

BILL NYE DAY.

An Interesting Program Prepared For Its Celebration in Public Schools—State Superintendent Joyner Asks Cooperation of Superintendents and Teachers.

Following is the official letter of Hon. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, designating February 22d as Bill Nye Day in the public schools of North Carolina:

To the County Superintendents and the Public School Teachers:

The public press of North Carolina has always responded generously and unselfishly to every call of the public schools for service, and no agency has been more potent in promoting the development of these schools and the progress of education in the State. The county superintendents and the public school teachers now have an opportunity to express their appreciation of this service, and to render at the same time a valuable service to a most worthy cause by co-operating heartily with the "Bill Nye Memorial Committee" in their commendable effort to raise funds for the erection of a central or main building at the "Stonewall Jackson Manual Training School," to be known as the "Bill Nye Memorial Building."

The committee has prepared an interesting program for the celebration of Bill Nye Day in the public schools. An hour devoted to honoring the memory of such a man, who loved all children and all men, who devoted his splendid talents to making them happier and better through his writings, will be properly and profitably spent.

I earnestly request and urge the county superintendent of each county to distribute these programs to the public school teachers of the county, accompanied by a letter to each teacher, directing the setting apart of an hour in the school for this celebration, and urging the hearty co-operation of the teacher for the success of the celebration.

The noble work of the Stonewall Jackson Training School for giving wayward boys of the State a chance to have a chance to be trained into good citizens should appeal strongly to the hearts of the children of the public schools, who but for the mercy of God might be like these wayward boys. It is a privilege, therefore, for these children to have an opportunity to make a contribution to such a work. It will do them good. I earnestly urge, therefore, that county superintendents and teachers lend their hearty co-operation in securing at least a penny contribution from every child in the public schools for the erection of the Bill Nye Memorial Building for increasing the facilities at the State's school for training wayward boys.

I designate Wednesday, the 22nd day of February, for this celebration. I suggest that the teacher devote an hour on this day to reading to the pupils this booklet and to arousing an enthusiastic interest in Bill Nye and his work and in the work of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, concluding the exercises with an earnest appeal for a contribution of at least one penny from every child to be brought next morning.

All contributions should be forwarded by the teacher or the principal of the school to Mr. R. W. Vincent, Secretary of Bill Nye Memorial committee, Charlotte, N. C., and they will be acknowledged in the columns of the Charlotte Observer.

J. Y. Joyner,
Supt. Public Instruction.

Fertilizing Grain in the Spring.

We have also found most excellent results from fertilizing wheat and other grains during the month of March, in preference to applying the fertilizer at the time wheat is seeded in the fall, and we strongly recommend to our customers, whether they seed clover or grasses or rot, to fertilize their grain crops with 200 to 300 pounds of animal bone or a good grain fertilizer, at that time and run the harrow over it to slightly incorporate it with the soil. The increased yields of grain will well repay for the fertilizing and little extra labor required.—Wood's Crop Special.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the people of the community for their kindness and assistance during the recent illness and death of our mother.

"After 15 Years I Am Well"

Mrs. Mary Amanda Nash, of Lumberton, N. C., writes: "For years I was a severe sufferer from chronic dysentery, brought on by acute indigestion. It also brought on catarrhal headache which debilitated me so I had to lie down three or four hours each day. My general health was greatly impaired, and I was weak and nervous. One day I had one of those terrific headaches, and my daughter-in-law suggested that I try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I did so, and the very first dose relieved that headache. I continued to use it, and for the first time in fifteen years I am well. It is the best medicine compounded in this world."

Most people regard stomach troubles (and these include indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Nervousness, etc.) as of little consequence in their early stages. Never was a more serious mistake made.

When the appetite is gone, the nerves shattered, the temper ruined, the body emaciated, spasms of pain frequent, sound sleep impossible, refreshing rest unknown, they wake up to the fact that stomach trouble is a serious matter. When this stage is reached, the only thing in the world that will cure you is

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY.

It restores energy to jaded digestive organs, stimulates the normal flow of gastric juice, and brings every portion of the stomach back to normal health. It is a strictly vegetable compound, and contains no harmful mineral ingredients whatever. As a Tonic, Alterative, Blood Purifier and Nerveine it has no equal.

Don't permit any disease of the stomach to go untreated. As soon as you feel the slightest effects of indigestion or any of the other ailments directly attributable to a derangement of the digestive organs, begin at once the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and a complete cure will be an easy matter. If your trouble is of long standing, this Remedy will still cure you—but it will, of course, take longer.

We want you to write us for testimonials from people who once suffered the tortures of Indigestion, Dyspepsia and other stomach ailments, but who are now sound and well, and eat what they want without a sign of distress.

In cases of external trouble, inflammation, ulceration or itching humor, our Wash should be used with the Remedy.

For sale by druggists, or supplied direct on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.00; 1 dozen by express prepaid for $10.00, by
