Robert T. Baker, a freight conductor of the Southern Railway, whose home is in Washington, identified the body of Mrs. George S. Nance, who was killed by her husband in the Seaboard hotel at Hamlet Friday night, as that of his sister-in-law. Mr. Baker took charge of the body and left Sunday night with it for Knoxville, Tenn., where the funeral was held. A dispatch from Rockingham, where George S. Nance is confined in jail, states that he does not seem to realize his crime. His brother Chas. T. Nance, an employe in the Navy Department at Washington, says that the prisoner has shown signs of mental unbalance since he suffered a nervous breakdown four years ago.

Annual Meeting of Woman's Missionary Union of the Robeson Association.

Reported for The Robesonian. The Woman's Missionary Union of the Robeson Association held its annual meeting with the church at Red Springs on July 16th and 17th. The attendance was very good although quite a number of societies were not represented.

Our meetings have always been held in October, but it was thought best last year to make a change, in the hope that more young people could attend, and the season be more favorable for house-keepers. The change did not result in any improved conditions, so that hereafter meetings will be held in October, as before.

Red Springs was cordial in its welcome to the visitors, and we were made to feel at home by the many kindnesses shown.

The vice-president, Mrs. R. D. Caldwell, very ably conducted the meetings, taking up the business of the association in the mornings. The subject of tithing was very forcibly presented by an earnest worker. A number of women gave their personal experience along this line. "Special Needs of Our Society," "Personal Service," and "Plan for Development" were subjects for general discussion, and this proved to be very helpful.

On Wednesday night the Y. W. A.'s of Red Springs presented, in a play, the need of missionary endeavor. Following this Rev. C. H. Durham gave an address on the Judson Centennial. It was an appeal straight to the heart of every child.

On Thursday morning another feast was enjoyed. Rev. L. Johnson came, as always, with a cheerful face, and heart overflowing with love for his task. His address was illustrated with views of the churches which the women and children have helped to build.

The Sunbeam conference, led by Mrs. Hedgpeth, was held on Thursday afternoon. The regret at this time was that so few Sunbeam leaders were present. Very interesting exercises were given by the bands from Ashpole and Red Springs, also by a class of girls from Union chapel.

The following officers were re-elected: Vice-president, Mrs. R. D. Caldwell; secretary, Mrs. H. T. Pope; band superintendent, Mrs. I. P. Hedgpeth. Miss Belle Tyner, who has worked in the capacity of associational missionary for a part of the year, resigned. Miss Mary Livermore of Red Springs was appointed to fill this position.

In a financial way the societies have done well. Owing to the change of the time of meeting, a report was made for only three quarters, yet many societies reached the proportionate aim. A statement of finances will not here be given, but in the minutes of the general association a report for the entire year will be given.

The meeting was a very helpful one, from the fact that those who did attend were thoroughly in earnest, and that our sisters are beginning to realize that the meeting is theirs, and not the leaders only.

A pleasing feature of our gathering was an informal reception given by Miss Livermore at her home. A rising vote of thanks was tendered the church and people of Red Springs for their kind hospitality. Everything that could be, was done for our pleasure and comfort.

The next meeting will be held with the church at St. Paul's the third week in October, 1914.

Bellamy Probably Will Be in Race for Governor.

Following the publication in yesterday's Star of the dispatch from Raleigh stating that the name of Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington, have been mentioned in connection with the gubernatorial contest, when the time comes, Mr. Bellamy gave out a statement yesterday in which he said that he could not say positively that he would be in the race, but that he most likely would be. Many strong friends from all parts of the State have urged him to become a candidate and it has been known for several months that he has given serious consideration to the matter. Mr. Bellamy has served this district in Congress and is one of the leading lawyers of the State. He has a strong political following and will doubtless make a fine race for Governor in the event he decides to enter the contest. Following the usual custom the next Governor will come from the eastern part of the State.

THE FINAL SUMMONS.

Mrs. Susan Elizabeth McCormick. Fairmont Messenger, 14th.

After a lingering illness of several months Mrs. Susan Elizabeth McCormick died August 10. She leaves a husband, Mr. Vander McCormick, and several children to mourn her loss. She was about 57 years of age and had been a member of Iona Presbyterian church for a number of years.

Mr. J. P. Thompson, of Douglas, Ga.—Former Robesonian.

Fairmont Messenger, 14th. Mr. J. P. Thompson, a former resident of this county and a nephew of Mrs. Rose A. Pittman, Fairmont, died at Douglas, Ga., last Friday at the age of 73 years. The remains were brought to Fairmont last Friday accompanied by his nephew, Mr. John Barnes. The funeral was preached at Trinity M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. S. T. Moyle, last Sunday morning and the body was interred in the Ashley cemetery.

Mr. Thompson was born and raised in Robeson county and moved to Georgia some years ago. All of his immediate family are dead except one sister, Mrs. Charity Barnes, who also resides at Douglas.

A well baby should have at least one tub bath every day. The water for an ordinary bath should be about body temperature. Use a thermometer, don't depend on the hand to determine the temperature. On very warm days a baby may be sponged two or three times with luke-warm water in which salt is dissolved in the proportion of teaspoonful to each pint; or a little alcohol (not wood alcohol) may be used instead of the salt. Always give the bath before feeding, never immediately after. Use special care to cleanse the body creases, especially after bowels. Dry thoroughly and if Talcum powder be used, use only the best unscented.

Don't let your baby crawl on a dirty floor. Wash its hands after creeping. To prevent typhoid costs a few cents; to cure it costs many dollars.

The September Woman's Home Companion.

The September Woman's Home Companion is an advance Autumn Fashion Number. There is an unusual display of short stories, special articles, regular departments and art features, but, in addition, the Fashion Department under the direction of Grace Margaret Gould, fashion editor, is enlarged to twenty pages, and includes a tremendous variety of facts and ideas about dress, which will be particularly useful to women at this season of the year.

The Companion's fashion policy is interesting and sensible. The idea is to present all the latest facts about fashions—but when it comes to making suggestions and preparing patterns for American women the extremes and the foolish novelties are disregarded and a "middle of the road course" is taken. In other words women are shown how they can dress fashionably, and yet modestly and economically. Miss Gould is opposed to the eccentric and startling in fashions, and, with great ability, succeeds in being practical, reasonable, and, at the same time, artistic.

In the same issue of the Woman's Home Companion the campaign for better babies is carried forward with great vigor. Hundreds of baby shows of the new sort are being held all over the United States this summer and autumn. At these Better Babies contests babies are judged on a score card precisely as livestock is scored, according to strict, scientific standards. By means of these score cards thousands of apparently perfect babies have been found to have some defect, easily remedied, and of real importance, that might not have been discovered until serious harm had resulted.

Three Men Wounded in Attempt to Lynch Negro.

Spartanburg, S. C., Dispatch, 18th. Three men, Frank Epley, J. C. Owenby and John Turner were seriously wounded tonight when a mob stormed the county jail in an effort to lynch Will Fair, a negro prisoner, charged with assaulting a young white woman near here today. Sheriff White, and a deputy, facing the mob alone, repeatedly drove them back with pistol shots when they advanced with battering arms.

Members of the mob finally returned the fire and in the darkness the three men were struck. They were not fatally wounded but were taken to a hospital for attention.

The young woman was assaulted in a lonely farm house this morning in the absence of her husband.

WITHIN THE STATE.

Brief News Items From All Parts of North Carolina.

According to a Washington dispatch, it is pretty well settled that collector Keith of Wilmington will be allowed to serve out his commission, which expires some time in 1915. This opinion was expressed by Representative Godwin when asked as to the status of the Keith case.

A postal clerk of Wilmington has protested to Representative Godwin against the custom of the Postoffice Department of appointing negro mail clerks over white men on the run between Wilmington and Norfolk. It is said that the service has been demoralized on account of the presence of these ebony hued gentry in mail cars, and Godwin is asked to take some action in the matter. Mr. Godwin will have the matter brought to the attention of the Postmaster General.
