For Burns, Bruises and Sores.
The quickest and surest cure for burns, bruises, boils, sores, inflammation and all skin diseases is Bucklen's Arnica Salve. In four days it cured L. H. Hafin, of Iredell, Tex., of a sore on his ankle which pained him so he could hardly walk. Should be in every house. Only 25c. Recommended by all dealers.

The funeral of J. Pierpont Morgan was held Monday in New York in St. George's Episcopal church, where he had worshipped for half a century. A special train afterward conveyed the funeral party to Hartford, Conn., for final services at the Morgan Mausoleum in Cedar Hill cemetery. The coffin was blanketed in 500 red roses as it left the library of the Morgan home. Among the floral tributes were orchids and palm leaves from the German Emperor and a gold maltese cross beneath palms from the French Republic.

Heed the Cough that Hangs On.
The seeds of consumption may be the cause, and a cough that hangs on weakens the system. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound checks the cough, heals the inflamed membranes and strengthens the lungs. E. D. Rountree, Stillmore, Ga., says: "Lagrippe left me a deep seated, hacking, painful cough which Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured." For sale by all dealers.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
Snow fell to a depth of three inches Monday at Caesar's Head Mountain in South Carolina, about 25 miles from Greenville, the first snow recorded in April in that section in 23 years.
Florida proposes to issue $50,000,000 in bonds for the purpose of covering the State with a network of good roads.

Richmond, Va., April 16—On the theory that the farmers of Dixie annually lose six billion dollars which they might receive for their crops under the proper systems of production and marketing, a great co-operative movement was launched here today at farmers' conference, the sixteenth educational meeting of its kind to be held in the South. In the two day program will appear two score authorities on agriculture, finance and general organization, many of them successful farmers themselves.

Pains in the Stomach.
If you continually complain of pains in the stomach, your liver or your kidneys are out of order. Neglect may lead to dropsy, kidney trouble, diabetes or Bright's disease. Thousands recommend Electric Bitters as the best stomach and kidney medicine made. H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C. who suffered with pain in the stomach and back, writes: "My kidneys were deranged and my liver did not work right. I suffered much, but Electric Bitters was recommended and I improved from the first dose. I now feel like a new man." It will improve you, too. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by all dealers.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Mrs. James D. Proctor Entertains in Honor of Mrs. J. D. Kernodle of Graham.
Reported for The Robesonian:
At her home in North Lumberton Wednesday afternoon, April 9, from four to 6, Mrs. James D. Proctor gave a most enjoyable reception in honor of her mother, Mrs. John D. Kernodle, of Graham. Beautiful flowers were artistically arranged about the home while an orchestra played throughout the afternoon. At the door the callers were welcomed by Mrs. Hugh M. McAllister and invited to the library, where the punch table had been tastefully placed, the punch bowl encircled with a wreath of roses and ferns, filled with delicious fruit punch, being in charge of Misses Jane Carlyle and Lillian Proctor. The guests were directed from here across the hall and presented to the receiving line, composed of the hostess, the honoree, and Mrs. Lizzie G. Proctor each handsomely gowned. After exchanging greetings and many "pleasantries," they were shown into the dining room by Mrs. R. H. Crichton. In the center of the round mahogany table was a handsome lace cover and vase of pink carnations encircled with a wreath of tiny rose buds. Misses Cammie McNeill and Leslie Proctor served a creamy ice-cream course, concluded with chocolates.
Many callers enjoyed Mrs. Proctor's hospitality, proving herself a most gracious and charming hostess.

An Ugly Weapon.
When boxers and fighters came together in the old days of Greece they wore upon their hands the cestus, which was in itself a terrible adjunct to any fighter. But there was sometimes attached to the cestus a deadlier weapon, consisting of a three pronged fork of bronze, known as the myrmex. Classical literature has frequent references to the myrmex, which is described as the deadliest weapon of the ancient pugilist. The right hand was swathed in tough hide, bound in place with thongs and supplemented by small knobs of lead or iron. This was the cestus, to which was affixed the myrmex. Combats in those days were much more brutal and dangerous than those of the modern prize ring. It is easily seen that a single blow of the myrmex might cause death or permanent injury.

Has Perfect Digestion From Use of A Well Known Remedy that All Can Obtain.
The temper of the family and the good cheer around the table, depend so much on the good digestion of each individual present that the experience of some former dyspeptics who overcame their trouble should be of interest to those now suffering in this way.
The best advice one can give—but it is advice that is seldom heeded—is to eat slowly and masticate each mouthful carefully. However, if slow eating and careful mastication fail the next aid is one close to nature, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This remedy is an excellent digestant, and in addition to helping in the digestion of the food, acts gently on the liver and bowels, ridding them of the accumulation of waste that should long have passed off. It is safe, reliable, pleasant tasting, and results are guaranteed.
In the opinion of such people as Mr. L. J. Quinn, 117 Newport Ave., Chicago, it is the ideal remedy for indigestion, no matter how severe, constipation no matter how chronic, biliousness, headaches, gas on stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances.
Mr. Quinn says: "We use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a family remedy and every member of the family from the five-year-old, who is the youngest of six children, to Mr. Quinn and myself, use it for stomach trouble, sick headache and to regulate the bowels."
You can obtain Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar, the latter size being bought by heads of families already familiar with its merits. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

When you use Syrup Pepsin you will see the fallacy of chewing mints and tablets or of taking cathartics, salts, pills and similar drastic medicines. Unlike these, Syrup Pepsin does not lose its good effect, and by automatically training the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work, soon restores these organs to normal.
If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington street, Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed to you.

When We Would All Be Missionaries.
A well known agnostic was present at one of Henry Ward Beecher's lectures, and after the address the man presented one of his daughters—a beautiful girl—to Mr. Beecher, saying, "Mr. Beecher, here is a girl who, according to your ideas, is a heathen."
"Well, my dear," said Mr. Beecher, "if all heathens were as pretty as you are we would all become missionaries."
—Ladies' Home Journal.

Fire in the heart of the business district of Columbia, S. C., Tuesday caused damage estimated at $200,000. The Columbia hotel which had been closed for repairs was practically destroyed with all its furnishings.
