IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Brown Entertain. One of the most delightful social events of many months took place Thursday evening of last week when Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Brown entertained from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock at their elegant new home on North Elm street in honor of their guests Misses Nan Walker, Ballard Ramsey and Nannie Paris of Rocky Mount.

The following assisted in receiving: At the front door, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sharpe; Mrs. Jno. C. Fuller at the parlor door, presenting to the receiving line, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the honor guests, Misses Walker, Ramsey and Paris; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jennings at the dining room door; Mrs. R. C. Lawrence in the dining room; Misses Ollie Bacon, Cammie McNeill, Annie Neal Fuller and Elizabeth Whitfield serving ice cream and cake in the dining room; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McNeill leading the way from the dining room to the punch bowl, in a corner of the verandah, where Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Proctor served delicious punch, assisted by Misses Vashti White and Martha Lee North. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Carlyle discoursed sweet music throughout the evening on piano and violin.

A large number of people called during the evening and were loath to leave, for besides the social features that made the evening one of rare pleasure, everywhere about the house it was delightfully cool, making it easy for one to imagine that she or he had been transported to some mountain resort, or that the calendar was wrong and it was not an evening in July.

MISS JANIE M'RAE DROWNED.

Robeson County Woman Drowned in Shoe Heel Creek—Thought to Have Been Suicide.

Maxton Dispatch, 9th.

Miss Janie McRae, a young woman about 30 years old, of near Seven Bridges, Robeson county, seven miles southwest from Maxton, met her death by drowning some time during last night or early this morning in Shoe Heel creek. The evidence points to self destruction while mentally unbalanced. Two years ago her father, the late Major R. McRae, died and five months ago her mother died. She had been in very poor health for some time and arrangements had been made to take her to a sanatorium in Charlotte.

She was very dependent over her condition and continued brooding evidently unbalanced her mind and caused the act of self destruction. Her absence was noted this morning and on going to her room her night clothes were found across the bed. Search was instituted and she was tracked to Shoe Heel creek and she was found lying in four feet of water. A severe bruise was on the head, which was quite probably made by striking her head against the abutment of the bridge and which must have rendered her unconscious.

Death of Mrs. A. M. McNair of Maxton.

Maxton Special, 9th, to Wilmington Star.

Mrs. A. M. McNair, a young matron 36 years old, died here rather suddenly this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. She is survived by her husband and three little daughters, one an infant and the other two two years old, and by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCaskill, Jr., of Bennettsville, S. C. Her death coming in the prime of life is an especially sad one and the whole community was shocked by her untimely departure. Great sympathy was felt for the bereaved husband, the aged parents and the two little daughters.

WOODMEN ENTERTAIN

Reception Given by Cypress Camp No. 125—An Enjoyable Occasion.

One of the most enjoyable occasions pulled off here in many moons was a reception given by Cypress Camp No. 125, W. O. W., in their hall in the postoffice building Thursday evening from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. The number present, including members and invited guests, was 125.

State Senator G. B. McLeod was master of ceremonies and the following were asked to make short addresses, which they did, and while they were not all addresses on Woodcraft, they were full of humor, and afforded good entertainment: J. M. Fleming, W. Lennon, M. T. Bobbitt, W. L. Dougherty, E. M. Britt, D. D. King, W. G. Nance, D. S. Wilkins, W. T. Hutchinson, G. L. Thompson, Grover Britt, J. T. Biggs, E. G. Sipher, Jim Blackburn, E. D. Kelly, E. M. Johnson, W. J. DuBois, R. E. Lewis, J. P. Townsend, J. B. Bowen and William Ivey.

While the speaking was going on, ice cream, cake, ale, fruit and cigars—and it was all mighty "fitten"—were served in abundance, and a rising vote of thanks was extended to Mr. C. B. Redmond, proprietor of the Parlor Grocery, and Mr. W. J. DuBois, proprietor of the Lumberton Bakery for the way they had served such refreshing refreshments.

As a whole it was an evening of great pleasure and enjoyment for a large crowd, and Cypress Camp No. 125, W. O. W., did itself proud in the way it entertained its members and the invited guests.

Cypress Camp No. 125 is one of the strongest in this section of the State, having 125 paid-up members, and no doubt the reception given Thursday evening will mean many more members for the lodge.

Unveiling of W. O. W. Monument and Sunday School Meeting.

Reported for The Robesonian.

The unveiling of the monument erected by the Woodmen of the World in memory of one of its honorable members, Mr. Z. Wilson, took place at Long Branch church Thursday afternoon. Mr. Evander M. Britt of Lumberton was orator of the occasion, his speech in itself being a gem, and calculated to inspire all in the stronger ties of fraternal friendship. After prayer at the grave a number of appropriate selections were splendidly rendered by the Long Branch male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Ira and Floyd Britt, Luther Thompson and Judson Smith. The exercise as a whole was impressive and showed the loyalty of this noble order to its deceased members and their families. Preceding the unveiling ceremonies, a large crowd had assembled in the church, where by request of the pastor, Rev. I. P. Hedgpeth, Mr. Frank Gough conducted a short devotional service, after which he in fitting words introduced his pastor and that of the First Baptist church of Lumberton, Rev. Chas. L. Greaves, who would talk on his (Mr. Gough's) favorite theme—the Sunday school. Mr. Greaves made one of the best Sunday school addresses we have ever heard. Our folks were delighted and no doubt good will result. We hope Brother Greaves will come again.
