THE FINAL SUMMONS.

Mr. Julian A. Pope Passed Away in Charlotte Saturday Night—Remains Brought Home Last Night. Funeral This Afternoon From Residence of Parents.

Mr. Julian A. Pope, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Pope, died at the Crowell Sanatorium in Charlotte, where he was taken last Thursday for treatment, at 9:05 o'clock Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Pope went to Charlotte yesterday and the remains were brought to Lumberton last night. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the home of the parents of the deceased, corner of Walnut and Third streets, and the interment will take place in Meadowbrook cemetery, in North Lumberton. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist church. The pall bearers are: Messrs. Howard Morrison, A. H. and Geo. B. McLeod; Prof. R. E. Sentelle, Dr. J. J. Crowe, and Mr. H. A. Webber, of Charlotte, who came to Lumberton last night with the remains as a representative of the Elks, of which order the deceased was a member.

Julian Alexander Pope was born March 7, 1884, and was therefore only 25 years old. His untimely death is rendered all the more sad by reason of the fact that he had recently passed through greater troubles than often falls to the lot of one so young. On April 29 last his infant child passed away, and only five days later he followed all that was mortal of his young wife to its last resting place. The hearts of the entire community go out in profound sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. Pope's illness was of short duration. He came home on the 25th ult. from Littleton, where he had been pharmacist for some time for the Littleton Pharmacy, suffering with inflammatory rheumatism. On Thursday of last week he was sent to the Crowell Sanatorium in Charlotte. The immediate cause of his death was meningitis.

Mr. Henry L. Pope, who is a pharmacist at Canton, in the western part of the State, arrived this morning to attend his brother's funeral. Messrs. D. D. and J. F. French, Howard and Frank Morrison, T. A. McNeill, Jr., and Raymond Thompson met the remains in Hamlet last night.

Justice W. J. Smith, of Rowland.

Mr. W. J. Smith, for many years a justice of the peace of Thompson township, died Friday night at his home in Rowland after sickness of several months with cancer of the mouth. The remains were interred in the Rowland cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Smith was married five times, his last wife surviving him. He is also survived by three children—Mrs. John Adams, of Purvis, and Messrs. C. McD. and Marcus Smith, of Rowland; two sisters—Messdames J. K. Singletary, of Back Swamp, and Bettie J. Harrel, of Raft Swamp; and one brother, Mr. J. W. Smith, of Wisharts township.

Mrs. Z. T. Fulmore, of Austin, Texas.

Many friends throughout the county will regret to learn that a telegram was received one day last week by Mrs. Lou Fulmore, of Red Springs, announcing the death of the wife of Judge Z. T. Fulmore, of Austin, Tex. No particulars have been learned. Judge Fulmore was born and raised in this county, where he has many relatives and warm friends, and he is known to all Robesonian readers through his writings in the paper. He has been living in Texas since the Civil war, was married there, and has been honored by his adopted State.

Both Boys Saved

Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in result. Sold by all druggists.

C. D. Campbell Dies in Alabama.

Mr. C. D. Campbell, who moved about a year ago from the upper end of the county to Alabama, died Friday in Mobile, Ala. The remains were brought to his old home for interment and yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the funeral took place from Antoch church, Red Springs township. His wife survives. The deceased was between 30 and 35 years old and had won his way by force of character and industry. He was formerly a mail carrier in this county, later became bookkeeper for a firm in Raleigh, and then accepted a position in Alabama.

Mr. Lennon Jordan, of Bladenboro.

Mr. S. A. Jones, of Fayetteville, passed through Lumberton this morning on his way to Bladenboro to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, Mr. Lennon Jordan, who died at his home there yesterday. The deceased never recovered from the shock caused by the death of his grandson, Daniel L. Jones, son of Mr. S. A. Jones, who was shot and killed in Fayetteville Sunday morning, August 29.

The Late Judge W. L. Norwood.

It is to be expected that in the usual course of human events death must sooner or later claim those whose departure means irreparable loss to the community wherein they have lived and moved. In this class The Citizen includes the late Judge William L. Norwood, whose death has cast a gloom over Waynesville and the immediate section. In this end of the State Judge Norwood's name was a household word, and throughout the State few men stood higher in the legal profession.

Judge Norwood, it may be said, grew up with Waynesville, and with its expansion he was personally identified. While differing politically with some of his warmest friends, he disputed to no man the right to his own opinion, and it was this quality among others that endeared him to all.

Climax of Hudson-Fulton Celebration—Germans Capture Crowd.

25,000 men of arms today marched past the massed representatives and special envoys of 37 nations while two million citizens shouted themselves hoarse in cheers. The great military parade was the climax of the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Although there were tremendous ovations for each body of American troops and unstinted applause in overwhelming volume for the British sailors, the most conspicuous reception of the day went to the sailors of the German fleet, a picked body of magnificent men, who as they reached the reviewing stand, fell into the formal slap-slap of the parade goose step and burst into "My Country 'Tis of Thee" with an overwhelming volume of basses, and a fervor which took away the breath of the listeners.

Ejection Suit Against Messrs. White & Gough.

Mr. T. B. Pace has brought an ejection suit against Messrs. White & Gough to dispossess them of the store which they occupy in Maxton and which he has rented to Messrs. A. C. McKinnon and A. H. Currie. Messrs. White & Gough, who bought the Davis bankrupt stock of merchandise, are holding under Captain Davis' contract. The case came up Tuesday before Esquire J. S. McRae and a jury, but was continued to Monday the 18th of October, because of the absence of Mr. Davis. Col. McLean and S. B. McLean, Esq., appear for the defendants, and Mr. McIntyre for the plaintiff.

C. R. Kluger, the Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." Sold by all druggists.

IN SOCIAL REALMS.

Young Matrons Club Entertained by Mrs. R. E. L. Correll.

Mrs. Robert Correll charmingly entertained the Young Matrons Club at her home on North Elm street Thursday afternoon from four to six o'clock.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. Correll and ushered into the reception hall, which was tastefully decorated with ferns and roses. The feature of the evening was progressive school, and when the guests had assembled, the hostess, after distributing cards and pencils, invited them into the school-room, where there were four tables. On the first were questions to be answered by the letters of the alphabet; on the second were physiology questions; on the third, arithmetic, and on the fourth, geography, five minutes being given for each table. Mesdames Geo. B. and A. H. McLeod correctly answered all the questions and in a cut for the prize Mrs. Geo. B. McLeod was successful. Delightful refreshments were daintily served by Misses Moring and Moore.

Those enjoying Mrs. Correll's hospitality other than the regular club members were Mesdames R. D. Caldwell, A. T. Parmele and T. C. Johnson, and Misses May C. Moore and Marion Moring.

Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Hoyle entertained the primary and intermediate classes of the Methodist Sunday school at the parsonage, on Seventh street, Friday evening. The following, with their classes—85 in all—were present: Mesdames Ellen Redmond and A. E. White, Miss Jessie Fuller, Messrs. L. T. Townsend and J. A. Boone.

Cases of Diphtheria.

Ethlyn, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. M'White, who live on Pine street, has a well-developed case of diphtheria. There is also said to be a case at the National Cotton Mills, the victim in this instance being a young man by the name of Coy Freeman. Dr. R. B. Beckwith has charge of the case at Mr. M'White's and in response to a wire to the State board of health has been advised that diphtheria antitoxin, which, under an act of the last Legislature, is furnished by the State, has been sent to him.

Meeting of Camp Willis H. Pope.

By order of Commander J. A. McAllister the veterans of Camp Willis H. Pope will meet in the court house at Lumberton Saturday, the 16th, at 11 o'clock a. m. Dr. R. M. Norment, of Lumberton, will deliver a eulogy on Capt. Willis H. Pope, in whose honor the camp is named, and it is probable that there will also be some recitations and music.

Public School Examinations.

County Superintendent J. R. Poole will hold the regular examinations for public school teachers in the court house here next week as follows: Thursday, 14th, for white; Friday, 15th, for colored; Saturday, 16th, for Croatan.

Peary Welcomed Home.

New York city and State, today gave Commander Robert E. Peary a welcome home such as few returning heroes can hope to receive. From the bridge of his Arctic ship Roosevelt, Commander Peary, with his wife by his side, was the most prominent feature of the 60 mile Hudson-Fulton naval parade from New York to Newburgh. All the way, land and water, vied with each other in hurling their cheers of congratulations through the air to the white little ship whereon the tall military looking man smiled back his answer to their greetings.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Mr. N. A. Regan work Friday as salesman for Mr. A. Weinstein.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school has added to its attractiveness by putting in a piano.

—There will be an oyster supper at Bethesda Methodist church at Barnesville Wednesday night of this week. The public is invited.

—Licenses have been issued for the marriage of Harriett Rowland and Allen Sealy; Rosa Pittman and Frank Davis; Maud Tyler and Wm. C. Sawyer; Mattie Watts and Jim Harden.

—Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Johnson moved Saturday from Mrs. Sue McLeod's, corner of Walnut and Second streets, to the home of Dr. Johnson's brother-in-law and sister, Prof. and Mrs. J. R. Poole, on Elm street.

—The old school house on Fourth street, near the home of Mr. L. R. Breece, whose property it was, has been torn down, and as it was not a thing of beauty or a joy there is no grief over its disappearance from the landscape.

—Deputy Sheriff T. C. Barnes went to Conway, S. C., Saturday to ascertain if a negro who was arrested there was the man who is wanted for the murder at Kingsdale a week ago Saturday night, but he was not the man wanted.

—Two more glorious days never happened than Saturday and yesterday. Commonplace remarks about the weather were not commonplace at all as applied to those two days. They were so glorious that one simply could not help saying so.

—Lumberton Lodge No. 35, K. of P., will institute a new Pythian lodge at St. Pauls on Tuesday night of next week. State Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt, of Wilmington, will assist, and the date is subject to change if the date set does not suit Mr. Nutt's convenience.

—The home of Mr. Wm. Scott, a tenant on one of ex-Sheriff Geo. B. McLeod's farms about 5 miles from town, in Wisharts township, was destroyed by fire Friday morning about 11 o'clock. Some of the household goods were saved. There was no insurance. The buildings were valued at between $500 and $600.

—Mr. W. A. Yost, who, as mentioned in Thursday's Robesonian, has accepted a position with Messrs. Phillips & Penny, wholesale grocers of Raleigh, as bookkeeper and general office manager, left for Raleigh this morning. Mrs. Yost and the children will remain in Lumberton for a few weeks.

—It is reported that there is talk of a change of schedule on the Seaboard road from Hamlet to Wilmington whereby passenger train No. 45, which now leaves Wilmington at 3 o'clock p. m., will leave there at 4:45 p. m. If the change is made that train will reach Lumberton about 7:15 a. m. instead of 5:30, as at present.

—Mr. R. C. Lawrence returned Saturday from Wayneville, where he went a week ago to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, ex-Judge W. L. Norwood, who died at his home there last Sunday morning. Mr. Lawrence returned to Charlotte last Wednesday night and became sick at the Selwyn Hotel with ptomaine poison and has not yet entirely recovered.

—Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of the Methodist church, went this morning to Wilmington to assist in a protracted meeting at Trinity Methodist church of that place. In mentioning this meeting yesterday's Star says: "Rev. Mr. Hoyle is a preacher of great power and is especially fortified along the lines of revival work. Trinity congregation and community will have this rare opportunity of hearing him."

Frightful Fate Averted.

"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disbury, Kelliher, Minn. "Without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infallible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Boils, Skin Eruptions. World's best for Piles, 25c. at all druggists.

—A two-weeks' term of Robeson Superior Court for the trial of civil cases convened this morning at 11 o'clock, Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethtown, presiding. A number of cases has been continued and the only case tried this morning was a suit for divorce, Gaston Britt vs. Sarah Britt, which went to the jury when court adjourned for dinner. It is hardly probable that court will last the entire two weeks.

—At a meeting of Robeson Chapter, daughters of the Confederacy, at the home of Mrs. J. A. McAllister Thursday afternoon, Mesdames N. A. Thompson and R. D. Caldwell were appointed delegates to the State Convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy, which will be held in Wilmington Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. Mesdames Irvin Jenkins and W. P. McAllister were elected alternates.

—Mr. Humphrey Odum, who lives on rural route No. 2 from Buie, lost a valuable mule last Tuesday night. At ten o'clock Tuesday night the mule was in the lot at his home and the next morning she was gone. It was evident that she jumped the high gate to the lot and Mr. Odum was able to track her across a field, but lost her tracks at the public road. Whether she was stolen or just departed of her own accord is not known.

—Messrs. Geo. Lennon and Odell Edens have purchased the livery business of Mr. D. D. Hinson, on Walnut street, and Mr. Hinson left Saturday for Rockingham, where he will run a sales stable with his brother, Sheriff Hinson. As stated in Thursday's Robesonian, Mr. Hinson had failed to sell up to that time and had decided to take his horses and vehicles with him to Rockingham, where Mrs. Hinson and the children had preceded him, but the sale was consummated Friday.

—The greatest excursion of the season will be run over the Seaboard to Norfolk next week. The train will start from Clarkton next Monday morning, will take on passengers at stations along the road to Laurinburg, and will leave Norfolk Wednesday morning, giving two nights and a day in Norfolk. The rate for the round trip is ridiculously low and many will no doubt take advantage of this opportunity of visiting Norfolk and points of interest that may be easily reached from there.

—Mr. W. S. Wishart, formerly foreman of The Robesonian's composing room, now advance agent of the Williams Stock Company, which began the season here in August, spent Friday night at his home here and returned Saturday to Wilmington, where he spent nearly all last week advertising his company, which will be in Wilmington all this week. Mr. Wishart will return to Lumberton tomorrow and four nights next week the Williams Stock Company, which has been popular here for several years, will hold the boards at the Lumberton Opera House.

—At Rowland Saturday night, the 25th ult., Special Policeman Frank Henderson came near being killed by an unknown negro whom he was taking to the guard house. The Sun states that Policeman Henderson found, while on his way to the guard house with the negro, that he did not have his keys and sent Mr. Geo. Draughton after them. While waiting he sat with the negro, who seemed very drunk on a log, holding him by the arm. Suddenly the negro pulled a pistol, placed it to the officer's head and fired. The powder singed the officer's hair and scorched the under side of his hat rim. Henderson emptied his pistol at the negro, who ran immediately, but he escaped. The negro was arrested for creating a disturbance.

More Than Enough is Too Much.
To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all Druggists.
