tolarville; J. Q. Beard, of Ten Mile; J. R. Tolar, of Fayetteville; Devotion Carter, of Big Island; T. W. Maxwell and wife and daughter and J. Clinton Maxwell, of Reedy Branch, and many others; Z. V. Tolar and sister, Miss Alice, came up Saturday from Tar Heel and returned Sunday evening; Mr. W. J. Ward and Mr. Welburn Williamson, of Lumberton and Kingsdale; C. D. and A. B. Williamson and W. L. Thames and sons, Joe and Archie, of Parkton. Miss Leona Hemingway, of Chadbourn, is visiting the Misses Tolar this week.

Mrs. E. L. McDonald, who has been sick for some time, is somewhat improved. Forest fires are common around here for the last few days.

"Uncle Sandy" Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8, April 5, 1909.

A Curious Oath. Chicago Journal. What is regarded as the quaintest oath still in use is that taken by the high court judges in the Isle of Man, the terms of which are as follows: "By this book and the contents thereof, and by the wonderful works that God hath miraculously wrought in the heaven above and the earth beneath in six days and six nights, I do swear that I will, without respect of favor or friendship, loss or gain, consanguinity or affinity, envy or malice, execute the laws of this isle, justly between party and party as indifferently as the herring backbone doth lie in the midst of the fish. So help me God and the contents of this book."

Swept Over Niagara. This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and your best feelings return. After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Blankenship, of Belk, Tenn. Only 6c. at all druggists.

TEN MILE TALK.

More Corn and Less Cotton—An April Fool's Party—Personal Mention.

Rev. R. E. Sentelle filled his appointment here Saturday and Sunday. He preached a fine sermon. We have had the good fortune of securing his services for this year. Among the many that attended church from a distance were Mr. Henry Jones and Mrs. McNair, of Lumber Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. L. Fisher, of Fairmont; Messrs. Charlie Jones and Mac Johnson, the Misses Johnston and Mr. Nathan Allen, of St. Paul's.

Miss Emma Britt has returned from Rutherfordton, where she had been since the death of her brother, Rev. D. C. Britt.—Mr. L. H. Townsend was in this vicinity Saturday.—Messrs. Charlie Jones, Troy King, Reuben M. White, and Walter McNeal and Misses Cora Britt and Gertrude Bethune attended church at Regan's Sunday afternoon.—Mrs. J. I. Townsend spent the day with Mrs. Florence Britt Monday.

Mr. E. W. Musseilwhite had the misfortune of getting his hand caught in a pea huller and as the result he has a slightly mangled hand.

The Misses Evans, of Wilmington, are spending some time with their sister, Mrs. Jenkins, of Barker's.—Mr. Benson Rozier, of Fayetteville, spent part of the past week with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bethune.

Quite a number of our people have mumps. A good number of the young folks had an April Fool's party, or at least they were fooled, for when they arrived at Mr. Powers' (this being the place for the entertainment), much to their sorrow, Mrs. Powers had mumps, but owing to the hospitality of Misses Cora and Fannie Britt they spent a pleasant evening after all their trouble, for these two young ladies asked the crowd over to their home, about two miles away.

Mr. Ira Barker spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives at Elizabethtown.—Mr. Napoleon and Miss Sallie Mercer, of Elizabethtown, are expected here the last of the week to visit friends and relatives.—Mr. Ira Townsend went to Howellsville on business Monday.—Mr. W. P. Barker, of Lumberton, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Townsend.—Mr. R. J. Jones made a business trip to St. Paul's Friday.—Mrs. S. A. Powers has returned from Lumberton, where she went for treatment some time ago. We are glad to say she is much improved.—Mrs. Joe Regan spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. A. A. Bethune.

Mrs. W. N. Willis has gone to Highsmith Hospital for treatment. Her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery. Mr. Pitman and Miss Margaret Willis passed through this vicinity Sunday.—Mr. N. A. Andrews was a visitor in this section Sunday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McNeill, of Lumberton, passed through here en route to Tolarville to visit Mrs. McNeill's mother, Mrs. Catherine King, last week.

Farmers are very busy but most of them are through planting corn and from the number of acres planted in corn it will be more corn and less cotton this year, which is best.

Ten Mile, N. C., April 6, 1909. A verdict of guilty was returned in Guilford Superior Court on the 6th in the case charging Marion Butler and his brother, Lester F. Butler, with criminal libel in publishing in The Raleigh Caucasian articles reflecting on the personal and official integrity of ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams during his term of office as chief justice of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Territory. Judge Long fined Marion Butler $500 and half the costs and Lester Butler $250 and half the costs.

The War Department of the United States government has agreed to send to Charlotte during the 20th of May celebration, troopers, flags, etc., which will aid materially in the celebration.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeton, Ill. "But you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. His cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Boils, Burns and Fists astounded the world. 25c. at all druggists.

RED SPRINGS REVIEWS.

Miss Staples' Graduating Recital—Miss Ellen Beach Yaw, Celebrated Opera Singer, at the College Friday Evening.

Miss Josie McNeill, of Lumberton, spent Sunday here as the guest of Miss Glennie Graham. The regular fortnightly recital last Friday afternoon given by a number of the music students of S. P. C. was a fine one and much enjoyed by all.

Miss Rosa McMillan returned Monday from a two-weeks' visit to relatives in Bennettsville, S. C.—Miss Hattie Lou Smith, of Wilmington, who graduated last year, is visiting friends at the college.—Miss Effie Davis, of Linden, visited her sister, Miss Berta, at the college this week.—Mrs. Staples and sister, of Reidsville, are guests of Miss Sara Staples, of the conservatory faculty. They came to attend the graduating recital of Miss Sara Staples, given Monday evening.—Mrs. Caborn and Miss Wyatt McKinnon spent Monday shopping in Fayetteville.

The music lovers of our town were given a rare treat last evening when Miss Sara W. Staples rendered her graduating recital. She was assisted by Miss Lillian Farquhar, violinist, and Miss Lida Law, accompanist. Properly at eight-thirty Miss Staples, faultlessly attired in yellow crepe de chine over taffeta and carrying crimson carnations, took her seat at the piano and rendered most beautifully the first piece on the program. Next came Misses Law and Farquhar, the former dressed in a white empire gown, the latter in blue liberty satin, and it is needless to say they charmed the audience. Miss Staples received many beautiful flowers and numerous packages attesting her popularity.

On next Friday evening we will have one of the most celebrated opera singers of the world with us—Miss Ellen Beach Yaw. It is the first time that Dr. Vardell has been able to secure an artist of such note to give us a concert, so everyone is looking forward to Friday evening with intense excitement and pleasure. "Madame Ellen Beach Yaw is undoubtedly the greatest coloratura soprano of the world. In range of voice and ease of singing she exceeds every prima donna of ancient and modern times. The highest note of the human voice ever recorded was that of Agnini, a prima donna who lived in the days of Mozart, but Yaw exceeds that by four full notes. Patti and Jenny Lind exceeded in ease of execution and flexibility of voice all other singers, but Yaw exceeds them both in that respect. Her voice, as well as her position in musical history, is strikingly unique. She is an American and young, being now little more than a girl, yet her education has been most thorough and her triumphs many. She was educated with the great Marchesi in Paris and passed her German and Italian operas with native masters in those lands. She sings and converses in German, French, Italian or English with equal fluency and has appeared in opera in Italy, France, England and America, her last appearance being at the Metropolitan Opera, New York, last season, where she made a most remarkable success."

The admission is $1 and $1.50. Red Springs, N. C., April 6, 1909.

The Legislature at its last session provided for $3,000 a year for uniforms for the inmates of the Soldiers' Home at Raleigh. Dr. Dixon, one of the directors of the home, will go to Richmond next week to examine the uniforms worn by the inmates there and will arrange for getting the same kind for those in the home there.
