Rumor That Mayor White Would Run Proves to be a "Ho-ax".

It was stated in Monday's Robesonian that it was "rorted" about on the streets that Mayor White had finally yielded to the strong pressure that had been brought to bear on him and had decided to be a candidate for the office again, but that Mr. White had not authorized the paper to state that he was in the race. That created some excitement in local political circles and put some of the boys on their toes—and it develops that it was for that purpose alone that the report was circulated—just to have a little fun and to put some of the boys to guessing, which the same it did. There was nothing to it more than that. Mr. White says he has no idea of being in the race, so the situation remains the same, with only Messrs. W. O. Thompson and A. P. Caldwell in the race.

Messrs. S. H. Hamilton and H. C. Freeman have been mentioned for commissioners to succeed two of the three whose terms expire.

LUMBER BRIDGE SOCIAL.

Misses Shaw and Clifton Entertain—Miss Essie Shaw "at Home."

Lumber Bridge, April 16.—It was a merry crowd that gathered at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Shaw Friday evening, April 12, in response to the invitation of Misses Lena Shaw and Mabel Clifton. A wisteria-laden table held the punch bowl. Miss Essie Shaw served the delicious punch, which was only a foretaste of the good things to follow. Among the amusements of the evening, the game of hearts and mittens provoked much merriment. In a Shakespearean contest we found that we had many followers of Snakespear, for several tied in the race for the first prize, a delicious box of candy. Dainty refreshments were served by Misses Mary Coit Clifton and Glenn Bennett. Good night came all too soon and each one voted Misses Shaw and Clifton charming hostesses.

Miss Essie Shaw was "at home" Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in honor of Miss Nannie Jones of Sanford, who is attending the college at Red Springs, and Mrs. A. W. Snow of Jonesboro. The guests enjoyed a spirited contest in seeking their fortune in a game of "hunting for a man". In the race for first honor Misses Bivens and Pate tied and in the cutting Miss Bivens won the prize, a beautiful calendar, which she gracefully presented to Miss Jones. Then all were asked into the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms, to further seek their fortunes in the teacups. A most delightful three-course dinner was served by Misses Lena Shaw and Mabel Clifton. It was in every way a most enjoyable afternoon. Among those present were Misses Rachel Oliver, Sallie Pate, Janie Bivens, Gertrude Harts, Emma Currie and Mrs. Thos. Stamps.

Steps are being taken to drain and beautify the rather unsightly low and swampy place at the Seaboard station between the tracks and the brick building on Elm street, around and near the artesian well. This can be made a beautiful place with a little expenditure of money. It is understood that the Seaboard authorities have agreed to put in tiling, which is to be furnished by the town, and has also agreed to bear half the expense of putting down concrete steps to the artesian well at this place and a concrete basin around the well. Mr. Ira Mullis, civil engineer, has kindly offered to give his services in having this work done free of charge. The street and railroad committee of the civic association, with the president, Mrs. R. D. Caldwell, had this matter up yesterday afternoon with Mr. Mullis. It is understood that a majority of the town commissioners are in favor of paying for half the expense of making a park at this place and an effort will be made to get the railroad company to bear half the expense. It could be made a very pretty place indeed.

There are also some unsanitary and unlovely conditions at the station on the other side of the depot from the well, also at the Virginia & Carolina Southern depot, that the civic association will try to have improved in the near future.

Colonel Roosevelt will speak in Greensboro Monday afternoon of next week. He will arrive there from Asheville at 1:30 p. m. and his private car will be attached to Southern passenger train No. 32, north-bound, some time during the night.

Catawba county voted a $50,000 bond issue for good roads Monday.

Neglect of the Eyes.

The eye is the most delicate and most sensitive of our senses, yet the most neglected. Many headaches and nervous breakdowns come directly from muscular troubles of the eye. Properly fitted glasses relieve muscular strain, and the sooner applied, the better. Dr. Vineberg, the noted eye specialist, of Wilmington, N. C., has made the eye his life study and anyone who is troubled with their eyes would do well to consult Dr. Vineberg at his office in the Masonic temple building, Wilmington, N. C. Eyes tested free. ad.

Senator Overman's bill to appropriate $650,000 for the building of a customs house at Wilmington has passed the Senate and is now in the House. Mr. Overman succeeded in getting the sum for the Wilmington building increased from $300,000 to the new figures. Representative Godwin thinks that he will get the House to accept the Overman amount.
