St. Paul, R. 1, March 11--Mrs. Clay Thrower and son Mr. David of Maxton, visited at the home of their son and brother Mr. E. L. Thrower from Thursday until Sunday. Plenty of rain yet and it looks like there will be a late crop. Nothing doing, as 'tis so wet. The roads are so bad one can hardly get to church.

Mr. W. J. Johnson and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. C. D. Johnson. Mr. Darius Herring of Howellsville visited friends at St. Paul Sunday. Mr. H. L. Broadwell spent Friday with his daughter Mrs. L. H. Townsend at St. Paul.

We hear some talk of tramps in this section. One neighbor said he found some one's clothes where they had been left in his barn loft and a place where some one had slept the night.

We hope there will be plenty of fruit this year, if we have had a cold winter.

Special Announcement

We have just closed a deal for a large stock of General Merchandise consisting of Dry Goods, Shoes, Groceries, Notions and other Staple Articles. This stock is new, fresh and clean and strictly up-to-date in every particular, no old goods, many lines bought in the fall for this spring's trade. On account of disagreement of partners in the business, it was necessary to close the business. The bargains came our way, with the hard cash we were on the spot and secured this at bankrupt prices and the offerings are for your disposal. We are going to give our customers the benefit of this deal in the true and unadulterated sense of the word. The stock will arrive and go on sale in our Lumberton store Monday, the 18th day of March. It will pay you to be on hand and secure the pick of this stock. You need not pay much attention to so-called Special Sales. Every sale with us is a Special Sale and every day a Bargain Day. Our prices will at all times be found lower, or you need not buy. When this ad appears both of our buyers will be in the Northern markets in search of the choicest things and greatest bargains in Spring Merchandise. We must have room, and we have therefore cut the heart out of everything in our store. The chance of a life-time is with you, don't fail to take advantage of it.

Our Grocery Department is growing in popularity all the time. We have an immense stock of all good things, including 500 dozen three-pound hand-packed, very best Tomatoes at 10c. per can, while they last; 6,000 pounds Tobacco, all the popular brands at 25c. per pound, same goods elsewhere at 35 to 50 cents. In the stock above referred to will be found the very best quality of General Merchandise, and as it has not yet arrived we cannot make definite quotation and explicit descriptions but we ask you to come and see. While others are crying hard times, we are busy. There is a reason, come and see.

One lot Ideal Bed Springs, best made, sold everywhere at $4.50, our price while they last $1.98.
