School Wide Awake and Good Work Being Done—Determined to Have Farm Life School—New Books for Library—Installing Lights—Personal.

(The following letter was delayed in transmission. Instead of reaching The Robesonian the first of last week, as it should have done, according to the date it was written, it was not received until Saturday of last week, February 7—Editor.)

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Red Springs, R. F. D. 1, Jan. 31—The school is wide awake now and the students are doing good work. They're right down hard at work. How can they do otherwise when they are in the new building? They were packed and cramped in the dormitory so long until now they feel like birds out of a cage.

The Duropan and Athenian Literary Societies are both doing fine. New officers has been elected for the spring term, and everything is bright for great work from these societies. They are training the boys and girls in debating, reading and everything that it takes nowadays to make an intelligent boy and girl. For boys and girls of today will be men and women of tomorrow. The boys of the Duropan are planning to give a public debate some time this spring and the girls of the Athenian are preparing for a play in a short while.

The farm-life school must come to Philadelphia. Several of the patrons of the school met in the school building Thursday night to discuss and see what could be done for the farm life school. The required land necessary for the school was secured for the school. It will come, watch!

On Friday evening, Jan. 30th, several young ladies of the Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music of Red Springs gave a concert in the auditorium.

Programme. Viols—Meto Perfectuo... Bohm. Duet—Overture des Marionettes—Garlitt.—Misses Allison Pearsall and Annie Johnson.

Reading—As the Moon Rose—P. Phelps.—Miss Frances Davidson. Solo—Schou Rosmarin—Kreiser—Miss Louise Dixon.

Quartette—(a) minuet in G—Bethoven—(b) Hungarian Dance No. 6—Brahms.

Reading—(a) The Raggedy Man, (b) Boys Bear Story—J. Whitcome Riley—Miss Brances Davidson.

Solo—Sylvia—Pizzicato—Delibes. Miss Annie Johnson. Duet—Salub d'Amour—Elgar—Misses Dickson Vardell and Louise Dixon.

Quartette—National Airs—Arr. by Harris—(unaccompanied.)

Reading—(a) Uncle Remus at the Telephone—J. Chandler Harris. (b) Return of the Hoe—Drake's Magazine.—Miss Francis Davidson.

Quartette—March Militaire—F. Schubert—Accompanist: Miss Margaret Dixon, Miss Frances Davidson.

The concert was good. The ladies rendered their parts well. Quite a little sum was realized and it will go toward helping get a few things needed to complete the furnishing of the dormitory.

The new books have been numbered and arranged in the library. These books will be very beneficial to the boys in working up their debates. About half of the old books were burned last year, so all the surplus money we have now will be used to get new books.

Men were here Thursday installing the lights in the school building. The plant and fixtures have been here some time and the lights were already in the dormitory but had not been put in the building.

Since Christmas we have several new music pupils. The music department is by far this year larger than it has been in several years. Miss Currie is giving excellent instruction.

Two new students are welcomed at the dormitory, Misses Janie McGoogan of Rennert and Mary Heustess of Mt. Tabor.

Misses Coxie and Currie are spending the week-end in Red Springs.

Miss Katie Buie is sick at her home and unable to teach. We hope she will soon be able to be with us again.

We are glad to report Master Willie Humphrey improving after a severe attack of muscular rheumatism.

Mr. D. M. McKay, who had been confined in bed for three months with a broken leg from a fall from his barn, is now able to be up again.

Messrs. J. F. McKay and W. A. Smith were in the wreck at Pembroke. They escaped without injury except for the shake-up and a few bruises.

The choir practice at the church every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock is making great improvement in the singing at church and Sunday school.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions disappear, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment is praised for its good work. 50c at all drug stores.

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

Mother! Don't Hesitate! If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile, gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

BLADEN BOY IN TROUBLE

D. C. Everett of Abbottsburg Deposited Worthless Check in a Raleigh Bank—Considered Unbalanced Mentally.

Raleigh Times, 4th.

The hearing of the case of D. C. Everett, the young man who deposited a worthless check in the Raleigh Savings Bank and Trust Company, was held this morning in the city police court and resulted in convincing every one who listened to the evidence and saw the youth that he is unbalanced mentally. No judgment was rendered by Justice Harris, and it was determined by County Attorney B. C. Beckwith, who appeared for the defendant, to take the matter up with Solicitor Norris with a view of securing permission of the superior court for J. T. Everitt, the father of the young man, to take his son back home with him to Abbottsburg, in Bladen county, and have him examined as to his mental condition, so that he may be committed to the State Hospital.

The father arrived here Tuesday evening bringing a letter of introduction and bearing all the marks of high character and standing in his community. Mr. Everitt senior stated that the boy would be 18 on his next birthday, and that nothing unusual had been noticed about him before he left home last September to come to Raleigh to take a course at King's Business College.

Young Everitt himself was unable to give any intelligent account of his actions or to explain his insane act. It would not be called forgery properly, because the signature of "Whiting and Horton" to the check drawn for $1500 had been simply written in young Everitt's own handwriting, without attempt to imitate another's chirography or to disguise his own. It might be called an attempt to obtain money by false pretenses, but even that is doubtful.

When asked if he had been taking any kind of drug, the boy said that he had been eating "opium weed," which he had bought at a drug store.

Mr. King testified that he had noticed something wrong with the boy and had tried to induce him to return home. Mr. Ballance had complained to Mr. Stallings about his room-mate, and he had been asked to leave there. A. J. Edwards, who had boarded in the house with him, said he never spoke to anyone and never smiled or look anyone in the face. He described how Everitt would wear white trousers, slippers, white vest and thin serge coat on the coldest, windiest days, and when laughed at for it never cracked a smile. Mr. Betts testified that his actions were most peculiar and that he had considered from the start that he was wrong, that his room-mate at his house had feared him.

When the circumstances were laid before the solicitor at noon today, he readily agreed to the course suggested, and the father takes his son home this evening.

Women Ride a Woman On a Rail.

Waukegan, Ill., Dispatch, 3d.

Five women of Volo, Ill., accused of driving their neighbor, Mrs. John Richardson, out of the village by riding her on a rail, today were fined $100 each by Judge Charles Donnelly. None of the women were able to pay their fines in court. They were given three days each to raise the money during which time Judge Donnelly will consider the advisability of inflicting a jail sentence if the money is not forthcoming.

Mrs. Richardson had been the subject of village gossip in which the name of her brother-in-law was involved. The women visited her home late one night, ordered her from the village, and, according to her story, placed her on a rail and rode her from her home.
