GRADED SCHOOL CLOSES.

School Closed Friday—A Number of Promotions—Prizes Awarded—Enjoyable Exercises Friday Evening—Mr. Jno. A. Oates of Fayetteville Speaks—Teachers Left for Home Saturday.

Friday marked the close of the Lumberton graded school. Friday morning at 10 o'clock quite a number of the patrons of the school had gathered in the auditorium of the school building to hear the list of promotions read out. There were about 250 promotions in all the grades during the term.

A prize was awarded the pupil in each grade that made the highest average. Following is a list of those who won prizes: First grade, Henry Lee; second grade, Lois Caldwell; third grade, Lois Caldwell; fourth grade, Rosa Caldwell; fifth grade, Mertie Britt; sixth grade, Horry Russell; seventh grade, Hazel Carlyle; eighth grade, Ethel Boone; ninth grade, Jeanette Biggs; tenth grade, Martha Britt; eleventh grade, Leitha Page. Miss Mary Biggs won the Alf H. McLeod medal offered each year by Mr. Alf H. McLeod for the best general average made in the school, her average being 99.1-3 for the year. Miss Annie Burt Steinback won a prize for composing the best original short story. A prize offered in the high school for the highest average in deportment, given by Trinity College, because of record of Miss Mary Edens at Trinity, was won by Miss Jeanette Biggs. Quite a number of class prizes were awarded to pupils for excellence and improvement in work. Prizes were awarded by Miss Mayce Glasgow, music teacher, to Harrell Humphrey, Margie Russell and Drena Hedgpeth. Some very appropriate music was rendered by the school after the prizes had been awarded, after which school was dismissed till Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

No doubt the rain kept many away Friday evening, but there was quite a crowd gathered in the auditorium at 8:30, the time for the exercises to begin. The first thing on the program was a selection by the High School Orchestra, which tuned the audience up and made them think they were in some grand opera. "The Dawn of the Day," and essay by Miss Nannie Thompson, a solo by Miss Lucile Jones, a recitation by Miss Leitha Page, a solo by Miss Carrie May Hedgpeth, an oration, "The Sunburst Boy," by Furman Biggs and a solo by Master Robert Caldwell were all entertaining and much enjoyed.

After this part of the program had been rendered the speaker of the occasion, Mr. Jno. A. Oates, an attorney of Fayetteville, was introduced in a pleasant manner by Mr. Woodberry Lennon. Mr. Lennon said that Mr. Oates didn't need any introduction, as he was for about 20 years editor of one of the best religious papers ever published in North Carolina, The North Carolina Baptist, and a man who had much to do with making this a dry State. Mr. Oates took as a subject, "Getting Ready for the Best." In starting he said that no place on earth was so dear to man as the old home, the home of one's childhood, where the getting ready for life commenced. He said that education should begin in the home and let the school room be a finishing place, a capping stone. He said that necessity, gain and ambition were the three things that make industry. He said that elimination was the salvation of efficiency. His address was homely, practical and pointed. All who heard it were well paid for going out in the rain and all who failed to hear it missed a treat.

After Mr. Oates had finished his speech diplomas were presented to the graduating class, which consisted of two girls and one boy—Misses Leitha Page and Nannie Thompson and Mr. Furman Biggs, by Prof. Sentelle. Prof. Sentelle said that the reason the class was not larger was because another grade was added at the beginning of the fall term. The last thing on the programme was a duet, "A Night in Venice," by Misses Mayce Glasgow and Lucile Jones.

The concert which was to have been given by Miss Glasgow's class this evening has been postponed till Wednesday evening. To keep the concert from coming in conflict with the prayer meeting at the various churches in town the exercises will not begin till nine o'clock.

The pupils of Miss Glasgow's class will give a recital tomorrow evening, beginning at 8:30. The exercises both tomorrow and Wednesday evening promise rare entertainment, and it is hoped large crowds will attend. There will be no charge for admission.

The session just closed was one of the best in the history of the school. Prof. R. E. Sentelle, who has wisely managed the school for six years, was superintendent; Misses Ruby C. Johnson and Edith Pipkin were teachers in the high school department; Misses Mamie Highsmith of the seventh grade; Miss Iris Cashwell of the sixth; Miss Mollie Beebe Hollowell of the fifth; Miss Mary Henderson of the fourth; Miss Pennie Rowland of the second and third; Miss Claudie Johnson of the first; Miss Mayce Glasgow, music.

The teachers, Miss Ruby Johnson of Delway, Miss Edith Pipkin of Reidville, Miss Mamie Highsmith of Fayetteville, Miss Claudie Johnson of Ridge Springs, S. C., Miss Mary Henderson of Davidson, all left Saturday for their respective homes. The

WARM POLITICAL FIGHT IN COLUMBUS COUNTY

Mr. Woodberry Lennon of Local Bar Represented Relators — New Primary Called.

The warmest session of the Democratic Executive committee ever held in Columbus county was a call meeting held at Whiteville on the 28th instant.

A primary for the nomination of county and legislative officers had been held on the 12th instant under a law taken from the State of Missouri which provided for a first and second choice ballot, something new for this State.

The relator, one K. D. Hardee, on behalf of himself and other voters of Columbus county, by their attorneys, Messrs. Lennon and Stacy Lumberton, petition with Chairman J. A. Brown, setting forth numerous irregularities and illegalities in the returns which followed the primary, and Chairman Brown called an extraordinary session to give the petition a hearing.

Mr. Lennon submitted to the committee charts representing the sheets upon which the returns were made and demonstrated to the committee that the returns were so irregular that it would be impossible to declare a nominee upon the returns under the law by which the primary was held. Heated discussions resulted and lasted from 9:30 a. m. until 4:00 p. m.

The relators succeeded at the last hour in getting a resolution through by a vote of 10 to 2 which requested the nominees under the primary to send in their resignations to the executive committee in order that a new primary might be called. Several candidates present tendered their resignations.

Picnic Will be Held at Princess Anne, Near Barnesville, Saturday of This Week.

The Baraca and Philathea classes of Orrum, Bloomingdale, Barnesville, McKindree and Bethesda Sunday schools, will give the respective Sunday schools a picnic at Princess Anne Saturday of this week. Mr. Woodberry Lennon of Lumberton, president of the Robeson County Baraca Association and Mr. E. J. Britt of Lumberton, president of the Mt. Elisham Sunday School Institute, will be present and make addresses. The Barnesville Coronet Band will furnish music for the occasion. Each class is asked to take some lemons, sugar and ice along. Dinner will be served on the grounds and in the afternoon there will be a ball game between the Orrum and Barnesville teams.

Everybody, especially non-Sunday school goers are invited to be present.

McLean Saturday: Winfield Smith, disturbing religious service, $15 and cost; Vert Taylor, drunkenness, $5 and cost; Joe Edwards, disorderly conduct on streets, judgment suspended on payment of cost; J. P. Hand, drunkenness, $2.50, cost; Trab Bass, drunkenness, judgment suspended on payment of cost; Spurgeon Small, disorderly conduct on streets, not guilty; Hasley Moore, drunkenness, $2.50 and cost; Dan McNeill, drunkenness, $2.50 and cost; Bascom Meares, drunkenness, judgment suspended on payment of cost; Dave Sammons, colored, drunkenness, $2.50 and cost; Arthur Floyd and Paul Richardson, colored, $2.50 each and cost; Richard Stone, abandonment, not prosed.

No More Connection at Proctorville.

Postmaster D. D. French has been notified that the schedule on the Elrod and Conway branch of the A. C. L. had been changed so no more connection would be made at Proctorville with the R. and C. trains. The A. C. L. will pass Proctorville at 10:13 instead of 10:38 as heretofore. The R. and C. train does not leave Lumberton till 10:05, and will not reach Proctorville until after the A. C. L. has gone. This change will make it very inconvenient for the traveling public.

Alma School Closes a Successful Term.

The public school at Alma closed the most successful session in its history Wednesday oflast week. The concert by the school in the evening, which consisted of recitations and music of various kinds, was much enjoyed by a large crowd. Miss Marguerite Townsend was principal and Miss Elizabeth MacNair was assistant.

Mt. Elisham Sunday School Institute.

The Mt. Elisham Sunday School Institute held at Barnesville yesterday was attended by about 2,000 people and was pronounced as the best meeting yet held. Prof. R. E. Sentelle of Lumberton was the principal speaker. A full account of the meeting will be published in Thursday's Robesonian.

Other teachers, Misses Pennie Rowland, Mollie Belle Hollowell and Iris Cashwell all live in Lumberton.

Miss Mayce Glasgow, teacher of music, will continue her class for six weeks longer before returning to her home at Nashville, Tenn.

The school board will meet within the next few days and elect teachers for the next term.

900 PERSONS DROWN.

Canadian Pacific Liner, Empress of Ireland, Rammmed by Collier Stors. tad—Tears Large Hole in Side—Goes Down Within 14 Minutes After Impact—No Chance for "Women First."

Rimouski Quebec, Dispatch 29th. Sinking in 90 feet of water within 15 minutes after being rammed amidships in the upper reaches of the St. Lawrence river early today, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland carried down with her more than 900 of the passengers and crew. Of the 1,367 persons on board the liner, only 433 are known to have been saved, making the probable death list 934.

Looming up through the river mists, as the Empress of Ireland was lying to wait for the fog to lift or day to break, the Danish collier Storsdad crashed bow on into the side of the big Canadian liner, striking her about midway at her length and ripping her side open clear to the stern.

Crash Near Shore. The crash occurred not far from the shore off Farther Point, 150 miles from Quebec, which the Empress of Ireland left yesterday afternoon bound for Liverpool and 10 miles from this point on the St. Lawrence. In reality therefore, although the liner was heading for the sea and the collier coming in from it, the disaster was not one of the ocean, but of the river. Unlike the Titanic's victims, the Empress of Ireland's lost their lives within sight of shore — in land-locked waters.

Immediately the ships crew recovered from the shock of the collision and when it was seen that the liner had received a vital blow a wireless "S. O. S." call was sounded.

Hurry to Rescue.

The hurried appeal was picked up by the Government mail tender Lady Evelyn here and the Government pilot boat Eureka at Father Point, and both set out to the rescue. So deep was the hure of the Empress, however, and so fast the inrush of waters, that long before either of the rescue boats could reach the scene the liner had gone down. Only floating wreckage and a few life boats and rafts from the steamer, buoying up less than a third of those who had set sail on her, were to be found. The rest had sunk with the liner, had been crushed to death in the Storsdad's impact with her, or had been forced from exposure in the ice-chilled waters to lose their hold on the bits of wreckage and had drowned.

Collier Disabled.

Only a few persons were picked up by the Storsdad, which was badly crippled herself, and these were brought here by the Eureka and the Lady Evelyn. Twenty-two of the rescued died from injury or exposure.

The others, most of whom had jumped into the boats or plunged into the water from the sinking liner scantily clad, were given such clothing as the town could supply, and later those who could travel were placed on board a train and started for Quebec.

Accounts agree that in the brief space of time—not more than 14 minutes—between the shock and the collision and the sinking of the liner there was little chance for systematic marshaling of the passengers. Indeed everything indicates that hundreds of those on the steamer never reached the decks. Few women were among the saved, not more than a dozen, the list make it appear.

No Chance for "Women First."

"It all happened so quickly we did not really know what was going on and nobody had time to cry 'Women first,' one of the passengers told Captain Bellinger of the rescue boat Eureka.

"The stewards did not have time to rouse the people from their berths," the survivor added. "Those who heard the frenzied calls of the officers for the passengers to hurry on deck, rushed up, piled into the boats, which were rapidly lowered and rowed away. Many who waited to dress were drowned."

SEABOARD FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED SATURDAY

Two Men Painfully Hurt—Several Cars Derailed—Trains Late.

Will Jeffries, a white flagman, and Sam McNeill, a negro brakeman, were painfully hurt Saturday afternoon when a local freight train, No. 66 was derailed near Clarkton. Several cars were derailed and the track torn up for some distance. The wreck was caused, it is said, by spreading rails. Both the west-bound evening train: were about six hours late Saturday night, not arriving here until after midnight.

First Cotton Forms.

Mr. W. P. McAllister told a Robesonian reporter Saturday that he had plenty of cotton forms on his farm about five miles from town, on the Creek road. Mr. McAllister says he has ten acres of cotton which he is having worked under the direction of County Farm Demonstrator J. A. Boone, and expects 25 bales from the ten acres.

Mr. Frank Watts, who lives on the star route from Lumberton, near Bee Gee, was the first to bring a real form into the office. He brought a bunch in this morning and says there is plenty on his farm.

We begin by being dupe, and end by being rogue.—Deschamps.

And They Must Be Right Much Alike.

Mr. C. V. Brown, cashier of the Bank of Lumberton and Mr. J. S. McDonald, manager of the McDonald Drug Co. must resemble each other from the way folks mix them up. Some days ago a man chased Mr. Brown into the bank building and wanted some capsules, and Friday evening Mr. McDonald sent Jim McMillan, a colored auto driver, to the V. & C. S. station to meet his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald of Raleigh, who are spending some time in town visiting at the home of Mr. McDonald, and Jim ushered them right up to Mr. C. V. Brown's new residence and put them out. There was no one living in the house, and as the doors were fastened Mister and Mistress McDonald sat around waiting for some one to come until 9 o'clock, when Mr. McDonald learned of their whereabouts, and sent for them. Things will happen, but it does look like Jim would have known better.

GREATEST MONTH EVER

More Births and Deaths Reported Than Ever Before — Registrars for Robeson.

Bulletin N. C. State Board of Health.

The Vital Statistics Law is proving to be the "hit of the season" as health work goes. The public is already taking greater interest in having their babies' births recorded and in reporting deaths than was ever expected by the State Board of Health.

A call at the Vital Statistics Department today showed that for the month of April over 9,000 births and deaths have been reported as against 7,100 for March and only 4,300 for February. In the opinion of the Board this represents about nine-tenths of all the births and deaths actually occurring in the State. This rapid increase in figures tells better than words of public interest in the new law.

Our people no longer mean to be born, live and die and leave no more record of their having been here than so many animals. Each human being certainly deserves to have a permanent record made of the two most important events of his life (his birth and death) and to have these records filed in the archives of the State for all time.

Much of the credit for the favorable report of this county is due to our admirable corps of local registrars to whom all these births and deaths occurring in the various towns and townships were first reported. For the information of our readers who may have occasion to report births and deaths, we give herewith a list of the registrars for each town and township in the county. Always be sure to report to the registrar in your own town or township.

The Absolutely Happy Existence.

"According to poetic standards the absolutely happy existence in this world is the American cow because she is a lady. She rises in the morning early and with one flick of her tail makes her toilet. She does not have to be buttoned up the back or have her terraces. (laughter). She goes forth to her morning grass and after an hour or so begins to contemplate the grass across the way. Finally she says 'Me thinks yonder grass is lusher than this' and she goes over to it. She does not have to work like the cows of the East and she goes to the cooling stream and stands in it waist deep for a time, then to some shade trees under which she sits down and chews her cud.

"Did you ever see a cow chew a cud, ladies and gentlemen. Her upper jaw is stationary and her lower revolves. I never see a cow chewing her cud without thinking also of the healthy American girl chewing gum. The cow is perfectly happy. She has no religious doubt, is no agnostic, does not have to worry whether her son in the city is going to the devil or not. But I presume none of you want to be a cow."

The regular meeting of the K. of P. will be held in the town hall tonight. All members are requested to be present.

Farm Demonstrator Boone Not Guilty.

County Farm Demonstrator J. A. Boone asks The Robesonian please to state that he has had nothing to say about the salaries paid county officers and is not mixed up in any way with the fight Mr. W. H. Humphrey started. Mr. Humphrey referred in his article in Monday's Robesonian to Mr. Boone in a way that might lead one to think that Mr. Boone was complaining at the smallness of the salary he receives as compared with the salaries received by the county officers. Mr. Boone does not like that reference to him a bit. He says that he is not a county officer at all, that he is a United States Farm Demonstrator, half of his salary being paid by the United States Department of Agriculture, and that the Department does not allow its employees to engage in politics. Please count him out, asks Mr. Boone; he is not mixed up in the discussion at all.

Church Tax Reform Also.

Charlotte Observer. It comes out that a considerable number of New Jersey Methodist Churches have been paying salaries to pastors' wives. This was not done because of any feeling that pastors' wives should receive them as such but for another reason. Under the present plan of raising funds for the bishop's salary and Conference expenses each church is assessed on a percentage of what it pays its pastor. In practice this has operated as a hindrance to better pay for pastors of small churches. To avoid the increased assessment which they would incur by direct raise in pastor's salaries some churches, therefore, adopted the expedient of paying the additional amount to the wife. These facts have been brought out by a special committee of the district stewards appointed to consider readjustment of the levies for the general budget. The committee hopes to devise a new plan of assessment, which will place no premium upon such evasion and which will be satisfactory to large and small congregations alike. Its problem in taxation is one shared by many tax units quite outside of the church fields and one troubling North Carolina from end to end every year.
