

GOOD ROADS BONDS.

Will Help Market Crops and Make Church-Going Easier - Benefits of Diversification - Personal.

St. Paul's, R. F. D. 1, Oct. 18 - Cotton picking and hauling is still the order of the day, and What is cotton worth? is a very common question these days, for almost everybody is interested in the price of cotton.

Let us farmers always strive to see how much we can make per acre, instead of striving to see how many acres we can plant.

And let us have the bond issue, and get our public roads in good condition. Then we can market our crops more easily and can also get to our churches better on Sundays.

Mr. R. W. Johnson, of Ashboro, visited homefolks last Sunday. Rev. R. E. Sentelle delivered two good sermons last Saturday and Sunday at Great Marsh.

The Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music Will Entertain Her Friends November 13th-20th.

Fayetteville Presbytery has determined to place her college for women at Red Springs on a firm financial basis.

That the work may be done thoroughly and effectively the following plan has been adopted by the Presbytery: Invitations will be issued to 60 or 75 men and women to assemble at Red Springs for a conference November 9th, and be the guests of the college for the 10th and 11th, and the college will pay all transportation expenses to and from the conference.

The purpose of the meeting is to allow the workers to see for themselves the great work the college is doing and to study the present needs and methods for meeting these needs.

The conservatory faculty will give a recital on Friday night, November 11th, after which the two literary societies will give a reception to the members of the conference and their hosts.

Everything possible will be done to make this an interesting and enjoyable meeting.

Subjects for Discussion.

You will please publish the following program at once and oblige:

"What are some of the benefits of Sunday-school work?" Discussed by Rev. R. L. Byrd. "Who should organize and support a Sunday-school with the necessary literature?" Discussed by E. B. Stone and open to all.

J. I. Stone, Sr., For Committee, Lumberton, R. F. D. 4, Oct. 18, 1910.

There is nothing to indicate for what occasion the above program has been arranged. The communication is published just as it was received and The Robesonian is unable to furnish the information which Mr. Stone overlooked giving.

One by one the old black mamies of ante-bellum days are passing over. We lost a good old faithful one last week in the death of aunt Phyllis Floyd of old age at the home of her daughter in Fairmont. She died surrounded by a large circle of children, grand-children and great-grand-children who were very kind to her in payment for her faithful care of them in her younger days.

A dispatch of the 20th from Miami, Fla., states that only 4 deaths in all have been reported as the result of the storm which is said to have been the worst in the history of the Florida coast. Houses were demolished in some places, leaving many homeless, and harrowing tales of suffering are told by survivors of vessels wrecked at sea.

Rockefeller, were announced Wednesday at the conference of Young Men's Christian Workers at the White House in Washington. President Taft addressed the delegates and heartily endorsed the organization.

They Have To Be Mighty Mad.

Did you ever notice it, for it is true, as Governor Aycock says: "A real good man has to get mad before he will vote the Republican ticket." You never saw a Democrat vote the Republican ticket unless he had got mad about some little something.

Joy comes not to him who seeks it for himself, but to him who helps the contestant win the prize.
