Gunboat Ordered to Mexico to Protect American Interests.

Washington Dispatch, 21st.

Alarmed for the safety of American lives which are in jeopardy because of widespread lawlessness of Mexican rebels in Vera Cruz State and throughout Mexico, the State department again has called upon the navy to protect American interests in the republic.

Tonight the gunboat Wheeling is steaming from Tampa, Fla., for Vera Cruz, where Americans are said to face a graver crisis than that relieved by the Cruiser Des Moines during the Diaz uprising last October.

The request of the State Department to the navy came after the receipt of a long series of official reports from Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson and consuls in Southern Mexican cities all reflecting a condition of anarchy, especially in the State of Vera Cruz, where Federal authorities faced the problem of restoring civil order with a disorganized and divided army. Guerilla warfare, brigandage, sacking of ranches and villages and other desperate crimes place Americans and other foreign residents in a state of constant danger and the latest advices to the State Department express fear of an even worse outbreak.

Hoodlums Wreck Street Sprinkler.

As the result of the dastardly act of some of Lumberton's rowdies the town's street sprinkler is a complete wreck at the edge of the river, near the town hall. The sprinkler was standing on the edge of Water street near the town hall and sometime during the late hours Tuesday night some persons whose names have not been learned pushed it down the embankment of the river. Mr. Bert Edmund, who lives on the corner of Fourth and Water streets, says that he heard a noise Tuesday night about 1 o'clock in the direction where the wagon stood.

It looks like some people hate even the sight of a water wagon—they would not ride on one and don't even want to see one doing business.

A Large Real Estate Deal.

Quite a large real estate deal was consummated this week when Mr. C. M. Barker and the firm of Messrs. White & Gough purchased the Seth Smith place in Howellsville township. This tract of land contains about 2,000 acres and is about 9 miles from Lumberton, bordering on the Elizabeth road. The timber on this property was sold some years ago and has been cut off. The new owners have started to work improving and developing the property and it is expected that things will be taking on a new appearance in these parts in a very short while. A big public highway will be opened across the property and contract has already been let for clearing up 100 acres. It is understood that the consideration in this deal was about $12,000.

TURKEY YIELDS.

Will End Empire's History As European Nation—Allies Will Levy Heavy Payment—Will Be Some Weeks Before Treaty is Signed.

London Dispatch, 22d.
Plenipotentiaries of the Balkan kingdoms are immensely pleased over the decision of the grand council at Constantinople to accept the advice of the powers. While it had become increasingly certain in the past 48 hours that the Turkish elder statesmen were prepared to face the bitter fate that ends the empire's history as an European nation, it was hardly expected that they would register their decision so quickly and so definitely.

This is so unlike the customary Turkish way that it is thought Turkey might still have cards up her sleeve.

The Porte's reply to the joint note of the powers will be handed to the ambassadors tomorrow, however, and the remainder of the negotiations leading to the signing of the peace treaty, are expected to be an anticlimax.

One crucial point of difference remains to be settled in the question of indemnity. The Allies propose to levy a heavy payment upon the defeated nation. They speak of $200,000,000 as an adequate sum. Their minimum is an amount equal to the Turkish debts attached to the territories which they will annex under the treaty.

The Turks are likely to contest the indemnity strongly, and the bankrupt condition of their country furnishes them with a potent argument for an appeal to the powers. Negotiations over the settlement of minor questions and for the taking over the conquered provinces will occupy a considerable time and it will be some weeks before the treaty is signed.

SCHOOL BOARD HEARINGS.

Decisions of School Committee Debarring Children from School Reversed at Called Meeting of County Board of Education Yesterday.

A called meeting of the county board of education was held yesterday to hear two cases in regard to exclusion of children from Indian schools on the ground of negro blood and in both cases the board reversed committee and ordered that the children be admitted to the Indian schools of the county.

The school committee of district No. 1, Indian, Saddle Tree township, charged that Dovie Scott has negro blood in her veins and should be excluded from the schools, but the board after hearing all the evidence decided that she is a full-blood Indian and ordered that she be admitted to the Indian schools of the county.

The other case came from district No. 2, Indian, Thompson township, an appeal from an order of the committee of the district debarring the children of John Hammond from school. The committee were represented by the law firm of McIntyre, Lawrence & Proctor and the children of Hammond were represented by the firm of McLean, Varner & McLean. After hearing all the evidence and argument of counsel, the board found that the children of John Hammond are Indians and entitled to the privileges of the Indian schools of the county, the order of the committee debarring them from attendance at school was reversed and they were ordered to allow the children to attend the school.

WITH SOLONS AT RALEIGH.

Senate Votes Down Resolution to Invite Distinguished Speakers and Justice Wants to Put it Over Spite's—Simmons Re-elected to United States Senate—Torrens Bill Introduced—Other Important Bills.

The Senate Tuesday killed a resolution passed by the House Monday to invite President-elect Woodrow Wilson and Messrs. W. J. Bryan and R. M. LaFollette to address the General Assembly on modern legislative reforms with special reference to the Justice bill for the initiative and referendum.

Representative E. J. Justice, who introduced the resolution passed by the House to invite these men, got hot in the collar at the action of the Senate and said yesterday, when he tried to get the House to invite these men and let the Senate go hang, that he thought the Senate had acted very discourteously. The resolution was made a special order for this morning at 11:30 o'clock.

F. M. Simmons was for the third time elected by the General Assembly to represent the State in the United States Senate Tuesday, the two houses balloting separately and both giving the senior Senator an overwhelming majority. Every Democrat in both houses present and one Republican, Representative R. M. Burleson, of the newest county of Avery, voted for Senator Simmons, while the other fourteen Republicans and the two progressives in the House and the three Republicans in the Senate voted for Dr. Cyrus W. Thompson, the Republican caucus nominee. The two houses jointly yesterday confirmed the election of Senator Simmons.

A bill to provide the Torrens system of registering and guaranteeing land titles was introduced in the Senate Monday by Senator Daniel. This is the measure endorsed by the State Bar Association.

The Senate session yesterday was featured by prolonged debate on a bill to repeal the act of 1911 limiting the borrowing capacity of building the loan associations to 25 per cent of their assets. The bill went over to a future date for action.

Bills have been introduced in the House as follows: To enable counties to establish and maintain public hospitals, levy a tax and issue bonds therefor, elect hospital trustees maintain training schools for nurses, etc.; to provide for use of a Australian ballot system in general elections; to require better service from telegraph companies doing business in the State and to penalize delay in delivery of messages; to require railroads to maintain automatic gong signals at public crossings; to make it unlawful to keep for sale intoxicating liquors in North Carolina; to protect wage earners and employers from loan sharks; to regulate and restrict child labor in manufacturing establishments; to prevent use of firearms by children; to amend the law of 1905 relative to divorce.

Bills introduced in the Senate: To place solicitors on salary; to appropriate $75,000 to complete the new State building; to increase the number of superior court judges from 16 to 24; to require railroads to pull mileage on trains; to amend constitution so as to provide for the establishment of inferior courts.

The report of the special Senate and House Committees to investigate alleged extravagance of the Legislature estimates that the expenses of this session will be $18,630, a saving of $7,107 over the session of 1911, when the high-water mark of $25,727 was reached.

On additional House committees appointed this week McMillan of Robeson goes on committees on tions and propositions and grievances; McNair of Robeson goes on committees on banks and currency and finance.

Lawrence W. Young Adjutant General of North Carolina Guard.

Raleigh News and Observer, 21st.
Appointments were made yesterday by Governor Locke Craig, and commissions were issued to three officers in the North Carolina National Guard, as follows:

Adjutant General—Lawrence W. Young, of Asheboro.

Quartermaster General—L. B. Bristol, of Statesville.

Assistant Adjutant General—Gordon Smith, of Raleigh.

Adjutant General Young and Quartermaster General Bristol took office yesterday with the rank of brigadier general, and Assistant Adjutant General Smith with the rank of lieutenant colonel. General Young succeeds General Gordon Smith, who was appointed by Governor Kitchin on the death of Adjutant General R. L. Leinster, and General Bristol succeeds Gen. Francis A. Macon, of Henderson.

Raleigh News and Observer, 22nd: Several days ago two members of a well known Wake county family, Miss Sallie and Mr. Willis Whitaker, sister and brother, were seemingly in good health and were engaged in waiting upon and administering aid to another sister, Miss Annie Whitaker, who is critically ill. Yesterday morning both were found dead, the sister in her bed at home and her brother lying in a path about half way between the home and that of a neighbor. Both had died suddenly during the night and of presumably heart failure. The sister, who was so ill, is still living, but in a serious condition.

Ex-Governor W. W. Kitchin and ex-Judge James S. Manning have formed a partnership for the practice of law in Raleigh. They will open an office in Raleigh in the near future.

PARKTON PARAGRAPHS.

A Wedding Announcement and a Surprise Marriage—House Burned—Preparing Farm Lands Earlier Than Usual—Protracted Meeting.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Parkton, Jan. 20.—Just as we have been predicting the following announcement has been received: Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Marsh request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter Ethel Caroline and Mr. E. Bird Daniel, Wednesday evening, January twenty-second at eight o'clock, at their home, Parkton, N. C. Ceremony at half past seven o'clock.

On Sunday morning about 11 o'clock, just as Rev. Mr. Berryhill, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was about to begin preaching he was called to the manse to perform a surprise marriage ceremony. The contracting parties were Mr. Dudley Pittman of Artioch and Miss Ethel Cole of St. Pauls. Quite a good crowd assembled to witness the marriage. The ceremony was performed briefly and the happy young couple returned to St. Pauls accompanied by a few of their friends.

The first quarterly meeting of Parkton circuit was held in the Methodist church here Saturday morning. Rev. R. B. John, presiding elder, preached at 11 o'clock and the business of the quarterly was held immediately after the sermon.

Mr. Hugh McCall had the misfortune of getting a good tenant house burned on his farm one mile of town last Thursday. The house was occupied by a negro by the name of McKethan and he left the fire in a careless manner and of course burned the house with all the negro's possessions.

The Parkton band filled two engagements last week in Fayetteville on Tuesday and Reamon on Wednesday, and also a call for Bennettsville, S. C., for next Friday.

Fertilizers are being hauled rapidly from the station for the past few days to grow Irish potatoes.

People are preparing their farm lands earlier this year than ever.

Miss Mary Lou Culbreth left Friday for Asheville to accompany her sister, Miss Rachel, home, Miss Rachel having been in the hospital there for some months for treatment for rheumatism.

The protracted meeting is on at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. Hill of Red Springs doing the preaching.

SENATOR SIMMONS HAPPY.

Faces Opportunities Such as Have Been Given Few Carolinians.

Washington Cor., 21st, News and Observer.

Senator Simmons was a happy man today when he received a telegram from State Senator A. D. Watts announcing that the vote of every Democrat in the North Carolina Legislature had been cast for his return to the Senate after March 4.

The Senator said that at no time since the primary on election day had he had reason to believe that any friction would develop among the Democrats of the Legislature as to abiding by the decision of the primary. But he did not hesitate to announce his gratification that the time for voting had come and gone and that the vote of his party in the State Legislature had been unanimous for his return.

Senator Simmons was a happy man, as has been said—happy for the reason that with the return of the Democratic party into control of every branch of administration of the national government, he faces opportunities for full and responsible work such as have been given few North Carolinians in the history of the State. Senator Simmons will be chairman of the tariff committee when Congress meets in special session soon after the inauguration to redeem the tariff pledges which the country on election day authorized the Democratic party to fulfill.

The Senator was highly optimistic today as to the conditions among the Democrats in the Senate and as to their ability to perform the work of the next few months well. He said: "I have never, since I have been a member of Congress, seen such a fine sentiment of co-operation and patriotism among the two houses of Congress. Such a spirit augurs well for the performance of the work that lies ahead of the two bodies for the next administration."

"I feel well justified in predicting that the two houses will not differ in any application of principles when they meet this spring to redeem the pledges of the campaign. There is practical unity among the two Democratic majorities as to the important measures and doctrines upon which the party made its appeal to be entrusted with the administration of the peoples government. Differences may arise among the Democrats in each body and between the two bodies themselves as to details, but such differences if they do arise, will not involve any principle. The spirit now obtaining on both sides of the capitol forestalls this possibility. Such differences if they do arise will be adjusted quietly in conferences."

At the regular meeting of the Yale corporation Monday President Taft accepted the appointment of Kent professor of law at Yale. He will go to New Haven early in April and will deliver this spring some lectures of an optional character. The Kent professorship was established in 1801 and there have been only four incumbents of the chair—Chief Justice David D. Daggett of Connecticut, Clark Bissell and Henry Dutton, both Governors of Connecticut, and Edward J. Phelps, once American Minister to England.

FARMING FOR PROFIT.

A Discussion in Lumberton Saturday That Should Interest All Who Want to Make a Profit Farming—Demonstration Farms to be Operated in Robeson this Year.

All farmers interested in making a profit from their farms this year should come out and hear Mr. T. D. McLean, district agent of farm demonstration work, of Carthage, Saturday of this week in Lumberton at the court house at 11 o'clock a. m.

Mr. McLean is very familiar with the food requirements of plants and his discussion will be very instructive along the line of fertilizing and cultivating for the greatest profit.

If you are not farming with the best fertilizers to use on your different types of soil, and also the most economical amount to use per acre, you should hear him without fail. He will explain how this is done through the demonstration work he expects to carry out in this county this year. He will operate about 75 of these demonstration farms in Robeson county this year, and every farmer interested in making a real profit from his farm this year should come out to hear him and help him to decide on the best location for farms in order to have them properly distributed throughout the county.

Remember the date, January 25, at 11 o'clock at the court house.

FINE SHOWING IN HEALTH WORK.

Supt. Page Congratulated on the Fine Showing of Health Work for Robeson County—A Report That Means Much to the County and Also to the State.

The Robesonian has just received from Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, a copy of the following letter, which ought to be a source of gratification not only to Dr. Page but to every citizen of Robeson county:

"Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 22, 1913.

"Dr. B. W. Page,

"Supt. of Health,

"Lumberton, N. C.

"Dear Dr. Page: I appreciate very much your letter of January 20th and the fine showing in health work for Robeson county. The total of 990 deaths gives you a death rate of about 15 per thousand, or thence death rate. It will be interesting to note the death rate of Robeson under the vital statistics law, should it go through. I think your report is simply fine, it is all meat, an dyour last paragraph is convincing of its meaning. I shall certainly give it a place in the next month's Bulletin. Reports like that not only mean something to the county, but a great deal to the State of North Carolina, and speaking as a State official, especially interested in the health of the State, I want to express my very deep appreciation of your encouraging work.

"I am sending a copy of this letter to your county paper, The Robesonian, and Mr. Booker will use your report as a basis for one of his regular newspaper articles.

"With best wishes, I am

"Yours truly,

"W. S. RANKIN, Secretary."

Free Meat on Tariff Revision Programme.

Washington Dispatch, 21st.

"Free meat," proposed by the House Democrats at the last session of Congress, but blocked by a presidential veto, was indicated as part of the extra session of Congress tariff revision programme at the hearing before the House Committee on Ways and Means today. Members of the committee emphasized the majority sentiment in favor of free meat and a strong trend toward free cattle, in accordance with the general policy of the Democrats last year to add the necessities of life including free sugar and free lumber. Protest against putting cattle and meats upon the free list was voiced by S. H. Cowan of Fort Worth, Tex., as spokesman for the cattle industry west of the Mississippi river. Mr. Cowan said that such a plan if adopted, would mean a flood of cheaper meats from the South American ranches and pictured a ruin of the industry in Texas. He urged the committee to maintain a fair preferential duty on the American markets and said many importations of foreign cattle would come from Mexico and Canada and the Argentine.

Two New-County Fights.

Raleigh News and Observer, 21st.

At least two propositions for the creating of new counties will be before the present General Assembly. These are the proposed counties of Aycock with High Point county seat, and Jarvis, with Dunn county seat.

For the establishment of Aycock county, a bill was introduced in the House yesterday by Representative T. J. Gold, of Guilford. Aycock county as now proposed, would include its territory about one and a half townships of Guilford county, one township of Randolph and one-half township of Davidson. It would include the towns of High Point, Thomasville, Archdale, Trinity and Jamestown and an area of about 200 square miles.

The advocates of the new county say the population of the territory included is fully 20,000, the tax valuation $6,000,000 and that, on the basis of last election, it would be Democratic by 200 majority.

The proposed new county of Jarvis would make Dunn, the biggest town in Harnett county, the county seat and would take some territory from Johnston, Sampson and Cumberland counties, besides a good slice of Harnett.

Lettuce Worth $3,000 An Acre.

I saw, in Duluth, thirteen acres set out to head lettuce, on the farm of Mr. G. H. Hartley. In 1911 Mr. Hartley had a net income of more than $9,000 from three acres of lettuce, shipping to Chicago after the Duluth market was supplied, and the quality of his product caused such a sensation among lettuce-growers throughout the Middle West that some of the most successful of them, after visiting Duluth announced their intention of buying farms in the vicinity. Mr. Hartley's farm and the Jean Duluth farm, with 600 acres now cleared and stocked with 200 pure-bred Guernsey and Red-poll dairy cattle, Percheron horses, and Shetland ponies, are in a sense demonstration farms where the small farmer and market gardener have object lessons ever before them.—World's Work for February.

After all arrangements had been made for a battalion of South Carolina troops to attend the inauguration of President-elect Wilson, Governor Blease in a statement Monday announced he will not permit them to leave the State. He assigns several reasons, one of them being that he, as commander-in-chief, had not received an invitation and that he will not let them go unless an invitation is extended. Another reason was that Editor Gonzales, of the Columbia State, would have charge for South Carolina and would be likely to place Blease in an embarrassing position.
