

COMMENT

THE POINT OF VIEW.

Thus the Monroe Enquirer:
 "The following plaintive story is from the Lumberton Robesonian:
 "A young man who lived in the country, on a farm, up until two or three years ago, since which time he has been holding down an office job in town, remarked the other day that he used to think that town people didn't have anything in the world to do but hang around, stay dressed up and have a good time. But he says he has changed his mind and that he has learned a lot since then. This young man now often grows weary of office work, weary in a weariness which he never knew 'down on the farm,' and sometimes he gazes wistfully out of his office window and thinks how free and easy life was on the farm compared to the ceaseless toil of the dweller in towns.
 "Well, what's the matter. If the young man holding down an office job is so 'wearily tired' of his job and of city life in a small town, why don't he do like the country boy who gets tired of his job, quit it and go to another one? That boy who complains of being tired of his city job can never turn his face so that he will not be facing in the direction of the country he longs for somewhere out in that beloved country is a hoe, a plow and a faithful old mule to welcome his coming. But he will not go back there, not a bit of it, but will continue to furnish copy for the papers about how irksome town life is and how pleasant it is in the country. Bud, if town life is so tough, get back to the tall timber and quit shooting off your mouth about it."
 That's all right, too, but the point is that the young man from the country learns that it isn't all ice-cream and cake and a shady place and fresh laundered linen and clean hands and light jobs in town; and by the same token the town man who rushes off to the farm under the fond delusion that it is all free and easy work-when-you-feel-like in the country has got a rude awakening coming to him.

Editor Convicted of Libel.

W. O. Saunders, editor of The Independent and The Down Homer, two publications at Elizabeth City, was convicted of criminal libel the other day, and was sentenced by Judge R. D. Turner to six months on the county chingang. The defendant's attorneys served notice of appeal and bail was given for Mr. Saunders' appearance at the September term of Superior Court, when the case will be tried again.
 The trial is the result of an article that was published in The Independent several weeks ago making statements concerning E. F. Aydtlett which Mr. Aydtlett alleges are libelous and defamatory. He made demands upon The Independent to retract these statements. Mr. Saunders refused to do so and challenged Mr. Aydtlett to have him arrested.
 Friday Mr Aydtlett swore out a warrant against Mr. Saunders, charging him with criminal libel and it was served by Chief of Police Thomas. Mr. Aydtlett was the only witness that appeared in the trial. He was on the stand for several hours. Attorney H. S. Ward and ex-Judge J. B. Leigh prosecuted for the State and attorneys I. M. Meekins and W. L. Cohon defended Mr. Saunders.

California's Alien Land Bill Becomes Law.

Sacramento, Cal., Dispatch, 19th.
 California's alien land bill became the law of the State today. Against protests of Japan and representations of President Wilson and his personal envoy, Secretary of State Bryan, Governor Johnson signed the bill and 90 days after the adjournment of the Legislature, or on August 10 the act becomes operative.
 While the Governor was signing the bill the steamship Korea was passing in through the Golden Gate bearing two distinguished Japanese. One a former pupil of President Wilson's on a mission of investigation.
 Meanwhile complications, National and sectional, beset the bill. Over-shadowing all is the outcome of the negotiations now in progress between this country and Japan, which has interpreted the act as discriminatory and offensive.

 Were half the wealth bestowed on camps and courts,
 Given to redeem the human mind from error,
 There were no need of arsenal or forts.

CLAN McQUEEN ASSOCIATION

Meeting to Effect Permanent Organization to be Held in Maxton June 4—Organization Gotten up by Descendants of Col. James McQueen—Homes and Free Entertainment Will be Provided for Visiting Clansmen from a Distance—A Memorable Occasion on Which All Clansmen will Want to be Present.

Mention has been made in The Robesonian of a meeting of the Clan MacQueen Association which will be held in Maxton June 4. The following letter which is being sent to Clansmen All Over, and program fully explain all the details of what promises to be a memorable occasion.

Dear Clansmen: You and your family are cordially invited and most earnestly urged to attend a meeting at Maxton, North Carolina, on Wednesday, June 4, 1913, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization of the Clan MacQueen Association, and for the purpose of becoming mutually acquainted with one another.

A reception will be given the visiting Clansmen by the local members of the Clan and friends in and near Maxton, on Tuesday night, June 3, and all the Clansmen from a distance as well as all others, who can come from their homes by private conveyance are invited to this reception.

Upon the arrival Tuesday morning, June 3, of Clansmen from a distance, homes will be assigned and free entertainment will be provided for. After dinner on Tuesday, an automobile ride will be given visiting clansmen, and an opportunity given to see Queensdale and the old Stewartville cemetery.

On Wednesday morning, June 4, at ten o'clock, the first meeting will be held and a permanent organization effected, at which time several addresses will be made and some music will be rendered, after which dinner will be served, furnished by the clansmen at Maxton and vicinity, and others who may be near enough to help in this part of the entertainment; and while dinner is being served an excellent opportunity will be afforded for becoming acquainted. After dinner another brief session will be held, farewells will be said, and the Clan will disperse.

You and your family are most cordially invited and expected to attend and assist in making this initial meeting a great success; one worthy of the splendid record of our distinguished ancestors in whose honorable and ancient name our clan is to meet, and it is evident that to secure this success your presence and co-operation are both necessary.

The members of the Clan at Maxton and vicinity and other friends have most cordially invited us to meet with them, and they will spare no pains to make the occasion a great one to all who will attend, and a good time, with a most cordial SCOTCH welcome is assured! Your hospitality is proverbial and you will miss the time of your life if you fail to attend.

Homes and free entertainment will be provided all Clansmen who come from a distance, and who cannot come by private conveyance from their own homes. There will also be ample room for all these, inasmuch as there are several hundred members of the Clan living nearby. It would, of course, be impossible to find lodging places for all of these, but there need be no fear but that plenty of homes and the most royal welcome will be extended to everyone. There is no limitation to the hospitality of the Maxton Clansmen, and they only regret that there is a limitation to their lodging rooms; otherwise, every member, near as well as far, would be invited not only to come and eat with them and commune with one another, but lodge there as well.

A few of the kinsfolk met on December 11, 1912, and planned this organization, and afterwards, to-wit, on the night of April 7, 1913, quite a number of the kinsfolk met at the residence of Hon. A. J. McKinnon, in Maxton, N. C., and elected officers for the temporary organization, as follows:

- Chief—Mr. H. C. MacQueen, Wilmington, N. C.
- Honorary Chief—Dr. A. A. McQueen, Milford, Texas.
- Honorary Chief—Mr. Edmund MacQueen, Dunbar, S. C.
- Chieftain—Mr. James W. McQueen, Birmingham, Ala.
- Chieftain—Rev. Stewart MacQueen, Montgomery, Ala.
- Chieftain—Mr. Edmund L. Moore, Dillon, S. C.
- Chieftain—Hon. A. W. McLean, Lumberton, N. C.
- Chieftain—Hon. A. J. MacKinnon, Maxton, N. C.
- Chieftain—Mr. Robert M. MacQueen, Raeford, N. C.
- Chieftain—Rev. William Black, Charlotte, N. C.
- Historian—Mrs. Bella MacElyea, Maxton, N. C.
- Secretary—Mr. J. Plummer Wiggins, Maxton, N. C.

- Honorary Secretary—Mrs. Chattie McEachin Beall, Washington, D. C.
- Honorary Secretary—Mrs. Almema MacQueen George, Albany, Texas.
- Enrolling Secretary—Miss Sallie Lou MacKinnon, Maxton, N. C.
- Treasurer—Mr. Roy MacQueen Martin, Maxton, N. C.
- Keeper of Records and Seal—Miss Katie MacLean, Laurinburg, N. C.
- Keeper of Records and Seal—Miss Agnes MacLean, Lumberton, N. C.
- Chaplain—Rev. A. R. MacQueen, Dunn, N. C.

These officers have planned for and will call this organization together, and will act until the permanent organization is effected, and from now on until then they expect the hearty co-operation of every one of you, and success is assured.

This organization of the Clan MacQueen has been gotten up entirely by the descendants of Col. James MacQueen of Queensdale, N. C., and has planned for this meeting all of his descendants, but we also cordially invite other families of MacQueens or descendants of ancestors other than Col. James MacQueen aforesaid, to send one representative from each family to this meeting, and to such delegates or representatives, all the courtesies and privileges of the Association will be accorded.

Let everyone intending to be present notify Miss Sallie Lou MacKinnon, Recording Secretary, Maxton, N. C., when you will arrive and on what train to expect you, and also give the names of every member of your family, written plainly, and indicate clearly which of them will attend.

Trusting it will be so you can attend, and holding ourselves in readiness to give you such further information as you may wish, and with best wishes for you and your loved ones, and for a happy meeting of our Clan, we are,

Most cordially and sincerely yours,
 HENRY C. MacQUEEN, Chief.
 J. PLUMMER WIGGINS, Secretary.

HOW TO RESIST

Chronic Coughs and Colds.

Strong, vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your strength again?

Mrs. Olivia Parham, of East Durham, N. C., says: "I took Vinol for a chronic cough which had lasted two years, and the cough not only disappeared, but it built up my strength as well."

The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood-building iron added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.

You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say. Dr. J. D. McMillan & Son, Druggist, Lumberton, N. C.

Constipation Cured.

Dr. King's New Life Pills will relieve constipation promptly and get your bowels in a healthy condition again. John Supsic, of Sanbury, Pa., says they are the best pills I ever used, and I advise everyone to use them for constipation, indigestion and liver complaint. Will help you. Price 25c. Recommended by all dealers.
