IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Mrs. H. M. McAllister Entertains in Honor of Miss Pitt—Other Social Affairs.

Reported for The Robesonian.

Mrs. H. M. McAllister delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at four o'clock in honor of her guest Miss Pitt of Elon College, at her pretty cottage on Eighth and Walnut streets. Assisting her in receiving were Miss Pitt, Mrs. Willis McAllister and Mrs. John McAllister. The home was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, the color scheme of red and green adding a Christmas cheer.

At the appointed time, dainty tally-cards were presented, the guests finding their places at the different tables arranged for the progressive game of nations. At the conclusion of six interesting games, several ladies tied for the prize, and in cutting it was won by Mrs. E. L. Holloway, who was the recipient of a lovely fern-dish. Miss Pitt, the honoree of the occasion, was given the beautiful bust of a musician, a typical reminder of her personality. After a delicious repast had been served the afternoon's pleasure drew to a close with several selections on the piano by Miss Leslie Proctor and voice solos by Miss Pitt, accompanied by Mrs. McAllister.

A graceful hostess, a charming guest of honor and a most successful entertainment.

Thursday evening at six o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McAllister entertained at dinner, covers for eight. The guests were Miss Pitt, their house guest, Mr. A. H. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holloway, Miss Irene McLeod, Mr. A. P. McAllister.

Miss Agnes McLeod delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jennings in honor of her guest Miss Jennie Shaw of Kinston. One among the many amusements of the evening was a game of nations in which Miss Berta McNeill won the prize for having progressed the greatest number of times.

Miss Annie Ruth Caldwell made it pleasant for a large crowd of young folks Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Caldwell. The occasion was given principally for students at home for the holidays. In the midst of great joy paper, scissors and some wire were given the guests and they were all instructed to make of the material in hand a carnation each. The creations were wonderful and certainly attractive from several points of view. For the best flower Miss Margaret Pitman won the prize and Mr. David Fuller received the booby. The prizes were presented by Mr. W. K. Bethune.

Miss Irene McLeod will give a New Year's party tonight at the home of her parents, ex-Sheriff and Mrs. G. B. McLeod, Elm and Fifth streets.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound "Cures in Every Case."

Mr. Jas. McCaffery, Manager of the Schlitz Hotel, Omaha, Neb., recommends Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, because it cures in every case. "I have used it myself and I have recommended it to many others who have since told me of its great curative power in diseases of the throat and lungs." For all coughs and colds it is speedily effective. J. D. McMillan & Son.

A Remarkable Family.

Mr. W. C. Walters of Barnesville sends The Robesonian the following record of a remarkable family: James P.
