

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

A suit asking for the dissolution of the United Shoe Company, a corporation of world-wide scope, was instituted Friday at Boston by the Federal government, which filed a bill in equity in the United States circuit court.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

"I refused to be operated on, the morning I heard about Cardui," writes Mrs. Elmer Sickler, of Terre Haute, Ind. "I tried Cardui, and it helped me greatly. Now, I do my own washing and ironing."

AN INTERESTING CASE.

Asking Pardon for Man Now Serving Sentence Under Remarkable Circumstances.

Raleigh Cor. Wilmington Star.

Lieut. Gov. W. C. Newland is making a special effort to induce Governor Kitchin to grant a pardon for T. B. Whitson, who 30 years ago was charged with the murder of a man named Kitburg, was later convicted and is now serving sentence under remarkable circumstances. Here with the Lieutenant Governor are Samuel Whitson and Mrs. Nelson, a daughter of the convicted man. T. B. Whitson and his brother, Will Whitson, were convicted of the murder and sentenced to be hanged and Governor Carr commuted to life imprisonment. Two years later T. B. Whitson escaped and fled the State and Will Whitson was pardoned after three years' service. T. B. Whitson located in Kentucky when he escaped and prospered, leading an exemplary life and raising an interesting family. He became superintendent of a Sunday school. The congregation became involved in a factional fight regarding their pastor, one faction insisting that he was insane and the other, led by Whitson, insisting that he was not. The minister was committed to an asylum. Whitson gave bond for his care and took him home. The leader of the other faction set about to undermine Whitson, found out his North Carolina record, reported him to the State's prison authorities and brought about his return to North Carolina and recommitment to the prison. He is now on the State farm in Halifax, where he has been since last March. It was Governor Newland who prosecuted Whitson as solicitor when he was convicted many years ago. Now he is seeking the pardon, and county authorities and the people generally are represented to be urging the pardon, which may be granted at any time now.

Frankfort, Ky., dispatch, 12th: After an absence of thirty-six years, James B. McCreary today came back to the capitol as Governor of Kentucky, for the second time in a third of a century taking the oath of office as chief executive of this State. At the age of seventy-two he took the oath of office for his second term, being the only man in this country to serve as Governor of a State twice with so wide an interval of time elapsing between his terms of office.

THE REILLY-TAYLOR CO. NEW ORLEANS, L. S. A.

In his annual report to the President on the 11th Secretary of War Stimson declared that the contingency of war with a first class power would find the army of the United States practically unprepared. He attributed this largely to the fact the army was "scattered out over the country" in too many posts, and to a lack of reserves. The army on the peace footing habitually maintained, with miniature companies and troops, he characterized as ineffective for any serious war service.
