EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experice with an organism unfitted for the of strength, and when it is over system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following ight upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confibe opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

COMMENT

"ALREADY, YES."

The Wilmington Dispatch comments as follows on The Robesonian's recent remarks under the caption "The Next Governor."

"It seems to be the established rule or the normal mental State that no sooner does one political campaign cease than another starts; as soon as a man lands a position, even though the tenture is for four or six years, agitation, or shall we call it advocacy (?) starts over his successor. For that reason there is already talk of who will be the next Governor of North Carolina, being the Democratic nominee, of course. In this particular case, however, it is peculiarly so that the incumbent does not have to worry, as but one term is allotted to a man as Governor of North Carolina,, and while the State has not always profited thereby, yet such has likely eliminated a lot of wire-pulling and, perhaps, discord at times. There are many South Carolinians who, no doubt, of the opinion that they would have been happier and their State better off had the single term for Governor held forth in South Carolina.

"But back to the question at bar: There is already agitation over who will be North Carolina's next Governor, and the name of Hon. A. W. McLean, of Lumberton, is to the front His friends or some of them, have virtually thrown his hat into the ring. Under the caption "The Next Governor," the Lumberton Robesonian gives the McLean boom a "boost," and, besides setting forth some of his claims, declares that the "'State of Robeson' deserves recognition in a State office." dential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will This is particularly interesting as it will naturally be argued that the next Democratic Governor should come from the Eastern part of the State. McLean has been prominent before the people of the State for some time. He was a big Wilson advocate and a delegate-at-large to the Baltimore convention, and he was a big Simmons leader in the warm, in fact, very hot Senatorial fight last summer and fall.

"The names of Attorney General Bickett and former Lieutenant Governor Newland are still being mentioned for Governor, and, to be sure, there will be others."

ANOTHER TRAIN TO WILMING-TON.

The Rutherfordton Sun wants Wilmington, Lumberton, Maxton, Laurinburg and other points along this line to join with it in petitioning the Seaboard Air Line to make some changes and put on an additional train. Explaining what it wants, The Sun says:

"There is a train that leaves Rutherfordton at 7 a. m., known as No. 34, and runs through Raleigh without change, arriving at Hamlet at about 1 p. m. and Raleigh about 4:30 p. m. The corresponding train, known as No: 31, leaves Raleigh about 7 a. m., arrives at Hamlet about 11:30 a. m., and runs through to Rutherfordton without change, arriving here at 6:20 p. m. The first amendment we offer is, that No. 31 leave Raleigh one hour later and arrive at Hamlet at 12:30 p. m., and we have no doubt that the Clinchfield can easily make its northbound train, with which No. 31 connects at Bostic, one hour later and thus make that connection there. The second amendment is, that a train be put on to leave Hamlet about 1:20 p. m. for Wilmington, connecting with the trains from Raleigh and Rutherfordton, running to Wilmington by 5:20 p. m., and the other leaving Wilmington at 8 a. m., and arriving at Hamlet at 12, noon, connecting with No. 31 for Charlotte and this place."

The changes The Sun indicates, especially the additional trains to and from Wilmington, would certainly add greatly to the convenience of the traveling public.

Bringing this matter of freight rate discrimination home, here is how it hits the farmers in the matter of cotton ties, as told in The News and Observer:

"The rate on cotton ties in carload lots from Pittsburg, Pa., to Lumberton, N. C., is 401-2 cents per hundred pounds.

The rate to Richmond, Va., is 20 cents per hundred pounds for a distance of about 500 miles, for the additional distance of about 300 miles the rate is 201-2 cents higher.

On the same shipments moving to Atlanta, Ga., 38 1-2 cents; Charleston, S. C., 29 cents, and Savannah, Ga., 32

This illustration shows that our towns are not only discrimiated against in favor of Virginia cities but in favor of towns in other Southern

FRANK PRIVILEGES AIDED SU-GAR LOBBY.

Government Printing Office and Post Office Department Helped in Fight Against Free Sugar.

Washington Dispatch, 12th.

How the Government printing office and the Post Office Department helped in 'the fight against free sugar through the use of Congressional franks for sending anti-free sugar 'literature" circulating throughout the land was brought out today by the Senate lobby investigators. Truman G. Palmer, Washington, representative of the United States beet sugar industry, on the stand the entire day, and the object of sweeping cross-examination, testified that more than 1,500,000 copies of arguments in behalf of beet sugar had been turned out by the Government Printing Office, made public documents by order of Congress and had ridden on the franks of Senators and Representatives to the ends of the country, postage free. "Sugar at a Glance" prepared by him, he said, had attained a circulation of 320,000 copies under the frank of Senator Lodge. "Report of the Finance Committee," by the same Senator, had beaten the pamphlet by 80,000 copies. The franks of Senator Smoot, former Senators Cartis and Dick and the late Representative Malby, former Representative Pickett and Representative Martin had swelled the total to more than a million and a half. The printing of some of these numbers had been paid for by the beet sugar people, the witness said, but the free postage had saved them about $28,-000. Mr. Palmer developed that "Sugar at a Second Glance" which he intimated was inspired by the Federal Sugar Refining Company and which was an argument in behalf of free sugar had also been printed as a public document and had circulated under the franking privilege. He did not say nor did the committee ask why the frank was so used. Big Sums Spent,

Mr. Palmer said the beet men had spent about $160,000 in their campaign against free sugar since 1902. About $50,000 had been used since last November and about $14,000 of that amount since the beginning of the present session of Congress. Much of it had been spent in "publicity work," in printing, salaries and a good-sized sum in motion pictures. He said that the beet producers in his association were assessed about five cents a ton, he thought. The last assessment was made in April bringing in about $18,000 and the previous one in February about $17,000.
