Founder of George Junior Republic Removed.

New York Dispatch, 18th.
Removal of William R. George from active participation in the affairs of George Junior Republic at Freeville, N. Y., founded by him more than ten years ago is recommended by the State board of charities in a report adopted by the board yesterday afternoon and made public today. George's moral conduct is severely condemned.

An investigation begun more than six months ago resulted in the recommendation. More than fifty witnesses in six states were examined with regard to charges of loose living made against George by three young women, former members of the republic. The oldest of these charges dated back to 1904. The most recent was several years old. The testimony was unprintable and no verdict as to whether the charges were proved was rendered by the committee under whose direction the investigation was made.

A VISIT TO CHARLESTON

Some Interesting Observations About the Historic Old City—A Native of Robeson Who is Making Good There.

To the Editor of The Robesonian:
The writer took a few days off a short time since and visited the old and historic city of Charleston, S. C.; and these notes are simply given as a slight sketch of a city that was once prominent in the eyes of the world.

Fort Sumpter, that little fort that brought on all our woes and troubles, lies now unknown and unnoticed in the entrance of the harbor. The firing on the fort by the Confederates raised a furor in the North. Up to that time, there had been, outside of the radical newspapers, comparatively little interest concerning Lincoln's doings. He forced the issue by letting Davis start the ball. He did it shrewdly and premeditatedly. Davis, we suppose was carried away by the force of the hot headed secessionists, who crowded to Charleston from all parts of the South.

"Find out what your enemy wants you to do and then don't do it," is an old military adage that our government overlooked. Had Davis permitted Lincoln to fire the first shot, then the hue and cry raised by Lincoln about "firing on the flag," would have never been.

Lincoln was a shrewd old coon. He had great tact, and himself was the best general in the North.

The beautiful Isle of Palms was visited, also Sullivan's Ile, which is now a government station, and which was used during the war as a prison, when 400 Confederates were daily exposed to the shells of the Yankees, and from which hell only 25 survived the ordeal. (Excuse this rambling narrative, for when we start on such things we don't know when to stop.)

Charleston is certainly a place of absorbing interest. Her people keep true to their Southern heritage. Here character, morality and worth are superior to the Northern influx of money, bags and her old families are impervious to the gilt and tinsel of money, unless accompanied by worth and virtue. When a boy we remember reading in the old Fayetteville Observer (and I wish it could be reproduced) an account of M'Alpin's visit to Charleston, said to have been written by the late Judge French. It was a most amusing account of a Mr. McAlpin's, of Robeson first visit to Charleston. Probably some of your older citizens remember. As this was not the writer's first visit, he must not be compared to McAlpin. Charleston has a great many places of interest, and among these are her many hospitals and sanatoriums. A Robeson county boy, raised under the regime of the Lowrey gang, when life and property were unsafe in that section is now the proprietor of one of the finest sanatoriums in the city. Nothing but the unyielding integrity and honesty of the father and the progress and helpfulness of the mother could have raised up and educated a family of boys and girls, and to send them out to do the world's work. One of the results of such training in the Baker Sanatorium and surgical hospital owned and conducted by Dr. A. McE. Baker, one of Charleston's foremost surgeons. What an instructive and interesting biography could such a life afford! To a friend enquiring as to what he most admired in Baker's sanatorium, the reply was the executive ability that planned and controlled the plant, and the womanly wife that had the other end of the stick. He is a product of North Carolina and she the product of South Carolina, one being the complement of the other.

Alexander Should Resign.

Monroe Enquirer.
It is up to Mr. J. L. Alexander of Asheville to resign as a member of Governor Craig's staff. Alexander was appointed a member of the Governor's staff in good faith, the Governor not knowing that the Asheville citizen on his staff was keeping large quantities of liquor for sale, but at the liquor selling investigation held in Asheville recently, Alexander a big hotel man and a member of the Governor's staff was one of the number caught in the net and who had to come across with a fine for violating the prohibition law. Alexander to relieve Governor Craig's embarrassment should resign and if he does not resign he deserves to be called down.

DANGER AFTER GRIPPE

Lies in Poor Blood, Cough and Worn-Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia are greatly to be feared at this season. To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system. Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly. W. W. Lake of Aberdeen, Miss., says: Grippe left me weak, run-down and with a severe cough from which I suffered for a long time. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone and I am strong and well again. Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money.

BARNESVILLE NEWS BATCH.

Public Debate—Christmas Exercises and Tree at Baptist Church—Social.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Barnesville, Dec. 19.—Rev. M. A. Stephens filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday.

We are glad to see our girls who have been away at school return home for Christmas. They make our little town brighter.

The Barnesville band filled an engagement with P. A. Hodges and Watson of Columbia, S. C., at Pages Mill Saturday, 13th.

The public debate here Friday night was good. We are proud of the work being done this school year. We have a competent set of teachers and they are using their talents.

The Christmas exercises and tree of the Baptist church will be given Christmas Eve at 7 o'clock. We hope to entertain a large crowd with an interesting exercise. All have a cordial invitation.

We are sorry to report the condition of Mr. B. S. Yates unimproved. He is seriously ill.

Mr. Will Barnes is moving here again. He will occupy the house formerly occupied by Mr. E. T. Lewis. We welcome the new comers.

Miss Martie Walters and nephew Jeotha Floyd, have been spending a few days in Wilmington with the brother of the latter, Mr. W. O. Floyd.

How are you going to spend Christmas? Would you spend it as your Master would have you do it? If so, do not stoop low enough to touch strong drink. It is a shame to celebrate the birth of the Saviour of the world under the influence of strong drink, and God is not pleased with it.

A FRIEND TO THE WORKING MAN

Five years ago I was so troubled with kidney trouble and inflammation of the bladder that I had to leave working my farm. Life looked dark to me until I heard of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root through a cured friend. I tried a bottle and began to feel better at once. After using five or six bottles I felt fine and have continued to work as I had before my affliction. I want to state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a kidney medicine that will cure and I owe my good work during the past five or six years to it.
Yours very truly,
C. W. MORRIS,

Contest Over Trusteeship of Central Hospital for Insane.

Raleigh Special, 18th, to Charlotte Observer.

It develops that there is to be a contest after all for membership on the Board of Trustees of the Central Hospital for Insane here between R. H. Salisbury of Martin County and A. B. Croom of Burgaw, Mr. Salisbury being an appointee of Governor Kitchin and Mr. Croom of Governor Craig to the same place. Mr. Croom has the advantage of having a Senate confirmation of the appointment he holds from Governor Craig.

It was thought last May that Mr. Salisbury had given up his fight, but he presented himself at the annual meeting of Directors, just held and demanded recognition, which was refused. Superintendent Anderson also declined to sign his voucher for $9.50 per diem and expenses.

Mr. Salisbury claims his commission from Governor Kitchin to succeed Dr. John D. Briggs was for the unexpired term extending to 1917.

Governor Craig when he succeeded Governor Kitchin exercised the right of appointing another on the ground that Mr. Kitchin's appointment could only hold until the next Legislature. Indications are that a suit will be started to test the matter in the courts at once.
