Coburn's Minstrels Delight a Large Audience Here.

Coburn's minstrels delighted a large audience at the opera house Thursday night. These minstrels have visited Lumberton before but the performance was entirely new. There was not a dull moment from the opening overture to the drop of the curtain on the final act, the negro farce by Charley Gano, "The Mysterious Hotel." This same Charley Gano is the bright particular star among the comedians with this show, and every stunt he did convulsed the audience with laughter. He is killingly funny and in "The Mysterious Hotel" stunt he made the sides of the audience ache with laughter. He also sang a couple of songs that were rich, and when he launched out into descriptive speech he was simply the limit. Gano would be a star in any minstrel bunch he might stack up against—and he was not stacked up with any bunch of slouches in this show. They were all good. Justin J. McCarthy, who sang "Carissima" and also figured in the excellent quartette singing, has one of the best voices ever heard in the local opera house. There were other excellent voices in the show. Coburn's minstrels are undoubtedly the best minstrels that have ever visited Lumberton.

Weiss-Cardwell Wedding Tomorrow Evening.

The marriage of Miss Florence Rebecca, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. Weiss, and Rev. Foster R. Cardwell will take place tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Gospel tabernacle. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of Chestnut Street Methodist church. Miss Janie Carlyle will be maid of honor. She came home Friday from the State Normal at Greensboro, where she is a student, to attend the wedding. Mr. R. R. Carlyle will be best man. The church will be open to all and those who did not receive invitations will be as welcome as those who have invitations. Mr. and Mrs. Cardwell will leave Wednesday morning for Norfolk, where they will take a steamer for New York, former home of the groom. They will visit relatives of Mr. Cardwell there and relatives of the bride in Philadelphia, her former home, and will be at home at the tabernacle parsonage about December 1.

James C. Dahlman, "Cowboy" Mayor of Omaha, "Throws the Lariat"

Mayor Jas. C. Dahlman started his career as a cowboy, and is at present Mayor of Omaha, and has the following record: Sheriff of Dawes county, Neb., three times; Mayor of Chadron, two terms; Democratic National Committeeman, eight years; Mayor of Omaha, six years, and in 1910 candidate for Governor of Nebraska. Writing to Foley & Co., Chicago, he says: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and they have given me a great deal of relief so I cheerfully recommend them."

Yours truly,
James C. Dahlman.

An Act to Protect Fish in Robeson County.

County Attorney E. J. Britt says that a good many people have asked him lately about the new law for the protection of fish in Robeson county and in order that Robesonian readers may become familiar with this law it is given below, as copied for The Robesonian by Mr. Britt: Chapter 529. Public Laws of 1911. An Act to Protect Fish in Robeson County:
The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:
Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to fish with seine, nets, traps, giggering, or by muddying, striking or dynamiting, in Lumber river or the other rivers, creeks, lakes or ponds of Robeson county.
Section 2. That any person violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, nor less than ten dollars, one-half to go to the informant, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, nor less than ten days in jail, with privilege to the county commissioners of Robeson county, or adjacent county to hire out.
Section 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.
Ratified this the 3d day of March 1911.

Mrs. S. N. Dick—A Talented Woman.

The death of Mrs. S. N. Dick, of Lumberton, the account of which appears elsewhere in this issue, removes from earth a talented woman who bravely met and conquered fate at her life-crises, coming forth buoyant and cheerful, guiding and encouraging her young children up to useful and prosperous maturity. Her husband, Dr. Dick, was clerk of the superior court for Robeson county for several years following the reconstruction period and owing to infirmities, the wife was practically the clerk, as a perusal of the records written by her neat hand will disclose. She was popular with all having business with the office. Greeting all with a pleasant smile upon her sweet face, she was known as an intelligent and efficient public servant. She was also a popular correspondent for The Robesonian and other papers.

Although it has been many years since we last met her, we grieve at the passing of this excellent lady.
